Moms Find Kids Playing With Live Grenades Found in Trash

By MARY WEBB FR 3-3051

A family, recently moving from their home here, left a barrel of trash by the curb for the trashmen to pick up. Among the other pieces and things in the barrel were live Jap rifle bullets and three dandy Jap hand grenades.

Curious children, pawing through the trash found the shells and grenades and were happily exploring them when local mothers arrived on the scene.

The children pulled the pin out of one grenade and were about to pull a second pin when the mothers halted the proceedings and called the Torrance police.

After carefully taking the grenades and shells away, the police later informed the mothers that the remaining grenades were live ones and it was a "miracle" that the children hadn't been blown up or maimed terribly.

Last week we gave the Keys of this city to Fullerton. Keys we've been proud of—golden Keys you might say. On Aug. 2, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Key and their three children left this area after 16 years residence.

Prominent in this community's civic and social affairs for so many years, Willard Key took up his new work as administrator and supervisor for Richfield Oil in Anaheim, thus necessitating the move.

Key was chairman of the Hollywood Riviera Art Jury for seven years, passing on all plans and construction for this residential area. Mrs. Key completed a term as assistant director of the Peninsula Volunteers of the Needlework Guild of America, having been active with that group for many years.

She was active also with the American Field Service in their Torrance Chapter, and both she and her husband have assisted in local Scouting activities.

The Keys moved from their home at 416 Calle Mayor to their new home in the Skyline district of Fullerton. With them of course were their three children, Jean, 15; Gerald, 11; and Diane, 9.

Preceding their move, many farewell parties were held in their honor, both by their neighbors and the clubs and organizations of which they have been members.

Moving of another kind happened when Gerald Popkiet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Popkiet, 106 Vista del Mar, enlisted in the United States Navy during the last week of last month. He'll go to San Diego Naval Training Center for his "boot" training.

Mrs. Ray Griff, 415 Camino del Campo, played hostess to the Rachel Circle of the Redondo First Methodist church recently when they met at her home.

Her son, Brian, played several piano numbers for the guests, and Mrs. Pope Jordan reviewed three chapters of the study book "The Master Caltech for Thee," as part of the program.

Presiding over the group's business meeting was Mrs. Alvin C. Brown.

Announcement came recently from New York that Marybeth Hornbeck, 210 Calle de Madrid, was second prize winner in an international contest for home tape recording fans.

Mrs. Hornbeck's winning entry was an essay in which she described the uses to which she and her family put their tape recorder. Contestants from 45 states, Hawaii and 14 foreign countries competed in the contest which was sponsored by Audio Devices, Inc.

Born to Dr. and Mrs. Clinton Reed, 260 Avenida Atezada, recently, at San Pedro Community hospital was a second daughter, whom they have named Kristi Joyce. The newcomer joins Kathryn Jean, 10, at the Reed home. She weighed 7 lbs., 8 1/2 ozs. at birth.

Paternal grandmother is Mrs. Bessie Reed of Whittier, while maternal grandmother is Mrs. Cecile Ross of Ontario. Reed is a dentist, with offices in Redondo Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell, of 213 Calle de Madrid, had their fifth child, a boy, born on Aug. 3 at Good Samaritan hospital. He has been named Kevin Michael and weighed in at nine pounds flat at birth.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Loretta Buckley of Los Angeles, while paternal grandfather is George Russell of Brewster, N. Y.

Kevin joins brothers and sisters, Marie-ruth, 9; Kathleen, 8; Buddy, 6, and Terry, 2 1/2, at the Russell home.

Among the recent halls and farewells were the goodbyes said to Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Pharris and family, when they left here after seven years of residence. They and their three children, Jackie, 10; Jeanie, 8, and Janet, 1, moved on Aug. 5, to their new home in Rolling Hills.

Playing host to relatives from Tennessee this week are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garvey, 128 Via Colusa. They are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Greer Wolfenbarger and their three children, who arrived here Aug. 6, from their home in Washburn, Tenn. Mrs. Wolfenbarger is the sister of Mrs. Garvey. The Wolfenbargers plan to settle in the South Bay area and are looking for a place to reside as they visit with the Garveys.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Billings, of 228 Via Buena Ventura, have returned from a wonderful vacation week at Lake Tahoe.

