

MISS PAT LANCASTER
... Engagement Told

MRS. HARRY M. BAYLISS
... Weds in Arizona

Pat Lancaster-K. S. Einfeldt To Wed in Holiday Season

A wedding is being planned for the coming holiday season by Miss Pat Lancaster and Karel Scott Einfeldt. Bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Lancaster, of 21511 S. Figueroa St., Torrance. The bride is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Einfeldt, of 2934 Denison St., San Pedro, formerly of Moline, Ill.

Nuptial vows will be exchanged by the engaged couple on December 27.

Miss Lancaster is a graduate of Banning High School, winter class of 1954. Mr. Einfeldt, who is a specialist third class in the U. S. Paratroopers, now stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., received his education in Moline, Ill. schools.

Torrance High Graduates Are Married in Kingman on Oct. 22

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the wedding solemnized in Kingman, Ariz., on Oct. 22, when Miss Anna Marie Kaulback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kaulback became the bride of Harry M. Bayliss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Val Gene Mott, 18148 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance.

The young couple were accompanied to Arizona by the bride's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kaulback, Miss Ann Bayliss and Joe Fazio.

The ceremony was conducted by Judge Wisnom. The bride wore a pink bouffant taffeta dress with a small white hat. Her corsage was of white orchids.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kaulback. After the wedding, the group went to Las Vegas for a dinner party.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in June, 1955.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of the local high school in the class of 1953. He was a member of the football team. He then went to Taft Junior College, where he also participated in athletics.

The newlyweds are now at home at 3741 182nd St.

Jody is Five

To celebrate her daughter Jody's fifth birthday, Mrs. Robert Mowry entertained with a Halloween party at her home 1615 Juniper last Saturday afternoon.

The children came en masse and were presented with Halloween noisemakers. Games were played after which the Halloween decorated birthday cake was cut and served with other refreshments.

Children enjoying the party were Sherrill and Nahey Levy of Palos Verdes, Cecelia and Claudia Blahnik, Wendy and Bruce Lewis, Larry Armstrong, Robbie and Timmy Rogers and Jody's sister, Janis.

RUSH SEASON FOR ETA KAPPA UNIT

October was designated as "rush" month for Eta Kappa chapter. A model meeting was held to introduce the new pledges to the group with several parties following.

A "Come as you are" breakfast was the first surprise event. Pink and Black was the theme of a hilarious "coodle" party for rushees. Among the outstanding events was the preferential tea with two girls accepting bids.

The Jewel Pin ceremony climaxed the month's activities. Receiving pins were Mmes. Pat Stamm, Audrey Herring, Florence Pfeffer, Helen Dorsey, Shirley Phillips and Helen Lechtweis.

Pledges were Mmes. Blanche Angus and Peggy Le Branch.

ROTC Fetes Donna Wolf

Miss Donna Pat Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Wolf, 21809 Halldale Ave., Torrance, has been elected president of the Colonel's Coeds at the University of California, Santa Barbara College.

Colonel's Coeds is an honorary organization consisting of girls elected by the ROTC battalion at the new seashore campus.

Five girls are chosen each year from the incoming freshman class. They are given the rank of honorary lieutenant. Through successive college years they attain the ranks of honorary captain, major, and colonel.

Miss Wolf has been a member of Colonel's Coeds since her sophomore year. She is now a senior majoring in Political Science. She is chairman of rally committee, a member of the California Club and president of Chi Omega Sorority.

ENTERTAIN HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dunham, of Halldale Ave., entertained a group of relatives and friends who were week-long house guests at their home, recently.

They were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Vander Voort, of Portland, Ore. Mrs. Vander Voort is a cousin of Mrs. Dunham. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Uthoug, also of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Taylor, of Springfield, Mo.

Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mowry were co-hosts recently at a dinner party at the Mowry home, 1615 Juniper, complimenting Dr. Robert Isaac on his birthday.

Fall flowers decorated the dining table at which places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Mowry, Dr. and Mrs. Isaac, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hoffman, Jr.

Cards were the diversion for the after dinner hours.

IN PALM SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears and Mrs. Charles Schultz returned Monday morning from a week end spent at the Schultz home in Palm Springs.

IN LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, 1541 Post Ave., spent last week end in Las Vegas, where Mr. Barrington took part in a golf tournament.

Jewish Units Will Install New Officers

Newly elected officers of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center, sisterhood and men's groups, will be installed at a dinner-dance Saturday evening at 7 p.m. at Ciro's on the Sunset strip.

Dr. Arthur Berke of Torrance will serve as installing officer and Hank Carriere of Gardena will be the master of ceremonies.

Among the guests to attend the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy of Torrance.

At the meeting last Tuesday evening newcomers and guests were introduced. After a business session, a social hour was spent and refreshments served.

The Sisterhood will hold its next meeting Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, at the Center, 14725 S. Gramery Place, at 8:30.

Homemade articles and foods will be highlighted at St. Andrew's annual parish Harvest Bazaar and dinner

The affair, which is open to the public is being staged by the entire parish including the women's guild, men's fellowship groups and all youth groups.

The Young People's Fellowship and Boys choir will sponsor games for all ages.

