SOUL, BODY NAMED TEXT FOR SUNDAY

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty." So sings the Psalmist in the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson—Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all Christian Science churches. (104:1).

The glory of Soul was demonstrated by Christ Jesus in healing the two blind men. Matthew's Gospel (9:28-30) records, "The blind men came to him; and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yes, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened." In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes, "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and Salvation" (p. 210).
