

MRS. STANLEY W. HALL
... Flights Troth
(Harlan Studio Photo)

MRS. ROMAN SANDOVAL, JR.
... Lovely Bride
Stanford photo

MRS. ROBERT TEMPLE TRUMBO
... Former Cleo Mortensen
Harlan Studio photo

Emmal-Hall Wedding Rites
Read at Nazarene Church

Miss Donna Jean Emmal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Emmal, 947 W. 223rd St., was gowned in white net over satin and wore a fingertip veil of illusion which fell from a flower crown, for her wedding to Stanley W. Hall, solemnized at the Nazarene church at 8 p.m. on July 2.

Completing the bridal picture was a bouquet of white stock, dogwood blossoms and white roses. Mr. Emmal escorted his daughter to the place of ceremony.

Miss Loraine Denner, wearing blue lace and net over satin and carrying blue and white carnations, was the maid of honor.

Miss Sally Beebe in pink crystalite and net and carrying pink carnations, Miss Donna Hall in yellow net and taffeta and carrying yellow carnations, and Miss Betty Emmal in orchid net and carrying orchid carnations were the bridesmaids.

Alvin Emmal served as best man and ushers were Odell Warren, Donald Brunson, and Sam Ruggings.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Brunson and the Rev. E. A. Brunson officiated at the vow exchange. Miss Mary Wade was in charge of the guest book. Harry Hall provided violin selections during the ceremony.

The couple spent a honeymoon at Big Bear and have established a Santa Ana home. The bridegroom is a sergeant with the United States Marine Corps.

MISS GLORIA GRINDLAND
... August Bride

Enjoy Party
In Catalina

Dinner at the Catalina Country club was enjoyed by a group of Torrance people last weekend. In the party were Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Heinlein, Mr. and Mrs. John Melville and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Thomsen. The party enjoyed cocktails at the Melville summer home before going to the club for dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Bauman had as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Heinlein aboard their cruiser Melesie anchored at Cherry Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Melville entertained Mr. and Mrs. Thomsen from the week end through Wednesday at their summer residence.

AT IRVINE PARK

Enjoying an all-day outing and picnic at Irvine Park last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore and three children, Clayton, Earlene and Michael, 22602 Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Buster Owens and daughter, Linda.

Gloria Grindland Will Wed
Robert Guilbord in August

Gloria Karine Grindland, 328½ Calle Miramar, teacher and parish secretary at the Lutheran Church, Redondo Beach, is engaged to Ensign Robert L. Guilbord. The announcement was made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Grindland, of Bainville, Montana, this week. Her fiancé, a Coast Guard officer, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Guilbord of Braintree, Mass.

Miss Grindland received her B.A. degree at Concordia college in 1952, prior to accepting her position here in the South Bay. Ensign Guilbord is stationed at Long Beach with the Coast Guard rescue ship, Pontchartrain. They plan a military wedding on August 7.

FIRST BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

The first birthday of Henry Moreta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Moreta, 1204 Cranbrook Ave, was celebrated with a party last Sunday afternoon, July 10.

Children attending were given colorful hats as party favors. A pink and white birthday cake topped with one candle was served with other refreshments.

RESORT WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rippey, 1611 El Prado spent the weekend at the San Moritz club at Lake Gregory.

Kasterko-Sandoval Names
Linked in Marriage Rite

St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in Lomita was the setting on Saturday morning, July 9, for the wedding of Miss Mariann Kasterko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kasterko, 1875 Gramercy Ave., Torrance and Roman Sandoval, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roman Sandoval, 1718 W. 251st, Lomita. For the early morning nuptial mass the church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, stock and white candles.

Entering the church first was the bride, Theresa Sandoval, wearing yellow net over taffeta and carrying white carnations tied with yellow ribbons; Mrs. Dolores Sandoval in pink tulle and taffeta with a bouquet of white carnations with pink satin streamers; and Miss Kathy Belmonte wearing a ballerina gown of aqua net and taffeta. Her white carnation cascade bouquet was tied with aqua satin ribbons.

Mrs. Elizabeth Snider was the matron of honor. Her gown was of pale pink net and she carried white carnations tied with satin ribbons.

Then came the lovely bride on the arm of her father. Her wedding gown was Chantilly lace fashioned enprincess.

The couple has established a home at 26136 Narbonne Ave.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school last month and the bridegroom was a member of the Narbonne class of 1952.

Barbara Lisman Leaves on Four-Month European Tour

Miss Barbara Lisman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. H. Lisman, 1503 Post Ave, accompanied by two friends, Nancy Martin and Joanne Wohlberg of Compton, are off for a four-months vacation in Europe.

The girls accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Lisman left Torrance by car early last Saturday morning for Montreal, Canada, planning to visit the Yellowstone National Park and the Black Hills of South Dakota enroute.

The girls will sail July 16 on the SS Waterman and are scheduled to dock in Southampton, England on July 25. Their tour will include England, Scotland, Ireland. They will then cross the channel and pick up their car in Paris, France. From there they will drive to Holland, Denmark, Stockholm, Sweden and on to Norway.

