

(ESTABLISHED JAN. 1, 1914)

TORRANCE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1955

High School Graduates Listed

Largest Class To Get Diplomas

In Torrance High School graduation ceremonies to be held Thursday, June 16, 285 students—162 girls and 123 boys will get their diplomas.

The exercises will be held at 8:15 p.m. in the Torrance High Football Stadium, with School Board President Grace Wright presenting the diplomas to the students, who include her own daughter, Judith.

With the theme, "The Age of Challenge," the ceremonies will feature speeches by four students on various phases of the subject. Joe Fazio will discuss the past, Doris Popovich will take a look at the present, Neil Mahon will talk on the future, and Jim Donnette will summarize.

The class song, "No Man Is An Island," will be presented with Eddie Alvarez as director. Graduates will be presented to School Superintendent J. H. Hull by Principal W. Bruce Magner.

At the same time, 46 graduates of Torrance Evening High School will receive their diplomas from Adult Principal Raymond E. Collins.

The complete list of graduates:

- A Fred Albertson, Edward Victor Alvarez, Jesse E. Amado, Marvin Paul Anthony, Robert Cordell Archer, Kelly Clark Asker. B Kendall Ray Baker, Jr., Carleton Edward Beck, Robert Albert Benton, William John Rogers, Jack Burgess Bolton, Michael Thomas Bostich, Robert Garbner Boss, James Robert Bridges, Sterling James Buckley, Jerry Rae Buchholz, Joseph Dan Buckley, Frank Jerome Burns. C Jeffrey Allen Carr, William Robert Castle, Thomas L. Cavannah, Charles E. Collins, Willis Earl Collins, Jr., James Vernon Cordes, Walter James Cribbs. D Tracey Alexander Dale, Carl Vern Davis, Gerald Allan Davis, Howard M. Davis, James Joseph Donnette, George Edwin Dougherty, David Van Draskowski, Robert Charles DuBois II, William Ott Dummer. E Edward Glenn Easley, Carlos Jose Espinosa Wayne, Oran Evenson. F Richard Ferns, Joseph Phillip Fazio, Jr., Walter Clarence Felzbuch, Wolfgang Herman August Fenger, Lloyd Conway Finch, Jr., Donald Richard Fittarolo. G Jerry Lee Gillespie, Joseph Charles Giordano, Chester Melvin Graves, Jr., Marvin R. Greene, Dorsey B. Graver, Jr. H Gary Evan Hakanson, Renee Thomas Hand, Howard James Haworth, Ronald Stephan Heffler, James Edward Hendricks, Jr., Larry Alford Hertzfeldt, Dennis D. Hoster, Fred George Hilton, Jr., Frank Hirata, George Jennings III. I Richard Bernard Inman, Donald M. Iwata. J Gerry C. Jacobs, Ronald Edward Jacurs, Clarence Robert Johnson. K Shirletha Roy Kato, Gary Lee Kirtley. L James Thomas Lawrence, Barrett Hamilton Lee, Robert Edward Lee, Robert Frederick Lettner, Thomas Paul Little, Abraham M. Low, Gilbert Julian Gonzales Luna, Jr. M Elmont Edward McVey, Mattie Magana, William Neil Munton, Ernest Mata, Gerald Winston Morris, James Lowell Mouton. N Buddy Charles Nicolaisen. O Robert Peter Owensdyk. P James Lee Palmer, James William Papert, Robert Allen Parker, Stephen Dale Peters, David James Portlock. Q Joe D. Quinones. R Jerry Milbourne Reiss, Edward Frank Rickes, Peter Donald Rimec, William Edward Rines, Gerald Keith Rittmiller, Gerald L. Rognquist, Paul Eugene Rowe, David Raymond Roky. S David William Saine, Gustavo Pineda Sanchez, James John Sankov, Carl John Shelton, Paul Tashiro Shinoda, Jr., Harvey Silagy, Carlos Lee Poe Skaggs, Graydon Richard Smart, Henry Thomas Smima, David Lee Smith, Samuel Lee Smith, Larry Henick Stamper, James Joe Stanford, George Wesley Steele II, Merion Neil Stoner, Jerry Arthur Swift. T Irvin Ernest Taitz, James Richard Thompson, Thomas Clifford Todd, William Lee Traw. V Vernon Thomas Vanderpool. W Jimmy Gene Walker, Benny Watson, Willard Hugh Walker, Jack Owen Widmark, Max Otto Will, Robert Frank Wilson, Fred Allan Wisinger. GIRLS A Alice Albertson, Noreen L. Albertson. B Sylvia Ann Bailegud, Mary Ross N. Fulford.

