

SCOUT TRAILS

Mothers of Scout Troop 853 held a lively monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Edwards. Those present were Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. J. Bush, Mrs. W. Capps, Mrs. Birkenhead, Mrs. G. Kochel, Mrs. R. Andicocha, Mrs. K. McVey, Mrs. D. Kern, Mrs. R. Andicocha, Mrs. Edwards, Mother hosts, and a new member, Mrs. R. Payne.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. Andicocha, 4281 W. 177th St.

Girl Scout Troop 1285 are now proud senior scouts as of June 1. They received their diplomas at the Archie Shields Camp Grounds. 14 girls were chaperoned by Mrs. JoAnn Epperson, Mrs. Helen Segrist, Mrs. Genevieve McDonald, Robert Turner, acting co-leader for his wife, Dale; and Mrs. Laura Pesola, leader. Judy Pesola was a guest. At present the troop is working on plans for their overnight cook-out at Archie Shields. Officers of the troop are as follows: President, Sonja Pesola; treasurer, Myrna Oanes; secretary, Diana Woodruff; hostess, Bonnie McWhorter; committee chairman, Diane Holschek.

The Girl Scouts of Junior High Troop 892 have been busy through May and June with their leaders, Mesdames Wm. J. Nannery and Martha Cooper. The events began on May 7 when the girls gave a "thank you" tea for their mothers presenting them with corsages and singing, "Mother." On May 12 the troop played miniature golf in Walteria and on May 13 the group packed a nose bag lunch and went to Marineland.

A barbecue and swimming party on June 11 at Nichols Chicken Farm gave the girls an opportunity to work on the cook proficiency badge, and choose a chore from the Kaper Chart.

The Mother's Club went to Knotts Berry Farm for the evening on June 16 for a steak dinner and a chance to see the square dancing.

On June 30, Court of Awards with the awarding of 25 badges and a barbecue for the families will not only conclude the troop activities but Mrs. Nannery will be ending her activities in the group because of ill health.

A Hawaiian Luau was held by Girl Scout Troop 711 of North Torrance at the home of Mrs. Newell Larsen, 16710 Fay-smith Ave. to close the current season.

The girls enjoyed roast pork "island style," fresh melons and pineapple cake, ice cream and punch. Their project for the year had been to learn the songs, dances and customs of the Islands. The girls wore outfits which they had made. Entertainment featured authentic hula dances taught by Mrs. Naomi Flemmons who formerly danced with Miriam Lelian's troop in Honolulu. The party ended with a strictly American "hokey pokey."

Girls saying goodbye to their leaders Mmes. Green and Flemmons were Dorinda Larsen, Janice Worden, Sharon Flemmons, Gene Brown, Pamela Haas, Judy Petty, Sharon Troop, Linda Roberts, Janet Sandberg, Kathryn Tyrrell, Susan Welly, Carl Sue Carothers, Jean Ann McCabe, Toi Greene, Marianne D'Allesio and Charlene Rotilo.

New leader will be Mrs.

Newell Larsen and co-leaders, Mrs. Garth Worden and Mrs. George Flemmons.

Brownie Troop 1588 which is sponsored by Seaside PTA held a final Cookout for the summer recently at the home of Bob Clemens at 22533 Gaycrest. Haah was on the menu for the older Brownies, while the newer girls were in favor of Brownie stew.

The girls having birthdays during the summer were honored. Leaders for the past year have been Mmes. Robert Lusian and Arthur Haley, Mrs. Billie Gaynor will relieve Mrs. Lusian of her duties when she moves to the Valley during August.

A Court of Awards and Fly-up of Scouts from six Brownie Troops and two Intermediate Groups were held on June 8 at Seaside Elementary School Auditorium.

The Flag ceremony was led by girls from Scout Troop 1055 and the Star Spangled Banner was sung by the girls and their guests.

Brownie Troop 380, 1119, 913, 1591, 1652, and 1588 marched in with their leaders prior to the introduction of Miss Joanne Weller, of Los Angeles Council, Southern Office, by Mrs. Elin English. She gave a brief talk on investiture.

Lighting of three candles to represent the three parts of the Girl Scout promise was performed by Mrs. J. H. Boschna as she explained the significance of each part, as she lighted ten candles the new scouts repeated the Girl Scout laws.

Brownie Wings were given to each girl as a symbol of their Flyup by their leaders. Participating were: Mrs. Robert Lusian, 1588, Mrs. Marion Terry, 1652, Mrs. Warren Boggs, 1591, and Mrs. Chas J. Rotter, 913, Mrs. Wm. Posen, 1119 and Mrs. E. Ray Walker, 380.

Las Vecinas, sponsor of 380 and 913, gave money to the group to be used for wings and badges, also to help the Seaside-Walteria Association purchase books for their library.

An archway decorated with white and pink geraniums welcomed the girls into intermediate scouting, as they passed through it to receive the scout pins.

The Fly-ups were Susan Steele, Marion Bardeen, Mary Bristol, Cheryl Clemens, Nancy Slover, Linda Haley, Robin Cook, Pamela Terry, Sharon Moyer, Beatrice Akred, Jo Kay Louvier, Wanda Sullivan, Janet Ettinghauser, Jo Anne Taylor, Linda Seymour, Christine Boggs, Marie Heger, Barbara Lunsford, Lenora Bernauer, Kathy Fuller, Rose Johnson, Terry Woodard, Dolly Murray, Nancy Bass, Vicki McKay, Nell Cowart, Gerry Lawson, Carol Gage.

Receiving proficiency badges from leaders, Mmes. Edith Jean, and W. J. Hadley of Troop No. 841 and Mesdames G. Hirtle and Joe Deble of Troop No. 1055 were Linda Waterman, Carol Hadley, Jo Anne Terry, Carolyn Waddingham, Ardis Du Frene, Nellise Keyes, Jacqueline Burk, Carol Buss, Sharee Ackerman, Lynn Morris, Carol Beutter, Shirley Jean.

Also Susanna Bach, Danna Berry, Hannah Boschna, Jo Ann Brizius, Kitty Cairns, Judy Courtney, Deanne Deeble, Nancy Drumright, Nancy Fuller, Susan Fitzgerald, Linda Henkels, Martha Hilliker, Karen Hirtle, Gay Hurst, Shelly Lessin, Karen Leverenz, Betsy Mewborn, Marita Morris, Paulette Murray, Dorothy Ristine, Alana Rolfe, Leslie Sautter, Sally Shaffer, Peggy Whyte, and Susan Yerkes.

Accompanying the troop were: Margaret Aarup, Anna Beth Blount, Judy Clutter, Judy Cleaver, Sandy Crabtree, Judy Dorsett, Kathie Donahue, Marilyn De Vore, Dianna Huggins, Patricia Montague, Karen McGuire, Geri Price, Jane Strom, Candice Volen, Susan Smart, Carol Woodman.

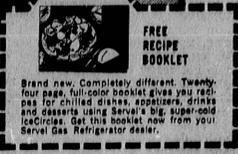

IT WAS A BIG EVENT... for Scouts of Troops 315 and 219 when they staged their annual Boy Scout breakfast last Saturday morning at the Jim Dandy Market, Crosshew and Torrance Blvd. Pictured are Mrs. Joe Lupo, 21822 Moneta, Scout mother, and M. L. Modeland, manager of the market. The two scouts are, left, Larry Robertson, second class Scout of Troop 214, and Stephen Blackman, second class Scout of Troop 315. The Scouts proclaim a huge success and express their thanks to merchants, firms and others who assisted.
