

Faraway Places Beckon to Local Residents Over Holiday Week End

By JANET ROBINSON and BARBARA WEAVER

Many local residents went to places and did their own thing over the Memorial Day holidays. For instance the Ray Lees, of 4432 Green Meadows, spent the week end camping out at Salton Sea, returning on Monday. Janice reports that although it was 105 degrees there was enough breeze to keep it nice, and that they did nothing except get sunburned.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Clements and children Gary and Linda, of 5302 Calle Mayor, drove to Fresno over Memorial Day. They visited Mrs. Clements' mother, Mrs. Cotter.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wilson and sons, Stephen and David, of 4527 Green Meadows, spent a busy Memorial week end in San Diego where they visited Albert's mother, Mrs. Skimin and took in some of the Harbor Day activities. They also took the children to the Museum of Man in Balboa Park, and went aboard a destroyer, the U.S.S. Hammer, in the harbor.

The William Forresters, of 4533 Green Meadows, went to the San Fernando Valley Saturday and Sunday. Son Scotty spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle in the Palisades.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Dawson and small son, of 4420 Pacific Coast Hwy., went to San Diego over the holiday week end, where Duane enjoyed a 12 hour trip—from 2 a.m. to 2 p.m.—on a commercial fishing boat.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Maltz, of 4520 Green Meadows Ave., welcomed a new baby girl on May 22. The newcomer's name is Beth Linda, weight 8 pounds 3 ounces.

This area. They have resided here about two months. Judy's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rutberg, came from Philadelphia for the blessed event, but Rutberg had to return after a two week stay.

Capt. Harry Shires is glad to be back at his home, 4527 Highgrove Ave., after six weeks at Fort Bliss, Tex., where he attended an Army Guided Missile School. Needless to say, his wife, Joyce, and son Stevie, are more than glad to have him back. At present he is stationed at Fort MacArthur.

Harbor Day for Los Angeles area was celebrated Sunday, May 22. The Orville Robinson family, 4509 Green Meadows Ave., went to the festivities at the Matson Terminal where they watched Janet's brother, Bill Dunsmore, launch his new boat, "The Bombero." Polly and Bill Dunsmore both are members of the Cabrillo Ski Club and they put on water skiing exhibitions during the afternoon.

At the main tent there were many interesting things to see. The children especially enjoyed seeing dances and hearing musical instruments played by exchange students from many foreign countries.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, of 4703 Green Meadows Ave., held a meeting at her home last Wednesday morning for women interested in joining the Y-Wives Club.

Meetings are on Friday mornings and there are nursery facilities. The dues are 50c a week. Members enjoy learning different crafts and also have games such as volley ball. Anyone who is interested in joining or anyone who would like to know more about the Y-Wives can call FR 5-7181.

League is sponsoring a benefit dance to be held at the Hollywood Riviera Club on June 18. Tickets will sell for $2.50 per couple, and dancing will be to the music of Tony Zerves orchestra. Money derived will help finance the program planned for next year. John Bloom, 5020 Pacific Coast Hwy., FR 5-7073 and Arlen Charter, 4414 Pacific Coast Hwy., FR 5-2917 are in charge of tickets for this area.

A number of boys in this area are on Little League teams. On the roster of Major League teams are Gary Clements, and Mike Coleman, Padres; Mike Charter, Terry Kirkbride, and Timothy Rice, Seals; and John Robinson, Angels. Minor League team members are George LaPorte, Angels; Bill Darnall, David Humes and Thomas Kirkbride, Padres; Glen Jonas, Mike Mandish, Leon Whitecotton, and Raymond Leitchy, Seals; Edward Billingsley and Larry McLeod, Stars; Barry Bullington, Dieke Bowman, and David Powers, Solons.

Some of the fathers have also gotten in the act. Umpires from this area include Duane Dawson, John Bloom, Jack Rice, and Joe Clements, alternate. Larry Kirkbride is manager of the Padres Minor League.

Little League games are held every evening at 6 p.m. with double headers on Saturdays and Sundays at 1:30 and 3:30. Hot dogs, pop corn, candy, and cold drinks are available at concession stands.

Mike Moore, of 4503 Newton St., found out the hard way that all skunks are not quite the same.

He came over the hill late Thursday evening from Little League practice and found a darling baby skunk who would make a perfect playmate for their deodorized pet at home. Needless to say Mrs. Moore has worn herself out scrubbing clothes and airing out the home. She says it still smells awful around there.

Another newcomer is Sharie Ann, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Woodridge, of 5302 Calle Mayor, born May 20, 1955 and weighing in at 5 lbs. 8 ozs.

Marge Charles, of 5422 Riviera Way, had a get together of the neighbors recently in honor of Mary Ann Freeland's birthday. Grace Greenwood, Pat Fannon, Barbara Dooling, and Shirley Hanson were present. Coffee, tea, and cake were served.

Jean Asher just returned from Tucson, Ariz., where she visited her sister, Jeanette MacDonald, University of Arizona student, who had been seriously injured in an auto accident. Jean drove over with her father and flew home.

The Frank Wykofkas, of 24002 Janet Lane, spent an interesting holiday week end prospecting for uranium. Their explorations took place on the Papago Indian Reservation in southern Arizona, where they saw much interesting country and met some wonderful people. Irene reports they hiked 35 miles through desert country where the temperature went as high as 120 degrees, often wondering if they'd ever see Torrance again.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlen Charter, 4414 Pacific Coast Hwy., are enjoying a visit from their parents, who arrived Sunday from Ralston, Ia. They will be here for two or three weeks.

Joseph Frey, of 4538 Pacific Coast Hwy., left Sunday morning on a business trip to Cheyenne, Wyo. He expects to be gone a week. On the return trip he will have a stopover visit with friends in Denver.

Janet Smith, of 4439 Green Meadows Ave., entertained Thursday evening at a baby shower honoring Nevin Fosterling and her new son, John Jr. It's plain to see that young John will be the best dressed boy in the block. Cake and ice cream were served.

Those present were Dorothy Newkirk, Sue Sommer, Caroline Cameron, Agnes Rogers, Lucerne Schureman, Mary Ann Freeland, Janice Lee, Jean Asher, Liz Adams, Sonny Tomchak, Jo Ann Doudna, Merla Wilson, DeLores Hugoboom, Janet Robinson, and Barbara Weaver.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Huff and Mrs. Fosterling.

mother and mother-in-law of the guest of honor, Mrs. Smith, mother of the hostess, Mrs. Iron, and Mrs. Hoenig.

Three members of the Roland Rogers family, 4521 Green Meadows, have had an attack of virus — first Linda, then Nancy, and now Roland. Agnes is still on her feet.