Lomita Youth Given Two Scholarships

Richard Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Faulkner Sr., 1860, 262 St. Lomita, has been awarded two scholarships.

One is a $200 scholarship given by Elks Lodge of San Pedro.

The other is an annual $100 scholarship presented by the UCLA Alumni Assn.

Top student at Narbonne High School, where he was graduated in February, the 18 year old youth is now an engineering student at UCLA, where he is in the Air Force ROTC.

At Narbonne High he was awarded a life membership in the California Scholastic Federation, and was given perfect attendance honors. A member of the Barons, Knights and Vigilantes, he was on the football and track teams. He is a junior past master councilor of Lomita Chapter of the Order of DeMolay, which he helped organize.

Miss Schultz graduates Shirley Schultz, of Torrance, received an associate of arts degree from Palos Verdes College at commencement exercises held yesterday.

Harbor Tech Finals Today

Final examinations at Harbor Junior College for the spring semester will begin today and run through June 16, according to William N. Kepley, dean of curriculum and instruction.

Commencement exercises will be held Thursday evening, June 16, for the 105 graduating members of the college.

Larry Lippincott Will Study in Berlin, Germany, During Summer

By JACK and MARY WEBB Headed for faraway places with strange sounding names this summer will be Larry Lippincott, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lippincott, of 132 Palos Verdes Blvd.

He is the first student chosen in the local American Field Service program to go abroad for a summer of study in a foreign country. He will live on the famous Unter den Linden in Berlin-Lichterfelde, West Germany, with Mrs. Ruth Nackmayr and her two sons, Dietrich, 19, and Kurt, 16.

As the first local student to go abroad under the program, he will represent Torrance. When he returns to school this fall, he will take on a lecture program to acquaint local students with things he has learned.

To Fly to Berlin Lippincott will leave New York on June 20, bound for Bremerhaven, where he will board a plane to Berlin.

He is an outstanding student at Torrance High School, which is one of the pre-requisites for students in the program. He has just been elected student body president at the high school for the next term.

He served as president of the junior class and of the Torrance Youth Coordinating Council during the past year. As a sophomore, he was Boys' League representative, student council member, and president of the inter-club council. As a freshman, he was class president and a member of the TNT staff.

Robert Lee Gruenewald. H Robert Allan Hartel, Donald Phillip Hawkes, Harley Tate Henson, Gilbert C. Hernandez, Hubert Leon Hickman. K Tony Kelly. M Walter Noel McHenry, Lorene H. Morris, Cleo A. Mortensen. N Frank E. Otterstein. P Lois Allene Farnell, Stewart Ivan Phillips. R Verdette Verlene Reed, Charles M. Rhine, Hal Vern Rigg. S Martha Wallace Scarborough, Marvin G. Shockey, Howard C. Simpson, Juanita J. Smith. U Joseph Edward Uedinger. V John Raymond Vaughn. W Ben Lloyd Wallace, Joyce Lilley Wathen, Mary Jane Whetston, Ray Ronald Wiseman.

Last Weeks are Busy Ones, THS Seniors Learn

The final two weeks of school are busy ones, members of the senior class at Torrance High School are finding out.

Seniors took their finals Monday and Tuesday, and beside attending classes, were busy getting their annals signed. In fact, a special annual-signing party was held last night in the YWCA with dancing following.

Girls celebrated slack and pedal pusher day Tuesday, with seniors getting their caps and gowns yesterday.

The newly-elected officers of the student body will be installed at an auditorium call this morning.

Baccalaureate services will be held both tonight and tomorrow night, with the service set Sunday at 3 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The Junior and Senior Prom will be held Friday in the El Camino Campus Center, starting at 9 p.m.

Seniors will hold their annual breakfast at the Civic Auditorium from 8 to 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Senior Tea Set The senior tea will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, with graduation practice planned that night.

The climax will come on Thursday night at 8:15 when commencement exercises are held at the high school stadium, followed by the senior all-night party at the Hollywood Riviera Club.

Students will close their school career the next day as they get their report cards and diplomas.

Police Car Youth Group Meet Slated

Torrance Police Car Club Assn. met at 7:30 last evening in the council chambers at City Hall.

Sponsored by the Police Department, the group is being planned to furnish educational and recreational programs for local youth. Officer "Buck" Ingram is the group's sponsor.

Members of the Prowlers, Dominos, Ambassadors, and Chasers, local car clubs, were present, as were several boys who do not belong to organized car clubs.

The group is affiliated with the Peace Officers' Car Club Assn., with headquarters in Lynwood.

Further meetings of the organization will be announced in the future, with all boys over 16 eligible to join. Further information can be obtained from Officer Ingram at the Police Station.

