

MISS KAREN KORNEFF
... To Wed Saturday

Wedding Bells to Ring for Karen Korneff-Larry Helm

Miss Karen Ruth Korneff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Korneff, 204 W. 220th St., will be married to Lawrence Keith Helm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Welcker Williams of Wilmington, on Aug. 6th, at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance. The ceremony will be solemnized at 4 p.m.

Miss Korneff was graduated last spring from the Banning High School, where she was a member of the GAA and the dramatic club.

Mr. Helm was recently discharged from the United States Marine Corps. He is also a Banning High graduate.

Miss Judy Rogers will serve as maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Misses Charlotte Rogers and Nancy Landon.

The young couple will be at home on 220th St., Torrance. The popular bride-elect is being complimented at a series of parties. Only July 18, she was honored at a party given by Miss Nancy Landon at her home in Wilmington.

Those attending this party included Mrs. Esther Taylor, Mrs. Hulda Rogers, Mrs. June McGhee, Signe Fielding, Janice Blaylock, Dorothy Scott, Svea Dombroski, Fern Williams, Dorothy Carl, Mary Korneff, Martha Korneff, Olive Anderson, Shirley Anderson, Mona Wilk and Deanna La Sage, Sherrill Helm, Charlotte, Judy and Pamela Rogers, Nevine Colleen and Cindy Anderson and Sue Fielding.

This evening Mrs. Dorothy Fountain and Mrs. M. E. Du Bois are entertaining at the Du Bois home, 123 W. 220th St.

Bringing gifts for the future bride will be Mrs. C. R. Brooks and Deanna, Mrs. Nora Hutchinson, Mrs. Opal Day, Carolyn Northcutt, Eva Northcutt, Edith Lockwood, Betty Senter, Lola and Marilyn Kimmons, Desie and Fern Newsome, Bernice Roller, Marty Morris, Kathy Handwalt, Marty and Hanna Smith, Aileen Cowell.

Others are Doris Walker, Naomi Gilbert, Wilma Tyler, Jean Ann Autry, Pat Edwards, C. G. Andrews, A. C. Montysh, Eddie Potter, Helen Allen and Melva Bales.

While in Europe, Mrs. Brumbly will be a member of a group of 25 women from the Los Angeles area who will be under the leadership of Dr. Mirel Duncan during a tour of eight of the European countries.

The local woman has been vice president of Pacific Perfuming Co., 1024 Engracia Ave., since it was organized in 1928. She is the mother of Virginia Beck, president of the local B and PW Club.

Pat Lanz, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Lanz and her brother are spending a two-week vacation at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McNeil, 1744 Andree Ave.

WICKS Plan CWF Brunch

The WICKS are in charge of the brunch for the August meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship to be held in the Friendship Hall of the church on tomorrow morning at 9:30. Details of the party and decorations, which are to be a surprise for the women of the church, are being planned by the WICKS, the Teenage Circle.

Mrs. Kenneth McVey will lead the devotions, following the brunch. The program will consist of brief reports from the state convention, which was held in Orange, July 20-24. Arrangements for reports have been made by Mrs. Gordon Walker, program chairman.

Members of the CWF, who attended various meetings at the convention, are Mrs. W. W. Jackson, Hans Thomson, J. B. Mosley, Ed Pietzschke, Melvina Beckwith, Minnie Foreman, Hattie Mc Ness, Delbert Snow, Tom Herd and H. M. Sippel.

Mrs. Edward Schneider and Children Leave for Six Months in Australia

There's plenty of excitement out on Elgar Ave., these days, as Mrs. Edward Schneider and her daughter, Sheryllyn Sue, four and half years old, and son, Christopher Rand, 18 months, prepare for their trip to Mrs. Schneider's former home Sydney, Australia.

The family leaves by car next Wednesday morning for San Francisco, where they

Junior Board Entertains

Members of the board of the Junior Woman's club were hostesses at a pot luck supper at the YMCA last Monday evening at which the presidents, ways and means chairman and program chairman of eight neighboring Junior Women's clubs were guests of honor.

After the supper a get-acquainted evening was spent and ideas were exchanged. Local women serving as hostesses were Mrs. Robert Mowry, president, Mrs. George Blahnik, Richard Beecher, Sid Gans, Claire Johnson, James Lees, C. Albert Smith, Joseph Bay, Richard Heath, John Kemp.

Other special guests were the Junior advisors, Mrs. Grover Van Deventer and Delbert Thomsen of the Senior Woman's club.

will board the R.M.S. Oromsby for their 17-day boat trip. Their first port of call will be Honolulu, then Suva, Fiji Island, Auckland, New Zealand and then Sydney, where they will be met by Mrs. Schneider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Oakley of Dungog, New South Wales, who haven't seen their daughter in nine years and who have never seen their two grandchildren.

Mrs. Schneider arrived in the United States as a war bride in April, 1946, aboard the S. S. Lurline.

She and the children plan to be in Australia for six months and will return to the States via Canada next February with passage booked on the same ship, the Oromsby.

The Schneider's older son, Eddie, who is a member of the Mitchell Boys Choir, will not make the trip.

On Sunday evening of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Trainor, 17308 Elgar gave a farewell barbecue dinner for Mrs. Schneider. Neighbors and friends gathered for the party were Mrs. M. Barrett, the hosts and their children, Donna Lee and Timothy, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider, Eddie Jr., Sheryllyn Sue and Christopher Rand.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hulsey entertained at a bon voyage party at their home, 17309 Elgar. Homemade ice cream and cake were served.
