Mrs. Rhone Gives Tasty Italian Lasagne Recipe

The serving of unusual and savory dishes to family and friends can break the monotony of every day fare and perk up lagging appetites, as well as create a festive air at the groaning board.

Such is the favorite recipe of Mrs. Edward Rhone, who offers this to HERALD readers, the noted Italian dish called "Lasagne."

A well-known Torrance resident, Mrs. Rhone aside from being a good cook and homemaker, is an active mother of two teen-agers, one in high school and the other in college. A member of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church and of the Altar Guild there, she serves on the board of the Torrance High School PTA, is corresponding secretary for the DeMolay Mothers, member of a bridge club and is currently enrolled in classes at El Camino Junior College.

LASAGNE

- ¾ lb. lasagne (Italian store)
- Olive oil
- 1 lb. ground round steak
- ½ lb. Italian sausage
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 1 clove garlic
- 3 tbsps. minced parsley
- 2 cans Italian tomato paste
- 1 can Italian tomatoes
- 3 cups water
- salt
- pepper
- dried mushrooms
- 1 lb. Mozzarella cheese
- 1 lb. Ricotta cheese
- ¼ lb. grated Romano cheese

Brown meat in large frying pan with olive oil, onion, garlic and parsley. Season with salt, pepper, sweet basil, to taste. Add the dried mushrooms which have been rinsed thoroughly in a number of waters to remove the sand. Also add the Italian tomatoes, Italian tomato paste, and water; simmer two hours. (Add more water if sauce appears too dry).

Boil in salted boiling water with a few drops of oil added, the lasagne cut in half. Cook until tender but not too well done. Drain.

Arrange layer of lasagne in bottom of large casserole, add some sauce to cover, then slice thinly over this Mozzarella cheese, then slice a layer of Ricotta cheese over this and sprinkle Romano cheese to cover. Repeat these layers of lasagne, etc., until last layer is finished with Romano cheese on top. Bake in a 350 degree oven about 45 minutes, or until Mozzarella is melted. This can be made the day before, and reheated to serve. Like spaghetti, it grows better with each heating!

Chi-Rho Club Entertains

Carrying out a Disneyland theme members of the Nativity Chi-Rho club, held their last dance of the season, Wednesday, June 22.

Visitors were greeted by pictures of the Disney characters placed around the walls, a pink castle highlighted the entrance. Streamers and balloons and a canopy of various colored crepe-paper gave the affair an air of festivity.

One of the main purposes of the dance was to welcome the eighth grade graduating class.

Carol Armstrong, chairman of the event, was assisted by her mother, Mrs. L. Armstrong, Kathy Scott, Nancy Farrell, Diane Powers, Betty Jean Fenwick, John Blesser, James Shyllof, Michael Rogers and Thomas Fichter were in charge of the decorations.

Charles Babbitt, assisted with the drawing of cartoons.

Those attending the dance were entertained by Diane Powers rendition of "September Song" and "Blue Moon." The swing and sway of the evening was provided by the "Melotones" a four piece band. Mrs. Schott is credited with arranging the appearance of this musical group.

Mrs. T. McNeil, Mr. J. E. Powers, Corolla Brunner and Barbara Fedor were on hand to accept the donations at the door.

Arlene Kastrup and Rachel Hogan were hostesses for the evening.

Manning waste-paper baskets after the affair were Cleon Richmond, chairman of the cleanup committee and Earl Homstead, assistant paper-picker-upper.

Scout Trails

On Thursday evening, June 23, members of Torrance Boy Scout Troop 241 played hosts to their parents at Torrance City Park. Hamburgers and punch were prepared and served by the boys, after which a court of awards, presentation of the year's charter and demonstrations in first aid were conducted.

A total of 18 merit badges were awarded to 12 members of Troop No. 241 and in addition star awards, badges were presented to Ned Morang and Skip Wilson and a second class badge to Allen Brisack. Bud Pool, newly elected senior patrol leader of the troop, was also presented with his badge of office.

It was also announced that Danny Kirks, member of Troop 241 was winner of first place in the Harbor District for selling the most tickets for the Scout-O-Rama recently held at the Long Angeles Coliseum. In addition to the first prize of a bicycle, Danny was also awarded a watch for having the highest sales in a two-week period during the ticket campaign.

A picnic dinner was held in Banning Park, Thursday, June 23, for the Boy Scout Troop 225, Wilmington, and their families. Some 50 parents were present to receive instructions, and ask questions about the forthcoming long-term camp, that the boys will attend the latter part of July. For the first time the troop will go to Yosemite National Park for one full week. Along with parental supervision at the camp the committeemen have asked five Explorer Scouts from Explorer Pack 225, Wilmington, to accompany them. These older boys will supervise crafts, games, swimming, hiking, camping, and all phases of scouting, while under the watchful eyes of the camp directors.

Picnics are fun, and after the food had disappeared, the younger children went off to play. The Scouts had a rousing game of keep-away and the parents relaxed and listened. Max Atin, scoutmaster of the Pointeater, scoutmaster of the train.

Mrs. Wynne Robertson, 1610 224th St. arrived home by plane Sunday from a two-week visit with relatives in Michigan. She attended a family reunion held at the home of her brother, Gordon Roland in Wakefield and then went to Detroit for a visit with relatives.

troop, gave each parent a quick glimpse into the activity that will take place at camp.

Glen Myers, John Wynn, R. J. Ross, and Al Freeman will be camp directors.

Many of the parents are planning to make a week-end visit to the camp and get a first-hand view of beautiful Yosemite.

Brownie Troop No. 238 were excited little girls last week many of them took their first train ride, when they traveled to the San Diego Zoo. On arriving in San Diego the party was met by a representative of the municipal bus line who escorted them to a bus enroute to the Zoo. Upon arriving at the Zoo the first thing was to find the picnic grounds and enjoy their picnic lunches.

After lunch all boarded a Zoo Sight-seeing bus and enjoyed an hour trip through the Zoo, seeing all the strange and wonderful animals. The high spot of this was when the Driver would call the different bears, etc., by name and then they would preform and he would toss them a slice of bread as a reward.

After the sight-seeing tour of some of the buildings they watched a show put on by four chimpanzees and and three seals. At 4 p.m. they boarded the train.