From the Scandinavian countries, they will drive south through Germany, Austria and Italy and along the Adriatic Sea into southern Yugoslavia.

Their plans then include a drive along the Riviera country in France and into Spain as far south as the Gibraltar Strait. They will return to Paris and leave for the United States about Nov. 1. Miss Lisman plans to visit college friends who are working for the government in Munich, Germany.

Miss Lisman was graduated from Torrance High school in 1948 and UCLA in 1952 where she majored in business.

Dr. and Mrs. Lisman plan to be away about six weeks. They will vacation at Lake Louise and Banff.

The molded lace bodice was attached to a tulle skirt which fell over satin. The fingertip illusion veil was held by a tiara and she carried two white orchids atop a prayer book.

The bride and her father were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Matty Sandoval. Ushers were James Kasterko, Collis Snider and Al Amaraz. Mrs. Phil Butterfield at the organ accompanied Mrs. A. C. Kennedy as she sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day" and the communion song. The Rev. Father Shelley officiated.

A reception followed in the church hall and a dance at the Knights of Columbus Hall in the evening.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school last month and the bridegroom was a member of the Narbonne class of 1952.

The couple has established a home at 26136 Narbonne Ave.

TO ATTEND CONFAB

Mrs. Warren T. Randall, Torrance, copresident of the Y-Wives, Torrance, has been chosen to attend the Asilomar Young Adult conference near Carmel. The conference will be conducted on YWCA grounds there from July 17 to 23, and will be international in subjects and attendance.

HOME FROM TRIP

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Eastham recently returned from a week's trip to Cleveland, Ohio where Dr. Eastham attended the National Kiwanis Convention. While there Dr. and Mrs. Eastham visited with Navy friends.

Chicago Honeymoon Follows
Nuptials Read Here July 3

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Temple Trumbo are honeymooning in Chicago, Illinois, following their marriage, July 3, in Nativity Catholic Church.

The new Mrs. Trumbo is the former Cleo A. Mortensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwartz of 1203 Felbar Ave., Torrance. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Trumbo of Chicago.

Officiating at the 4 o'clock afternoon ceremony was the Rev. Father Glynn. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white embroidered gown of tulle over satin. The illusion veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a prayer book, adorned with white orchids.

Patricia Anne Rizzo of Chicago, Illinois, in a gown of Nile green marquisette over taffeta, was the honor attendant. She carried an arrangement of yellow Shasta daisies and orchid gladioli. Petrajean Mortensen, in a yellow net dress over taffeta, was the flower girl. E. Welnowski of Chicago, served the bridegroom as best man.

Bridal music was played by Miss C. Laughlin at the organ. The "Ave Maria" was included in her presentation.

A reception for 100 guests followed the ceremony at the Moose hall.

Upon their return, the bridal couple will take up residence at the Mayfair Apartments, Torrance.

MISS BARBARA LISMAN
... Enroute to Europe
(Herald Photo)

Theatre Set
Greets New Director

To greet their new director, Miss Noralee Benedict of Kansas City, members of the Accent Theatre group gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Heinlin, 2208 Gramercy Ave., last Wednesday evening.

The group spent the evening visiting around the fire in the patio. The hostess served coffee and cookies.

Miss Benedict, who will direct the group's first fall production, is making her home with Mrs. Jack Norris, 2723 W. 179th St.

Enjoying the party were Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Messrs. and Mrs. Dick Beecher, William Boswell, Ed Cantle, Ken Carlisle, Bob Foss, Paul Harestad, Marion Humphries, Frank Kelley, Leroy Pulliam, Dick Roberts, Mal Sagenkahn, Dean Sears.

Others were Mrs. Jane Billingsley, Sheila Doolittle, Ana Norris, Alice Perkin, and Messrs. Jack Hudson and Ken Lawless.

LAS VECINAS
PLANS BENEFIT

Mrs. Robert Pinkney, new president of Las Vecinas had an informal meeting of the new board at her home Friday, July 8. Tentative plans were made for a big Country Fair and Pancake Breakfast to be held at El Retiro Park on Oct. 16. Children under six free. The proceeds to go to the Youth and Welfare projects of the club.

AUSTRALIAN
CLUB PICNIC

Australian Club of Southern California will hold its annual picnic July 17 at the El Retiro Park, 126 Vista Del Parque, Hollywood Riviera. The picnic will begin at 10 a.m. Members and their families are asked to bring their own picnic lunches and drinks.

Other social events were planned at the last monthly meeting held at the Gardena Center. All Australians are invited to join the club. For information they are asked to contact Mrs. Paul Coover, Redondo Beach.

JEAN McNEIL
HAS HOUSEGUEST

Jean McNeil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. McNeil, 2475 Torrance Blvd., had as her houseguest for a week her cousin, Linda Prinity, of Los Angeles.

Thursday evening, a dinner party, followed by a dance on the roof garden, was given for the following guests:

Katy Waters, Phil Jarvis, Bob and Dennis Chapman. Over the week-end the girls and Jean's parents went to Green Valley, where they enjoyed swimming, boating and dancing.