

MISS JEANNETTE MAE PROBERT
... Engagement Announced

Jeannette Probert Will Exchange Vows With W. G. Hunter at Nativity Nov. 22

Of interest to a wide circle of friends in Southern California and the San Joaquin Valley is the announcement being made today by Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence Probert, 1428 El Prado, of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Jeannette Mae, to William George Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. William Hunter of Fresno.

The wedding will be a lovely event of Nov. 22 at the Nativity Catholic Church here.

The bride, whose grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Garfield Probert, of South Gate, came to Torrance in 1912, was graduated from the Torrance High School. Her parents have been in business here for many years. She is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Mae Langan, of Hollywood, and the late Michael Sullivan, of Washington.

After completing high school here, she entered the University of Southern California, from which she was graduated with a physical education degree. She then taught in the Walla Walla, Wash., schools and is currently a member of the Sanger Union High School faculty. At USC, she was affiliated with Phi Mu Epsilon Sorority.

Her fiancé, educated in Fresno, served with the United States Army in Korea. Since his discharge he is continuing his education at Fresno State College.

After the wedding here, the young couple will establish a home in Fresno.

The wedding date and engagement were announced at a family party given at the home of the bride-elect's parents, on Oct. 2, complementing three members of the family who were celebrating birthdays. Honor guests were the bride-to-be's father, and her two aunts, Mrs. Frank Schoepe, of Newport Beach; for whom the future bride was named, and Mrs. Thomas Ashe.

MISS NADINE MADRID
... November Bride

Gans Home Is Party Scene

Mrs. Sid Gans entertained a group of friends at a surprise birthday party on Friday Oct. 7 honoring her husband at their home, 1011 Koaabium Ave.

The guests were assembled when Mr. Gans arrived home from work. They presented him with "fun" gifts after which Mrs. Gans served the beautifully decorated birthday cake with ice cream. The evening hours were spent playing charades.

Enjoying the affair were Messrs. and Mrs. Don Porter, Barton Tatum, John McVey, Charles Briner, Philip Green, and Mrs. Helen Heath and Joseph McKenna.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Linda Wilbrecht, who was celebrating her sixth birthday on Friday, was the honoree at a surprise birthday party given by her mother, Mrs. L. C. Wilbrecht, 1215 Fonthill. When Linda arrived home from Madrona school several of her classmates were assembled around her major birthday gift, a bicycle, to chorus a surprise happy birthday.

Halloween motif was used in decorating and refreshments were served. On hand to surprise Linda were Deborah and Frances Fox, Barbara and Susan Prout, Diane and Mark Caldwell, Barbara Nelson and Diane's brother, Scott.

CHORALAIRES

Miss Marilyn Olson, 620 23rd Manhattan Beach will be hostess at a pot luck dinner Saturday evening Oct. 22 at her home. All Choralaires, members and guests of the choral club will be welcome. An evening of song will follow under the direction of Roger Bushell.

Madrid-Holstrom Wedding to Take Place Saturday, Nov. 5

In a 2 o'clock nuptial ceremony at the St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita, on Nov. 5, Miss Nadine Madrid will become the bride of David Robin Holstrom. The engagement and wedding plans are being disclosed today by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Madrid, 2048 250th St., Lomita. Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holstrom, 1710 24th St., Torrance.

The wedding climaxes a romance which began on the Narbonne High School campus. Miss Madrid was a member of the 1954 graduating class at Narbonne and then attended Harbor Junior College.

Her fiancé was graduated in 1953 and also attended Harbor Junior College. He is now in business with his father in Lomita.

Miss Madrid has chosen Miss Christine Madrid as her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Rita Ruiz, Dolores Trampas, Eileen Burrell and Eileen Greger.

Gary Knutilla will serve as best man and ushers will be Tommy Myers, Larry Henon, Ronnie Hall and Malcolm Weyant. A reception will be held immediately following the wedding.

