

Homeowner Meet Monday Night To Discuss Dump Sites, By-Laws

BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Monday, July 11, is the date for the next general meeting of the Pacific Hills Home Owners' Assn. The meeting will be held in the school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. A busy and informative evening is in store for all who attend. Discussions will be held on the compulsory rabies vaccination law now being considered, and on the proposed county dump situated in the old diolite pit in the hills directly back of Pacific Hills tract. Also taken into consideration will be certain changes of the by-laws of the association. A special invitation is extended to members of the "Home-Savers League."

Sorry to hear that Mr. Dea Bryant of Crickwood St. had to undergo surgery once more at the Seaside Hospital in Long Beach. We wish to extend our wishes for a speedy convalescence. Mr. Bryant has been in the hospital for almost a month, and underwent surgery several weeks ago at the Long Beach hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hacker of 7000 Ave. have returned after a three-week visit with relatives in St. Louis, Mo., and points in Oklahoma.

Jerry Carrillo of Hawthorne Blvd. celebrated his birthday with a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Galinas of Hawthorne Blvd. on Friday, June 17. It was Jerry's 11th birthday, and was marked by the beautifully decorated cake and all the party fixings.

Mrs. Jessie Harvey and daughter, Elaine, have been visiting relatives in Arkansas as part of their summer vacation. Son Denny is spending a happy summer at Yellowstone National Park as the guest of his grandmother and uncle John Harvey. Beth Harvey is visiting in San Diego.

Next Monday, July 11, is the date for the beginning of the summer reading project to be held at the local library. This year each youngster entered in the project will have an individual booklet in which to keep track of his own reading. Upon the reading of three books, and the reporting of them, a membership card will be issued.

Those orders have come for the Irv Radtkes of Dalemead St. This Thursday Irv will leave to report at the Denver Division of the U. S. Post Office to begin his duties as Postal Inspector. He doesn't know where he will be sent within that division which includes Wyoming and New Mexico. The Radtkes will be sorely missed by their many friends here in Walteria, and along with wishes for much luck and happiness in their new location, will go many hopes for their return before too many years have gone by. Irv's wife, Joyce, will close up their home here and journey to Wisconsin with her brother where she will visit with her parents until Irv is settled.

Guests at the Ed Grogan home on Madison St., for a luscious barbecue, were Mrs. Patrick Hurley and daughter Peggy, from Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hammond of Long Beach. Gathering 'round on the Fourth of July, the group caught up on all the news, particularly with Mrs. Hurley, since it had been 10 years since they had seen her. Mrs. Grogan, Mrs. Hammond, and Mrs. Hurley are friends of many years, since rooming together in Coronado during their single and fancy free days.

Don't forget that Strawberry Festival to be held from 8:30 to 9 p.m. on Friday evening, July 8, at the local Methodist church. The entire community is invited to come and enjoy the luscious home-made goodies including home-made ice cream.

Hear that the Hubert Rampleys of Madison St. enjoyed a pleasant week end up in those cool, cool mountains.

Another family enjoying a week end jaunt were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Crumm of Winlock. The Crumms went to Lytle Creek, situated on the other side of Fontana.

On a jaunt over the Fourth were the Glenn Maxwells of Madison St. The Maxwells took several guests and family members to a picnic at Crescenta Park near La Crescenta. Twenty such happy people made the afternoon quite an event. Included in the fun-makers were the Maxwells and their four children, Mrs. Doris Quinn and family, Mrs. Irma Maxwell, Marilee Clark, Janet and George Zuber, and Sharon Kordich. After returning from the park the group went down to the beach to enjoy the fireworks, then returned to the Maxwells for a final snack before calling it a day.

Off for a week's camping at the Hollywood Land camp in the north Los Angeles hills are Sue Crumm, Fridelle Holst, and her sister, and Emily Dana.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell of Danaha St., had a lot of fun last Wednesday when they went to a dining-dancing-swimming party at the Hollywood Riviera club.

Martha Circle held its meeting for the month of June at the home of Mrs. Doris Hayan of 226th St. Those enjoying the evening were Mrs. Glenn Maxwell, Mr. Robert Cramer, Mrs. Hayward Johnson, Mrs. Jerry Cogan, Mrs. Robert Allison, Mrs. Otto Maler, Mrs. Stewart Rose, Mrs. Mary Kifer, and Mrs. Nancy Taylor. Program for the evening was given by Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. Mitchell. After the business meeting was over, the ladies enjoyed angel food cake and coffee served by Mrs. Hayan and Mrs. Allison.

Dorcas Circle held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Marianne Anderson of Crickwood. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Ed Grogan. The ladies enjoying the meeting were Meses. Ada Hunter, Mary Hunter, Elaine Nixon, Bonnie Beck, Betty Chiudano, Kay Grogan, Maggie Hinesley, Wanda Cornell, and Lucerne Schureman. The next meeting will be held July 27 at the home of Mrs.

Carpenter Tools Stolen

About $75 in carpenter tools and a brief case were found missing after a week end burglary on a construction project at Riviera Grammar school.

Detective Sgt. Ted Morris said juveniles are thought to be perpetrators of the burglary and acts of malicious mischief at a temporary office building in connection with additions being erected at the school.

Elaine Nixon in Anaheim, with Mrs. Ada Hunter co-hostessing.

Ruth Circle held its June meeting at the Recreation Park in the form of a pot-luck luncheon. The ladies had a busy morning electing their officers for the coming year. Those serving will be Mrs. Effie Gordon as chairman, Mrs. Kirk as recording secretary, Mrs. Henrietta Tenney as publicity chairman, and Mrs. Helen Karhu as treasurer. Enjoying the meeting were Meses. Hubert Rampley, William Burgener, Nate Gordon, Frank DeCaro, Carl Cramer, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Cramer, and daughter, Carla, Mrs. Tom Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gehres. The next meeting will be an all-day meeting at the Long Beach home of Mrs. Kirk.

June 29 was the date of the Naomi Circle meeting. The ladies met at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Reist, Dalemead St. Gathering 'round were Mrs. Ralph Parsons, who was co-hostess for the evening, Mrs.

A. H. Fuller, Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Mrs. Dave Coen, Mrs. William Cunningham, Miss Joan Cunningham, Mrs. Ruth Downer, Mrs. Hubert Rampley, and Mrs. Gene Gehres. After the business of the evening was over, the women all enjoyed delicious strawberry pie with whipped cream and coffee. Their next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Cunningham in Palos Verdes.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. (Bud) Fuller of Las Cadenas have returned from a wonderful week's vacation spent at a beautiful inn, "Coarse Gold," in northern California. This was only 30 miles from Yosemite, so they enjoyed treks into the famed