USC Scholarship Goes To Howard J. Haworth

In recognition of outstanding academic records and student leadership, a scholarship to the University of Southern California, beginning with the September term, has been granted to Howard J. Haworth, 1319 Fern Ave.

The university scholarship is valued up to full tuition of $2800 for four years of college training, being renewable annually upon completion of satisfactory work.

Steinbaugh, Easley Named High School Honor Students

Ann Kathleen Steinbaugh and Cynthia Ann Easley will be feted as honor students at Torrance High School graduation ceremonies next Thursday.

Both girls will be honored for top scholarship in their class. Miss Steinbaugh is also winner of the National Supply essay contest, the Redondo Elks award, a Bank of America trophy in social studies, and a scholarship to Stanford. Miss Easley won a Bank of America certificate in math. Both are Scholarship Society members.

Cribbs Honored Also receiving a number of honors will be Walter Jim Cribbs, who won the Bausch-Lomb Science Award, Bank of America trophy in science, membership in the Scholarship Society, a Lions Club scholarship, and a scholarship to the California Institute of Technology.

Other winners of Bank of America trophies are Jim Thompson, music, and Barrett Lee, industrial arts. Certificate winners include Cathy Rohrdanz, business, Sally Speck, home economics, Pat Mounger,

RICHARD FAULKNER Wins Scholarships

Graduation Announced

Erma Carstens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carstens, 1452 Post Ave., will receive a bachelor of arts degree at Occidental College Sunday.

The exercises will be held at Hillside Theater on the campus at 7:30 p.m. it was announced by President Arthur G. Coons, who will preside.

Walter Paepcke, chairman of the board, Container Corp. of America, will be commencement speaker.

Miss Carstens, a graduate of Torrance High School, is a physical education major. She serves as president of the campus chapter of Delta Psi Kappa, national fraternity for physical education majors, president of Erdman Hall, is a judicial representative, and is affiliated with Gamma Kappa Theta sorority.

Adult Nights OK Indicated

Tentative approval for continuation of the adult nights at the Torrance High School gym throughout the coming summer months has been given. The program will continue with basketball on Monday nights and volleyball on Thursday nights.

Harry Ven Belehem of the recreation department is working with the school authorities to arrange the program, and if the maintenance and annual repair schedule will permit, it will be conducted in the boys' gym.

USC Scholarship Goes To Howard J. Haworth

In recognition of outstanding academic records and student leadership, a scholarship to the University of Southern California, beginning with the September term, has been granted to Howard J. Haworth, 1319 Fern Ave.

The university scholarship is valued up to full tuition of $2800 for four years of college training, being renewable annually upon completion of satisfactory work.

Steinbaugh, Easley Named High School Honor Students

Ann Kathleen Steinbaugh and Cynthia Ann Easley will be feted as honor students at Torrance High School graduation ceremonies next Thursday.

Both girls will be honored for top scholarship in their class. Miss Steinbaugh is also winner of the National Supply essay contest, the Redondo Elks award, a Bank of America trophy in social studies, and a scholarship to Stanford. Miss Easley won a Bank of America certificate in math. Both are Scholarship Society members.

Cribbs Honored Also receiving a number of honors will be Walter Jim Cribbs, who won the Bausch-Lomb Science Award, Bank of America trophy in science, membership in the Scholarship Society, a Lions Club scholarship, and a scholarship to the California Institute of Technology.

Other winners of Bank of America trophies are Jim Thompson, music, and Barrett Lee, industrial arts. Certificate winners include Cathy Rohrdanz, business, Sally Speck, home economics, Pat Mounger,

42 Torrancites To Get Degrees

Forty-two Torrance students will be among those graduating from El Camino College at ceremonies to be held in the college Stadium Friday, June 17.

To date, 307 have qualified for graduation and 10 more are expected to clear within the coming week, according to Murl Stoar, director of student personnel.

Chancellor Raymond B. Allen, of UCLA, will be principal speaker at the program, which will begin at 4 p.m.

Baccalaureate services to be held in the College Campus Center, Sunday at 7:30 p.m., the Rev. Kenneth Doctor, of the First Methodist Church of Redondo Beach, will discuss "The Weapons of Our Warfare." The Rev. Niels Esbensen, of the Church of the Brethren of Hermosa Beach, will give the invocation and benediction.

College choirs will present the choral selection, "I Will Not Leave You Comfortless," directed by R. Neil Hill and accompanied by Kay Haga. Miss Stella Herman will sing "The Lord's Prayer."

