Dust-Plagued Maple Streeters

By ALICE FERRIN
FA 8-5385

The residents of Maple St. are literally "biting the dust" this week. The city has begun work on the new Civic Center across the street. Although the surrounding area is thrilled with the anticipated results, Mrs. William Swisher, of 914 Maple, confessed that she and her neighbors were having to step lively to keep ahead of the dust in their homes.

Mrs. Robert Wilson, of 1004 Faysmith, spent what she termed a fabulous, three-day week end as the guest of her sister, Jean Fourre, of Manhattan Beach. The pair flew both ways to Las Vegas. The thrill of Mrs. Wilson's first air flight was followed by the sight of the Royal Nevada Hotel, where they stayed. Besides day-time activities and dining alongside the pool, they attended the Talullah Bankhead Show and the Joe E. Lewis Show. Mrs. Fourre, who is in the advertising business, knew several of the entertainers and the sisters spent both evenings greeting the stars and sharing some of the magic of the entertainment world.

The Torrance Park playground was the site of Karin Clinkenbeard's celebration of her sixth birthday. Mrs. Thomas Clinkenbeard, of 908 Maple, entertained her daughter's guests with ice cream, candy, punch and a doll cake made by Mrs. Bering. Sharing the refreshments and playground activities, last Monday with Karin were her brother, three-year-old Jerry, Christine, and Marilyn Bering, Davy Roberts, Stevie Swisher, Debbie Brown, Chuck and Christie McCormac; Dianne and Timmy Landerville; Don Sherry, Joe, Pat, and Robin Pitman.

Hats off, or more appropriately sombreros off to Mrs. William Boswell of 2842 Onrado, for her original planning and hard work on the ACCENT! Theatre outdoor Fiesta! The purpose of the Fiesta was to raise funds for a future, Little Theatre building in Torrance.

Grade Separations Asked by Supervisors

Resolutions requesting grade separations where the San Diego Freeway crosses 156th St. and Del Amo Blvd., were approved by the Board of Supervisors, Tuesday.

The 166th St. separation will be in north Torrance, if approved by the State Division of Highways, while the Del Amo separation would be east of the city.

The resolution was adopted on the recommendation of Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

New National Supply Budget Director Told

The National Supply Co., Pittsburgh, Pa., has announced the appointment of L. E. Micca as director of budgets, a new position in the company. Micca will be responsible for establishing budgeting procedures for all operations throughout the company's facilities including the Torrance plant.

Anticipate New Civic Center

Mrs. Boswell carried out her Mexican Fiesta theme by costuming all her helpers in dashing Mexican sashes, colorful skirts and brilliant, straw sombreros. Completing the women's costumes were exotic children received anonymously before the fiesta began.

Mrs. Dean Sears contributed some of her vacation souvenirs to decorate the outdoor area in authentic Mexican fashion. Some of the objects, she explained to the group portrayed little known Mexican crafts. Highlighting the evening was Mary Lee Boswell, who donned a chef's hat and barbecued and served plate-size steaks, with all the garnishes. She topped off the dinner with coffee and a choice of angel food cakes. The guests had a choice of dancing or playing cards after the festive dinner.

Among the 70 guests were the James Woods, Paul Harestad, Lou Dyers, K. Perkins, R. Beecher, Mrs. Knutson, Ed Cantles, J. Belzers, Mrs. Wilbrecht, and the Frank Kellys from our neighborhood.

A business meeting and election of officers followed the semi-monthly meeting of the Tally-Hi Bridge Club last Thursday.

Mrs. Aileen Capps, of 2850 Eldorado and Mrs. Charlotte Klinzing, of 2829 Onrado, attended of 820 Cerise, welcomed a lovely baby girl into their home. Five weeks old, Lisa Ann now weighs over nine pounds. The Schwartzs are planning to have their daughter christened in the Lutheran Church, this coming Sunday.

This seems to be glorious weather for the beach, and the

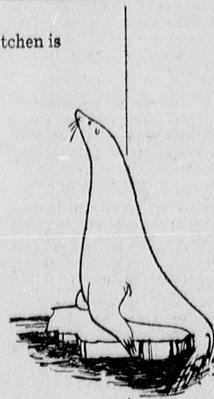

Jack Klinzings, of 2829 Onrado, took advantage of it last Saturday by having a beach party. Basking in the sun at Hermosa Beach with the Klinzings and family were Mr. and Mrs. Rod Clark and their children. The party wound up in the evening with an outdoor barbecue at home, and later a bridge game.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestad of 2849 Onrado St., recently returned from a week-long vacation stay at Palm Springs. Enjoying the desert weather and the restful atmosphere with them was their daughter, Nikki.
