Thirty-two Boy Scouts from Troop 957, sponsored by the Avilon Baptist Church, were headed home from a week end camping trip Sunday, when the bus they were riding in suddenly sputtered and stopped.

The accompanying adults investigated and discovered that the bus was out of gas. Luckily, a car with Scout officials was following, and the driver returned for gas.

The boys spent the week end at Green River, near Corona. Accompanying them were Scoutmaster Chester Alexander, Arthur L. Flynn, Cecil Hummel, Rex Hunt, and J. Sampson, all of whom helped the boys work toward their merit badges and awards in cooking, hiking, swimming and camping.

At the last meeting of the troop, the group received a trophy for third place in the Harbor District advancement program. The presentation was made to Scoutmaster Alexander by Thomas G. Get more business by telephone

Here are three telephone suggestions which every businessman may profitably heed:

- 1 Be sure you have enough telephone lines to handle your "outgoing" business and at the same time have enough facilities so customers can reach your number.
- 2 Be sure that ALL the products and services you sell are listed in the "yellow pages" under the proper heading so new customers will not find a competitor's number more easily than they do yours.
- 3 Make use of sales-producing display advertisements in the Classified Section (yellow pages) of the Telephone Directory.
