Youths Go to Church Meet

The University of Redlands hosted 14 members of the MYF of the First Methodist Church of Torrance, at an "Annual Youth Day at Conference," June 18.

Members attending the conference had their choice of 22 interest groups, recreation, and operetta: "Down in the Valley" by White Temple Players of Anaheim, and a picnic-style dinner.

The evening's program consisted of ordination of deacons and elders, at this point Rev. Don Shelby of the local church was ordained, Deacon Bishop Gerald Kennedy officiated at the ordaining ceremony.

Visitors to See Bible Study Art

A two-week Bible course, sponsored by the Community Methodist Church of Walleria, will come to a climax tomorrow night when visitors will be welcomed to classrooms to view the results of the course. During the past two weeks the 106 students in attendance have been indoctrinated in the art of handicrafts. The finished products will go to children's hospitals and parents.

Some of the highlights of the past 14 days have been the visits of Battalion Chief Gene Walker, of the Torrance Fire Prevention Bureau, Jim Wass, fireman for the Torrance station, Rev. Gene Gehres, and a trip to Forest Lawn for the seventh and eighth graders.
