

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

Columnist Kept Busy Recording Comings, Goings on Vacationers

Tension, excitement, frustration and the other emotional elements of baseball are abundantly present in Little League games at Dominguez field. The kids take their baseball seriously and so do the adult spectators. If you live in north Torrance and know anyone at all you are bound to meet friends there. The dust and wind and sun may bother some, but not those who can see what is doing for these boys, who are learning sportsmanship and fellowship along with the physical skills of the game. Managers and coaches give unstintingly of their time. Pat

Hoag manages the first-place Bruins, Larry Gilbert leads the Indians, Joe Sorenson is manager of the Bears, and Tony Rogers is leader of the Trojans.

Friends of Dorothy Renaldo, of 18719 Patronella Ave., recent high school graduate, tells of her journey to Chicago and vicinity for fun and summer study. She will return in time to enter college here in the fall.

Alan M. Clugston of Mifflintown, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Wayland, of 16502 Haas Ave., at this time and is considering settling in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Warden, of 17108 Ermanita, and children, Sandy and Linda, spent a joyous week visiting Yosemite, Sequoia, Lake Tahoe, Reno, and San Francisco. In Reno they visited with Beth's friends.

The Sandbergs, of 16613 Ermanita Ave., drove through Zion and Bryce Canyons to Price, Utah, and then on to Logan, Utah, where they visited relatives. Jay and Vera and offspring, Ford, Janet, David, Clark, and Steve, had a wonderful time until Jay developed a mysterious ailment which had polio symptoms. The whole family was greatly relieved when a local infection was discovered to be the cause and treatment was effective.

Vacationers Pat and Roland Stamm, of 17419 Glenburn Ave., took Debby, Tony, Greg and Robin to spend a few days at Crestline. All returned with sunburns.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Airhart, Douglas and Maureen, of 16611 Ogram Ave., week ended in Santa Cruz visiting with relatives.

Maxine Reynolds and Virginia Morgan are not entirely forgetting their PTA duties while the rest of us vacation. They attended the TEAC luncheon meeting on Monday.

Everyone in the 17500 block on Falda seems to like to camp. Jim and Caroline Schraeder, Gary, Charles and Caroline Sue, of 17523 Falda Ave., spent 10 days camping in Yosemite at Camp Curry.

Also in Yosemite at that time were the Bill Hoods, of 17511 Falda, and Sharon and Billy Jo. Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Wayne, Ricky and Lorraine, of 17504 Falda, chose Lake Hume in Sequoia for their campsite.

Visiting Mrs. Emma Buck of Sawyer, Kan., is being shown the sights by her son, Riley

Buck, and his wife, Louise. Grandson Michael is delighted to be able to play host.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Beaudoin and Priscilla returned home after their three week trip to Bideford, Me. Beaudoin's mother returned with them to visit with other children who now make their homes in southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Arno Beaudoin and Odette returned home after several days touring northern California and visiting relatives in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Vaughn and children are home after their two weeks camping at Pismo Beach.

The three-day holiday found few Faysmithers out of town. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dudley and family enjoyed their outing at Palm Springs in their house trailer. Their only comment was "This is too hot for me."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pasola and girls, with Dee-Dee Woodruff as guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith and Mike, of Covina, enjoyed their camping at Crystal Lake.

Avis Hoffman, of 17685 Faysmith Ave., is seen early every morning leaving for her duties as director of primary department of the Bible school at her church.
