

Thermometer Reads 85 Degrees; Scout Moms Discuss Christmas

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549
The Scout Mother's club held its monthly meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham, of 4710 Sepulveda Blvd.

During the business meeting the Christmas booth was discussed. Anyone with ideas on this year's booth should get in touch with Mrs. Ellner Berry at FR 5-3508.

The Scout Mothers will be selling Christmas cards again this year. Margaret Whyte discussed the Scout uniform exchange. There are several sets of uniforms in the exchange that can be given boys new. Parents interested should call Margaret Whyte, FR 5-1869.

The ladies also learned of a new member in the household of their pet project, the Old Ladies Home in North Redondo. Scout mothers present at the August meeting were Madge Graham, Margaret Whyte, Emile Honzik, Martha Kelleck, Barbara Bardeen, Mable Caudill, Virginia Nauman, Sue Burk, Ellner Berry, Bonnie Evans, Pauline Glass, and Isabelle Gaul. Pauline Glass was welcomed into the club as a new member. Hostess Madge Graham served her guests delicious banana cream cake, coffee, and tea.

I would like to say a nice thank you to all those folks who called to let us know what the holes were appearing in the yards hereabouts. But now we are really puzzled, for we heard of everything from snake holes, frog holes, gopher holes, ant holes, even that the holes may be appearing from the old cesspools that were covered when sewers went in.

Home from Japan to visit with relatives and friends are Mrs. William Beall and daughter, Janet, Christine and Janet will be here until September, when Lt. Cmdr. William Beall receives his duties in Fallon, Nev.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk and children over the week end were Mason Adams and Jasper Fennell, of Redondo Beach.

A homecoming party this week honoring Mr. and Mrs. Elden Hostetter from Missouri this week was given by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williamson, of Zakon Rd. The Hostetters are now living on W. 220th St.

Making this homecoming event into a double celebration, served as a birthday party for Kent Williamson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williamson. Kent was four years old the first of this month.

Celebrating his 32nd birthday with a night out were Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell, of 5113 Zakon Rd. Best looking gift is a white linen matalcoord shirt trimmed with black threading, made by his lovely wife, Betty.

Accordion Program Set For Band Shell Sunday

Stated for this Sunday's free Torrance Park program, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, is the local Ferraro Accordion Studio. About 100 youngsters, all with an accordian, will be on hand to entertain picnickers, beginning at 1 p.m.

Each Sunday a program is held at the Torrance Park Band Shell, featuring good talent from various studios and programs.

Numerous tables are available in the Band Shell area, allowing picnickers to eat and relax at the same time.

Dennis Wins Carrom Contest, Hester Next

George Dennis was first, Randy Hester second, and Mike Inglehart third in a carrom tournament held last week at Torrance Park. A total of 18 children entered the Recreation Department sponsored event.

Sports Shirts Taken

Thieves took five sports shirts, valued at $15, from her clothes line, Mrs. Bert Milligan, of 24805 Winlock Dr., reported to Torrance police Friday.