Highlights of the stay were water skiing and boating, they reported. Their two children, Diana, 2 1/2, and Tommy, 1, stayed with relatives while they sported at the northern California resort country.

The Billings, by the way, were one of the families molested recently by the petty thief or thieves that have been breaking into homes in this area. Stolen from the Billings was $125 from his trouser pockets and $5 from her purse. Both purse and trousers were hanging in their bedroom as the Billings enjoyed television in the living room of their home.

The thief or thieves didn't seem interested in jewelry, report the Billings, as they left a broken diamond ring and a watch laying on the dresser top in the bedroom while they pilfered the cash.

This affair is just one of a half dozen reported to us, so keep your doors and windows locked and no valuables visible from outside your windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Barrata, of 284 Calle de Andalucia, welcomed a little son into their home on July 14. He has been named James Anthony. Barrata is vice principal of North Torrance School.

Ray Hole, of 816 Calle de Arboles, and son Robbie, 12, have returned from a week's packing-in trip to the Dinkey Lake area in the High Sierras above Huntington Lake. Guides with pack animals met the two Holes on Aug. 1, taking them into the high country, and returned for them on Friday. Both men report a wonderful time, complete with plenty of fish and fun.

Girl Scout troop 147 has returned from a six-day stay at Camp Manzanita, near Jackson Lake, in the Big Pine recreational country. Chartered bus took the Scouts and their leaders up to the camp and returned them home the following Saturday.

Scouts making the trip included Nancy Barger, Karen Beard, Karen Booth, Lynn Bowman, Carol Ann Dickason, Gloria Feul, Sandra Gentry, Vicki Hoffman, Roberta Hole, Barbara Reynolds, Barbara Savage, Patricia Scott, Frances Simons, Kathy Weller. Joining the unit at Camp Manzanita were Diane McIntosh and Susan Smiley of troop 41.

Mrs. Ray Hole, leader of troop 147, Mrs. Harold Hoffman, co-leader, Mrs. G. Henry Miller, camp director, and Miss Jean Key, music counselor, were the adult Riviera leaders who accompanied the Scouts.

New owner of La Carta Gift Shop, 1709 S. Catalina, is Mrs. Francis Janne, 150 Via la Circula. The Jannees have been residents here for over two years, having moved here from San Marino, when Janne was transferred by the Dow Chemical Co.

Hailed as the first major art exhibition to be held in the South Bay area, the Aquariana exhibition of fine paintings will have a preview reception on Aug. 17 at 8 p.m., at Marineland. Dale Sexton, coordinating chairman, has announced.

The preview reception donation of $2 each will go entirely to the South Bay Communities Art Assn., for the furtherance of art and the association. More than 500 entries were submitted for hanging at the exhibition, Mrs. Sexton said, from which 115 paintings were chosen for the exhibit. Forty-two other paintings of outstanding merit would also have been hung, she said, except that lack of space prevented.

Aquariana is designed to bring the finest of paintings in Los Angeles and adjacent areas to the South Bay and to focus attention artwise on this area. The main lobby and auditorium of Marineland will be turned into two galleries for the occasion, which, commencing Aug. 17 with the preview reception, runs till Sept. 6. A tea table will be set up in the auditorium on preview night and a bar will be available to guests in the foyer.

Rosemary DeCamp, local television and drama star, will preside over the prize giving and door prize ceremonies. Door prize for the preview occasion will be an outstanding original painting, and all preview guests will also be given a free tour of Marineland.

ART EXHIBITION . . . Preparing for the Aquariana exhibition of paintings to be held at Marineland starting Aug. 17 at 8 p.m., are these three ladies. They are Mrs. John Mazvin Metzler, Torrance hostess for the exhibition; Helen Wurdemann, director of the Los Angeles Art Assn. and one of the jurors for the Aquariana exhibition, and Dale Sexton, Torrance artist and coordinating chairman for Aquariana.

Recipient of the charity donations, the South Bay Community Arts Assn., is a non profit organization designed to establish an art center in this area.

Groups within the association sponsor different types of creative endeavor with particular attention given to children. Mrs. Sexton said. Starter classes taught gratis by professionals will be channeled into regular schools and it is the purpose of the association to build scholarship funds for outstanding talent thus developed, she said.
