Temporary Secretary Named For North Torrance Group

At a recent executive board meeting of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association, Mrs. Barbara Nesbit, of 4047 W. 175 Pl., was appointed by President Muri A. Reeves, as temporary secretary of NTCIA. The appointment resulted from the fact that Mrs. Norma Prange, of 2701 W. 168 St., (secretary-elect) who is queen candidate of the Torrance Fair will occupy her time for the next few weeks in this project.

Appointed as auditor was Mr. Ed Nobbie, of 4143 W. 175 Pl. Nobbie will replace Clint Beeton, of 3437 W. 175th, who cannot attend the meetings due to work obligations.

Assistance from North Torrance residents and other members of NTCIA would be welcomed, she also stated.

2 Area Men Graduated From Arizona

Receiving diplomas from the University of Arizona 60th annual Commencement exercises May 25, was Robert Vassar Collier, 881 Via Del Monte, Palms Verdes Estates, and Joseph William Murray, 3513 W. 170th St.

Collier received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Murray received a Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering, upon graduation. The commencement address was delivered by Dr. Theodore M. Greens, professor of philosophy at Yale University. He spoke on "Man's Creative Venture."

Program Is Successful

"The programs are a rip roaring success," was the exclamation of recreation director Harry Van Bellehem after a tour of the park and school playgrounds this week. The statement was made in reference to the above average attendance of youngsters at the recreational facilities.

Recreation programs are now being conducted at the following parks: El Rincón, McMaster, Torrance and Walkerton. The following schools are also conducting similar programs: Crenshaw elementary, Fern-Greenwood elementary, Hillside, North Torrance elementary, Hollywood Riviera, Seaside elementary, and Walkerton.

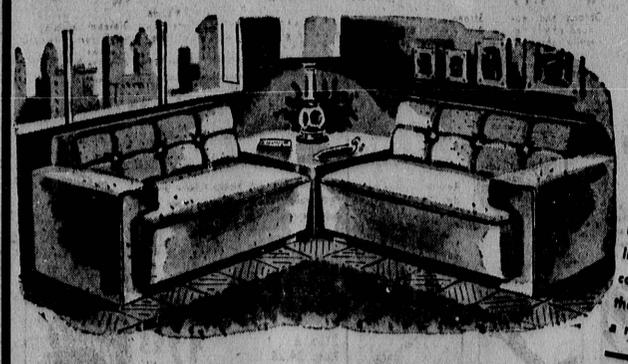

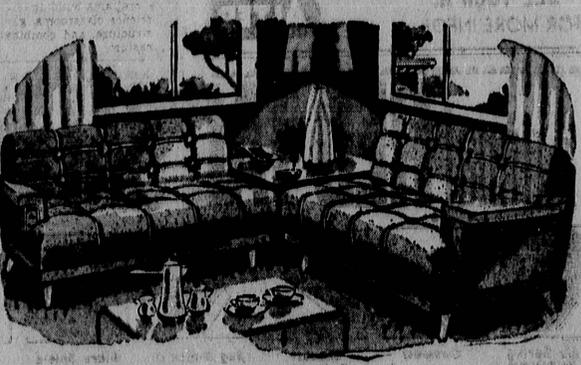

Saturday, July 16, is the date of the next dance, tickets for the four remaining affairs can be purchased for 1 dollar or admission paid at the door will cost each attendant 50 cents. Sal Frisina and his orchestra will supply the music for the summer dance, which starts at 8:30 p.m.