Torrance students graduating include: Erwin Lee Bayer, Carl Leo Bose, Maxine Susan Brunner, James David Buell, Janice Alene Crabtree, Billy Eugene Crocker, George Isiah Crosswell, Leonard Kenneth Divine, Dale Lloyd Dorman, Norman Robert Downing, Frank Fern Jr., Quincy Belle Fenstermaker, Robert Howard Fraser.

Students Named Rosa Kerrie Garcia, Raffaele Cleto Grippo, Mary Lynne Hamilton, Beverly Ann Harrington, Richard Spencer Hazeltine, Maxine Herman, Mary Louise Hutchison, Marvin Clyde Jones, Warren E. Kirby, Ellen Marie Koehn, Patricia Ann Larson, Robert Archie Lewis, Willard Edwin Mann.

B. Jane Moffatt, Virginia Lee Morris, Marilyn Kay Murray, Robert Walter Neumann, John Merriek Oliver, David Maurice Parton, Wilson Bonner Paxton, Doris June Rambo, L. James Smith, Barbara Ann Spencer, Arthur Farnum Sues Jr., James Lawrence Tracy, Josephine Anne Weber, Raymond Orrie Wenger Jr., Frances Marion Whitman, Beverly Jane Williams, and Arlene Ethel Yocelis.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Arts, Crafts Planned at Local Parks

Arts and Handicraft classes on all playground areas have been announced. The classes will feature a wide variety of "things to make," such as wallets, bird houses, pot holders, etc.

Each week during the summer there will be at least two special craft projects at a 11 of the areas. Also several smaller projects will be carried on. In addition to the regular arts and handicraft classes, there will be hobby clubs formed at all playgrounds for the teenage boys. Boys interested in joining hobby clubs will be given opportunities to build models of all types, including airplanes, automobiles, boats, wagons, etc. A feature of the arts and handicraft classes will be the use of Indian and pioneer type crafts, appropriate to the "Davy Crockett Season." Entire villages, boats, Ketchina dolls, etc., will be featured.

The program will begin June 20 and will end September 3. A small charge for certain of the craft articles will be made because of the expense involved.

Adult School Set July 5

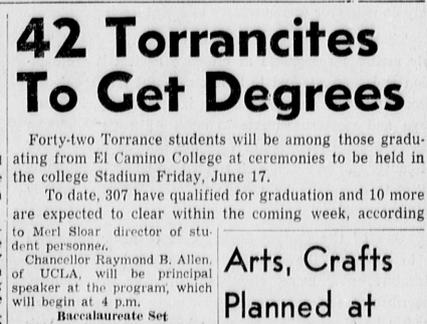

A summer session for adults will be held at Redondo Evening High School June 20 to July 29, according to Al Applegate, principal. Residents of Torrance may attend these free classes.

Listed in the program are, personality development (women), typing, shorthand (brush-up), blueprint reading and mechanical drawing, light opera, machine shop, Spanish for travel, painting, woodshop, mathematics, orchestra, preschool child observation, English fundamentals, and English for the foreign born.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

ERMA CARSTENS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carstens, will receive a bachelor of arts degree at Occidental College Sunday.

Arts, Crafts Planned at Local Parks

Arts and Handicraft classes on all playground areas have been announced. The classes will feature a wide variety of "things to make," such as wallets, bird houses, pot holders, etc.

Each week during the summer there will be at least two special craft projects at a 11 of the areas. Also several smaller projects will be carried on. In addition to the regular arts and handicraft classes, there will be hobby clubs formed at all playgrounds for the teenage boys. Boys interested in joining hobby clubs will be given opportunities to build models of all types, including airplanes, automobiles, boats, wagons, etc. A feature of the arts and handicraft classes will be the use of Indian and pioneer type crafts, appropriate to the "Davy Crockett Season." Entire villages, boats, Ketchina dolls, etc., will be featured.

The program will begin June 20 and will end September 3. A small charge for certain of the craft articles will be made because of the expense involved.

Adult School Set July 5

A summer session for adults will be held at Redondo Evening High School June 20 to July 29, according to Al Applegate, principal. Residents of Torrance may attend these free classes.

Listed in the program are, personality development (women), typing, shorthand (brush-up), blueprint reading and mechanical drawing, light opera, machine shop, Spanish for travel, painting, woodshop, mathematics, orchestra, preschool child observation, English fundamentals, and English for the foreign born.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion

Former crew members of the USS Nevada are invited to attend the Second Annual Reunion to be held Saturday, Aug. 6, at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Registration will start at 4 p.m. William Larsen, 4246 Campbell Dr., Los Angeles, is in charge of arrangements.

Those who desire to enroll may do so at the first meeting of the class. A complete schedule of classes may be obtained by calling FR. 9-5421.

Gobs to Hold Reunion