

Walteria, Hillside Halloween Carnivals Draw Large Crowds

BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4488

Those PTA Halloween carnivals were a huge success. The Walteria Carnival packed in a crowd of both parents and students when it opened on Friday afternoon. The newest addition to the carnival, the cake walk, proved to be a huge success with young and old walking around the circle to try to win one of the luscious home-baked cakes.

Frank Taylor, already well known in this area for his wonderful work with the younger set, had charge of this innovation. All the booths did a running business, with chili and hot dogs disappearing as if by magic.

Chairmen for the carnival this year were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hardeste and Mrs. Hector Herrera.

ed in knowing that a car club which will be under the sponsorship of the Torrance Police Assn. is now being organized in this area.

This is an answer to the many problems arising when the young men and older boys become interested in "hot-rods" and provides organized activities and supervised events for these car addicts.

One of these activities, for instance, was the car "Roadco" held last Sunday at the El Camino parking lot, under the supervision of the Torrance Police Car Club Assn.

If any of you are interested in joining, or having your boy join, just call DA 6-4438, for further information, or ask for Officer Buck Ingram or Officer William Mitnell, at the Torrance Police Station.

The Tom Fitzpatricks had most welcome guests last week when Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lehmen, of St. Paul, Minn., dropped in to spend last Thursday. The Lehmens and Fitzpatricks then enjoyed a trip last Saturday when they all journeyed to Tijuana, Mex.

The Dorcas Circle of the Walteria Community Methodist Church, held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Kay Grogan on Madison St., Wednesday. Thirteen members and one visitor, Mrs. Doris Zellner, were present. The circle plans to give a toy, gift, and gadget party on Dec. 1, for all who like to do their Christmas shopping the easy way.

An interesting resume on the American Indian Study recently completed by the group was given by Mrs. Chuck Beck. After the business of the evening was completed, co-hostess Wanda Cornell served luscious filled angel cake dessert with coffee.

Joe Merrill's home has been visited with sickness again with both sons, Tony and Hanky, being in bed with asthma and croop.

The annual winter bazaar held by the local WSCS is set for Nov. 12, a week from this Saturday.

The next meeting will be held

Church social hall.

The pies were made by the practiced hand of Mrs. Thomas Kirk, assisted by other members of the circle. The pies were just the thing to hit the spot on a cool afternoon. For the younger set, there was soup and salad with a side serving of milk.

A luscious chicken pie luncheon was served last Tuesday to over 30 guests by the local Ruth Circle at the Methodist

The Hillside PTA Carnival was a roaring success from the time it opened for business. The afternoon was busy with silent shows and a costume parade, with many youngsters walking off with prizes. Decorating committees outdressed themselves in the decor, with gay streamers and corn stalks the entire length of the arcade adding to the spirit of the occasion. Cotton candy, hot dogs, and other good things to eat were sold, and the booths of games, etc., were happily visited by the crowd of merry-makers.

Mrs. Arner Gunnett who served as chairman for the carnival, first big money-making project for Hillside PTA.

WHEN IT'S TIME TO MOVE

Hubby George told her that as a birthday treat he was taking her out to dinner. And so he did, two houses down the street to the home of Jack and Lucille Powers, where a group of neighbors were waiting to call "surprise!"

The party was held in the lovely patio at the Powers' residence, with barbecued hamburgers cooked on the fireplace and all the group bringing some luscious specialty to add to the groning table.

The dessert, of course, was a beautiful birthday cake of white with pink roses, sporting 16 candles just for fun. The cake was brought by Mrs. M. Gavin, while others contributed to the fun and festivity.

Marie Askew, Polly Askew, Chuck and Nell Erwin, Vida Jacobsen, Lucille Lewis, and, of course, George and Blanche Lambertson.

Margaret Harner is much happier this week since hubby Jim is at home at Danaha St. again, after spending two weeks in San Diego, at the Naval Reserve Training Center.

Those of you who are interested in what makes a car run better, and — or safety and courtesy on the highway, or have a teenager who is interested in same, will be interested.

GLYNN'S OPENING TODAY!

Glynn's home of fine China, Crystal, Lamps and Gifts extend an invitation to the opening of their new store, located in the Hollywood Riviera, Redondo Beach.

Five years ago we promised the folks of the South Bay the finest China, Crystal and Gift Shop anywhere in the country. We have kept our promise.

Five years ago we asked for your support. You gave us that support. Now in our new and beautiful location we again ask for your support, so that we can maintain a fine shop with the finest assortment of Domestic and Imported gifts, China and Crystal, that is obtainable. We are sure that when you see our new store you will be as proud of it as we are.

Mr. Leslie and John Danis, outstanding local builders and developers designed and built our new store. A lot of credit to these men for their great developing program for the South Bay.

We also pledge ourselves again that our prices will be as low or lower than any large or major store anywhere. We will feature gifts at all price levels. See our advertisement on page 12 in this edition for a few of our opening specials. These will be in effect for one week only starting today.

Below is a map of our new location.