OCT. 20, 1955

TORRANCE HERALD

Eleven

At Convention Gene Krieger and Bride at Home After Honeymoon

In San Diego for the Kiwanis convention last week end were the president of the Torrance club, Dr. Gerald Eastham and Mrs. Eastham and Messrs. and Mrs. Dean Sears, Charles Ragsdale, Paul Loranger, J. A. Barrington, John Barrington; Dr. and Mrs. Philip Holloran and Joe Doss.

Mrs. B. Easley Party Hostess

A profusion of autumn flowers decorated the home of Mrs. Burton Easley, 3306 El Dorado, last Friday evening, when Mrs. Easley entertained at bridge. The clever Halloween motif was carried out in the tallies and the napkins.

First prize was won by Mrs. Robert Triplitt, second by Mrs. Joe Klink, Jr., third by Mrs. Lee McCoy and low by Mrs. W. E. Christian.

After the games Mrs. Easley served a dessert course. The guest list included Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, C. S. Blakely, W. C. Boswell, Jr., W. E. Christian, E. E. Clayton, J. R. Klink, Jr., Kenneth McBrean, Lee McCoy, R. M. Norris, W. R. Patterson, Howard Percy, A. C. Posner, M. C. Richardson, Charles Rippey, Jr., and R. J. Triplitt.

Club's Past Presidents Stage Diminishing Bridge Series

Past presidents of the Torrance Woman's Club have continued their series of diminishing bridge parties as their ways and means project for the club.

On Oct. 7, Mrs. G. C. Van Deventer entertained at her home 2203 Carson St. Bridge and canasta were played with the high score canasta prize going to Mrs. H. K. Burchfield. Mrs. V. D. Bernard held the high court in bridge.

Mrs. Van Deventer's guests were Mrs. Hugh Bowman, V. D. Bernard, H. K. Burchfield, R. Bingham, G. S. Evans, F. P. Zoley, E. L. Snodgrass, and Charles Ward.

Mrs. C. B. Mitchell entertained at her home 1331 W. 230th St. on Monday evening, Oct. 10. At the close of the bridge games, high score prize went to Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt.

Enjoying the evening of bridge were Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, H. L. Mitchell, D. B. Wolf, E. L. Snodgrass, C. B. Thompson, Ralph Ruggart, and J. A. Eisenbrandt.

Continuing the series Mrs. R. E. Smith was hostess to a group on Monday evening, Oct. 10. Prizes at this party were won by Mrs. Charles Schultz, A. Smith, and J. Keefe. Mrs. Smith's guests were Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, J. R. Klink, J. Keefe, W. A. Clinkale, G. C. Whyte, C. Scuitz, O. A. Kresse, Alma Smith, and A. F. R. Ewalt.

Mrs. B. T. Whitney entertained at her home on Thursday evening, Oct. 13. At the close of the game, high score prize went to Mrs. J. Parke Montague and Mrs. W. C. Boswell, Jr., held the second high count.

Sharing Mrs. Whitney's hospitality were Mrs. M. A. Bauman, W. C. Boswell, Jr., E. L. Cook, John Melville, Parke Montague, R. J. Prout, Ralph Ruggart and D. J. Thomson.

PHOENIX TRIP

Mrs. Regina Cunningham of 825 Sartori Ave., recently returned from a plans trip to Phoenix, Arizona where she was a guest at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham. Also visiting were the brother and family of Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Storzinger of Minneapolis, Minn., and their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Storzinger also of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene A. Krieger are now at home at 1208 W. "G" St., Wilmington, following their return from a honeymoon in northern California.

They were married in formal ceremonies held in the South Bay Church of God, North Torrance, Oct. 8. The new

Mrs. Krieger is the former Shirley Tierney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Tierney, of Cleveland, Ohio. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. R. C. Krieger of Lomita.

