

Sally Speck Installed Honored Queen Bethel 50 Job's Daughters on June 4

"Wings of Beauty" keynoted the colorful and impressive ceremony at the Masonic Temple, Saturday evening, June 4, when the Torrance Bethel 50 Order of Job's Daughters held its fifty-sixth semi-annual public installation of officers. A capacity crowd of relatives and friends of the Job's Daughters gathered at the Temple to witness an installation at which Floyd Mead served as the master of ceremonies.

The program opened with the candlelighting ceremony by Miss Joy Pearman and Miss Peggy Wood. Mr. Mead gave the welcome address.

Mrs. Pearl Thayne, Bethel Guardian, and Leonard Babcock, associate guardian, made their entrance as the opening of the program. Carol Maloy, retiring Honored Queen, was escorted in by Leonard Babcock as Rev. Donald Shelby sang "There's Beauty Everywhere." By candlelight, the Bethel Choir and officers made their entrance through wings of a huge butterfly. The background on each side of the butterfly was white lattice entwined with ivy and colorful butterflies, and flower arrangements of stock and gladioli.

Honored Queen Sally Speck entered the room on the arm of her father as Rev. Donald Shelby sang "You'll Never Walk Alone." The Bible was brought in as Rev. Shelby sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mervin Schwab gave the invocation. The flag was presented by Janie Moffatt, past honored queen of Bethel 50, and the obligation of office was repeated by the choir and officers.

The elective officers then took their stations with guide and marshal, Linda Thayne and Jeannette Wright, and senior and junior princesses, Diane Allen and Susan Babcock. Honored Queen Sally Speck then knelt at the altar and with her hands on the Bible was crowned queen by Carol Maloy.

Miss Speck received her gavel and Miss Maloy was presented with her past honored queen's pin, by the Jewel Bearers, Bobby and Candy Peckham.

The Edna Babcock and other dignitaries were escorted to the east for introduction. Miss Maloy signed the Bible as the soloist sang "The Perfect Day." The reception followed the closing ceremony and benediction.

Refreshments consisted of open face sandwiches, cake, punch and coffee. The honored queen's colors were pastel shades.

The newly installed officers with Miss Speck were: Joan Bunch, outer guard; Ruth McCune, inner guard; Maurine Bradford, senior custodian; Bonnie Kail Jr., custodian; Jane Rowe, musician; Jean DuRant, chaplain; Caroline Janssens, librarian; Esther Van Wagner, treasurer; Peggy Sprout, recorder; Kathy Jones, Ellen McCue, Diane Cook, Bonnie Denton, Betty Boyd, messengers; Becky Candler, choir director; Kay Smith, obligations; Marianne Rasmussen, electrician; Laverne Lewis, sociability; Beth Ladd, assistant musician and Judi Cook, assistant recorder.

Installing officers were Janice Crabtree, Janie Moffatt, Marian McDonald, Ann Sclarotta, Carol Campbell, Beverly Chambers, all past honored queens of Bethel 50; and June Gold, honored queen of Bethel 112, Gardena.

Hostesses were Ann Steinbaugh and Judi Reid. Ushers were Gene Walker and Mike Kendall. Dana Cecil, of Torrance, served as electrician.

Dinner-Party

Mrs. Robert Sleeth Jr., 24251 Los Cedona, was hostess at a dinner and bridge party held recently in her home.

The event was a benefit for the St. Cecilia Guild of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Nine guests were seated at small tables, each of which was centered with an arrangement of white daisies and white tapers in silver holders. Attending the 7 o'clock event were Mrs. John Mineck, Art Woodcock, John Sass, E. V. Winkelbauer, Dean Barkdull, and Allen Lucas.

AFIS Gives Farewell Party For Two Foreign Students

A farewell party for Lena Malmstrom and Max Will, foreign students who have attended Torrance High School during their senior year, was given Wednesday evening by the committee for the American Field Service who brought the students here from Germany in August and Lena from Sweden in September.

Both have taken active parts in high school affairs and Torrance students have welcomed them into their clubs, classes and homes. The two students have spoken to church groups, PTA units, and service clubs giving their impressions of life in the United States and comparing it to life in their own countries.

At Wednesday's party speeches were made by Dr. J. H. Hull, Superintendent of Schools, Bruce Wagner, High School Principal, and Joe Fazio, student body president. Mrs. Dean L. Sears presented bouquets and gifts from the committee. A local flower shop and nursery furnished a corsage for Lena and a boutonniere for Max as well as the table centerpiece.

The American Field Service, Torrance Chapter, was organized last year in March to raise funds to bring to this country students to attend Torrance High School. The committee consists of Messrs. M. M. Schwab, G. C. Van Deventer, S. V. Rauss, C. W. Kay, J. E. Popovich, D. L. Sears, Carl Lippincott, E. Janssen and Miss Carmelita Rous. This year the committee is selling Membership Cards to raise money for one student in the North Torrance High as well as Torrance High School. The AFIS is sending Larry Lippincott from Torrance High to Germany this summer to live with a family in Berlin for six weeks.

TO SEE DAUGHTERS OFF IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McGarry, 1551 W. 215th St., have decided to fly to New York with their daughters, Misses Maureen and Ann McGarry, who will leave from there on June 24 for a summer in Europe. The four will leave here June 21, and spend a few days in New York. Mr. and Mrs. McGarry will then go by plane to Atlanta, Ga., Birmingham and Mobile, Ala., to spend two weeks with relatives and friends in their former home.

Los Fiestadores Club's Dinner Dance Ends Year

"Summer Rhapsody" was the theme of the dinner dance given Saturday evening by the Los Fiestadores Dance Club closing their current year. The affair was held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro and tables were decorated with spring nosegays to which were attached ornamental musical notes. Frank James' orchestra provided music for dancing and a specialty was the "Anniversary Waltz" for all couples married in June. Favors were provided for the women and men. During the evening, Rod Norris announced the new Los Fiestadores board members for next year. They are: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hamilton, presidents; Dr. and Mrs. Phil Haloran, vice presidents; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Christian, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clayton, secretaries; and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dexter, membership chairman. The committee in charge of last Saturday's affair were: Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Eastham, and Messrs. and Mrs. W. R. Patterson, R. R. Dexter and Park Montague.

AROUND THE COFFEE TABLE . . . at the lovely farewell party given by the American Field Service committee honoring Max Will of Germany and Lena Malmstrom of Sweden are from left, Mrs. J. E. Popovich, Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, Max Will, Mrs. Dean Sears, Mrs. M. H. Schwab, and Lena Malmstrom. The two foreign students will leave for their homes after spending the senior year at the local high school.
