Army Enlistments Open In New Armored Unit

Enlistments are open for assignment to Germany with the 3rd Armored Division, now being formed at Ft. Knox, Ky. It was announced by M. Sgt. Catena, local Army recruiter. Men who enlist will be trained together and rotate with the unit both to and from Germany.

Those who wish to enlist in "Operation Gyroscope" and be together in the same unit were urged by Sergeant Catena to make inquiries early at the Army Recruiting Station, Post Office Building, Torrance. A limited number of assignments are available, he said.

Girl Scouts Get Five, One-Year Pins, Celebrate Troop Birthday

By BEVERLEY DYER
FA 8-1380
A very successful dance was held in the Madrona School lunch patio on Friday night, May 28, by Girl Scout Troop No. 1293, working toward a dance badge. One of the patrols planned and served refreshments, another patrol decorated the auditorium in Scout colors, and a third planned the program. There were 28 girls and boys in attendance, including Girl Scouts Pauline Yuasa, Carla Osterlind, Betty Stroman, Judy Motoyasu, Patsy Lewis, Nanette Gallo, Kaaren Crist,

Carla Conklin, and Kathleen Brady. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brunner, Mrs. W. W. Jackson, and Mrs. Carl Osterlind acted as chaperones. Two of the girls, Jerry Brunner and Janice Jackson received five year pins for Girl Scouting. This dance also served as a birthday celebration for the troop. Woody Stroman of 1014 Felbar, bowled in the State Bowling Tournament in Stockton when he and his wife spent last week end there. On May 22,

Woody bowled in the tournament held in Bakersfield, and prior to this was an eight-day business trip spent in New York, Boston, Pennsylvania, and Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Hansen of 2509 Sierra, entertained old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weitz and daughter, Kathleen of Baltimore, on several different occasions last week. Joe Hansen, three years old, appeared with a case of measles, interrupting an extended visit. On Memorial Day, Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Porter of 1025 Elm, enjoyed the races at Hollywood Park with friends from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Donald Wiseman of 1025 Elm, was happy to entertain a friend of 25 years, Mrs. Mareta Davenport, who came from her home in Phoenix to spend several days last week.

Hans Malmberg of 1105 Elm, who is associated with Tolson Realty was taken to the Torrance Memorial Hospital last Friday. On Wednesday, he is to return to his home where he lives with a daughter, Mrs. Olene Halquist and son Donald.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barnett of 1109 Faysmith, recently entertained Barnett's mother and brother, Mrs. A. R. Barnett and Earl Barnett, of Redding. They were former residents of Torrance. Earl Barnett is now associated with the Fishing Commission in Redding.

A lovely patio party was held on Saturday night, May 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker of 1216 Felbar. The patio was decorated to resemble a French restaurant, and the menu consisted of French foods prepared by Mrs. Walker. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Stan Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cormany of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Mitts, and Mr. and Mrs. Chal Strayer of Torrance; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cummins of Los Angeles.

The Buzz Carson Western Show held at Madrona School last Wednesday evening was most successful. Mrs. Rocky Janasik and Mrs. Phillip Analco, ways and means chairmen of the Madrona Ave. PTA, are to be congratulated. The com to be congratulated. The community has benefited from these endeavors.

At a recent board meeting of the Gardens Plaza Homeowners Association dissolution of the organization because of lack of interest was discussed. The group has been dormant for about six months. If no interest is shown by time of the next board meeting this month it will be decided to disband. The general fun will be given to some charity.

Local YMCA Camp Meet Set June 6

Torrance youngsters who want to go to YMC camp this summer are invited to bring their parents to attend the annual Campers' Rally on June 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Y branch. Stan Roberts, Y executive secretary, said Wednesday that the program will be explained and illustrated at the get-together.

A movie on YMCA camping and colored slides of past Torrance trips will be shown. "Indications are that there will be more boys who want to go to camp this year than we'll be able to handle, and we advise parents to sign their boys up early," Roberts warned. One boy who won't have to make reservations at the rally is 10-year-old Roger Billingsley who became the season's first camper to sign up several weeks ago.

Roger, who wanted to go to Y Camp last year, but who was prevented from doing so by sickness, will attend eight-day period at Round Meadow beginning July 12. This camp is for 8½ to 14 year olds. Roberts' said folders have been mailed to last year's campers and members of the Y staff are now distributing them at various meetings. They can also be obtained by calling the Y, FA 8-1272.