Officiating at the double ring service was the brother of the bride, the Rev. Clifford Tierney.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Hershall Johnson, the bride was gowned in white Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her fingertip length veil was attached to a Juliet cap and she carried gardenias and orange blossoms.

Attending the bride were her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clifford Tierney, Jr., who as matron of honor was gowned in blue taffeta

IN SAN FRANCISCO

Attending the Medical Assn. meeting in San Francisco from Sunday until Wednesday of last week were Drs. and Mrs. Howard Wood, Ralph McNeil, Fred Eric Ewens and Richard Schaefer.

Patricia Woodward's Troth To Brad Farnham Announced

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Woodward, 1530 W. 218th St., are this morning announcing the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann, to Brad Farnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Farnham, 118 W. 118th St., Hawthorne. The wedding will take place in Las Vegas, sometime in January.

Miss Woodward was graduated from the Narbonne High School in 1951. She was secretary of the senior class, cheer leader for the Girls' League, held membership in the Girls' Tri-Y and the GAA. Since graduation, she has been employed at the Torrance Pharmacy.

Mr. Farnham, a native of North Dakota, was graduated from MSTC in Minnesota. He completed a course in business administration at El Camino College in 1954 and is now employed by a furniture manufacturing concern in Inglewood.

MISS PATRICIA ANN WOODWARD
... Jewelry Bride Elect

Institute New Lodge Oct. 29

The new Torrance Rebekah lodge will be instituted in a ceremony at the Masonic Temple here on Saturday evening Oct. 29.

The fifty members in attendance at the regular monthly meeting held Oct. 12 under the direction of Winifred Brace, chairman, were told of the date and plans. Anyone interested in joining the new club is asked to call Mrs. F. A. Isbell of Torrance or Mrs. W. G. Powers of Lomita.

Final arrangements will be made at the regular meeting Wednesday evening Oct. 26.

During a social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Retta Nelson and her committee.

MRS. GENE A. KRIEGER
... Recent Bride

Travel Expert to be Guest

"First Lady of Touring" is the title awarded to Carol Lane, who will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Las Vegas Woman's Club, on Oct. 27, at 1:30 p.m. Miss Lane's topic will be "The Rediscovery of America By Car."

A women's travel director for an oil company, Miss Lane has made surveys of American motorists and their families to gain authentic information on travel patterns and problems.

She travels more than 60,000 miles annually testing new ideas and travel gadgets, as well as exploring objectives to increase family vacation enjoyment. Miss Lane's talk will include visual demonstrations on budgeting, car packing, traveling with children and wardrobe planning.

Dr. and Mrs. K. F. Nance Return From Extensive European Tour

Mrs. K. F. Nance, 121 Las Miradores, noted pianist, who has delighted local audiences in numerous recitals during her piano teaching career here, shared her talents with relatives and friends when she was presented in concert in London on her recent European trip with her husband, Dr. K. F. Nance.

On this trip, Dr. and Mrs. Nance were entertained in the home of Lady Millicent Kenyon, whose home is near the Marble Arch in London. It was here that Mrs. Nance gave two piano recitals. Lady Kenyon is a relative of Mrs. Nance's father.

Mrs. Nance, a graduate of the Juilliard School in New York, also gave concerts on the ship going to Europe.

Locally, the pianist has appeared with the Glendale Symphony at the Biltmore and with the Palos Verdes Art Assn. She has taught piano here for the past 15 years.

During their 11-weeks aboard, Dr. and Mrs. Nance attended concerts in London, Paris, Rome and Florence, outstanding among these were the outdoor concert in the Roman Forum and another in the gardens of the Pitti Palace in Florence.

They also visited Switzerland, Germany and Belgium. Dr. Nance investigated social, political and economic conditions in various countries and is preparing for a lecture series.

Arriving in New York, three days behind schedule due to storms at sea, the Nances then visited with relatives in Baltimore, Md., Oklahoma and Texas, enroute to California.

MRS. K. F. NANCE
... Home from Europe