Christmas cards, decorations and presents will be sold at the Christmas booth at bargain prices, staffed by Mrs. Peter Barker.

St. Anne's Guild, Mrs. Gilford Funston chairman, will conduct the hot pot sale and homemade candy booth. St. Margaret's Guild headed by Mrs. A. C. Turner, will sell handmade articles, appropriate buys for Christmas presents.

Mrs. Wayne Norman, chairman of St. Mary Magdalene's guild will direct her group in selling home-baked cakes, cookies and pastries.

St. Veronica's guild, led by Mrs. Edmond Hutton, will sell hot dogs, soft drinks and coffee. Mrs. Ralph Sprout and Mrs. N. A. Williamson are chairmen of the White Elephant Booth.

The church school will have a grocery store booth by Mrs. Roberta Burns and will offer for sale canned foods, homemade jams and jellies and other home canned goods.

In connection with the Harvest Bazaar, St. Andrew's Church is sponsoring a barbecued beef dinner to be served from 11:15 to 1:15 p.m. in the church parish hall. The Men's Fellowship group headed by Arthur Kinsey will barbecue the meat on the spot. St. Elizabeth's guild and the dinner chairman, Mrs. Clarence Andrews will cook the other food for the dinner. St. Cecilia's guild led by Mrs. Robert Sleeth Sr. will serve the individual dinners.

Tickets are on sale for the dinner at the church, 1432 Englewood. Mrs. Alan Moore, ticket chairman is also taking reservations and orders may also be telephoned to the church office.

Past Prexy's Continue Club Party Series

Past presidents of the Torrance Woman's club are continuing their series of diminishing card parties as a ways and means project for the club.

Mrs. Chris Jones entertained at her home 2118 Martina Ave. on Oct. 15. Prizes went to Mrs. Beth Eckert and Mrs. Maxine Jones.

Mrs. Jones' guests were Mmes. Ann McDonald, Laura Felker, Ruth Woodcock, Beth Eckert, Alice Robison, Harriett Hamilton and Maxine Jones.

On Oct. 21 Mrs. R. J. Prout entertained in her home, 1008 Erial St.

Mrs. Prout's guests were Mmes. L. A. McCoy, L. C. Wilbrecht, and William Montgomery. High score prize was won by Mrs. L. C. Wilbrecht.

Another series party was given by Mrs. H. L. Mitchell 1517 Acacia, on Oct. 24.

Enjoying Mrs. Mitchell's hospitality were: Mmes. C. K. Albright, R. J. Triplitt, J. H. Fanning, L. C. Wilbrecht, D. J. Quinlan, George Bradford and H. C. Doan. Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Wilbrecht held the high score counts.

Mrs. Dean Sears entertained at a series party at her home 1635 Post Ave., recently.

Participating in this club event were Mmes. Helen Dryer, John Oursler, Paul Lovang, Joel R. Klirk, Jr., Albert Posner, Ralph McNeil, and E. E. Clayton. Holding prize winning counts were Mmes. E. E. Clayton, Joel Klirk, Jr., and John Oursler.

Shower Fetes Bride-Elect of Brad Farnham

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Patricia Woodward, January bride-elect of Brad Farnham, was given recently by Mrs. R. C. O'Carin at her 1750 Date St., home.

Arrangements of white wedding bells both on the refreshment table and in the archway, along with bouquets of multi-colored dahlias created an effective wedding motif for the gala affair.

Winners of three games played during the evening were: Madge Jessie of Compton and Doris Markland. The latter winning two prizes.

Attractive gifts were presented to the honoree from the following guests present: Mmes. Fred Hansen, Maude Jensen, Thelma Daniels, Doris Markland, Edna Janssen, C. Parton, Barbara Wallace, Sharon Wallis, Doris Seaman, Ola Laurent, P. H. Woodward, mother of the bride-elect; Madge Jessie and Miss Hilda Onorato.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mmes. Mollie Auld, Veda Crawford, Pearl Rowenstine, Shirley Kudemyer of Hollywood; E. J. Saizman, Marie Hill, Janet McGuire, Betty Woodman, Dana Page and Nancey Page of Long Beach.

Husbands to Be Honored

Program committee of the WALTERIA Business Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Virgil Hancock, 3531 Madison Ct., Oct. 27, to plan the forthcoming "Husband's Night."

This annual event will take place on Nov. 12, at Ed Nickel's Recreation room. The evening will include a potluck supper, judging of novelty hats to be worn by the men and created by the women. The hats will depict the husband's employment or profession.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. Robert Sleeth, chairman, Mrs. Jack Brown, Mrs. Fred Stevens, Mrs. Jim Whitmar, Mrs. Robert Waegner and Mrs. Wilmet Labit.

Family Fetes Carl Deans on Anniversary

A family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean, 2564 Torrance Blvd., with all of their children in attendance, celebrated the 29th wedding anniversary of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean have lived in Torrance since 1945. They were married Oct. 29, 1926, in Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Dean is employed at National Supply, and Mrs. Dean has served as manager of the legal department of the Torrance HERALD since 1945.

On Sunday, their children and their families gathered around a beautifully decorated table for dinner. The honored couple were presented with an electric coffee maker, a gift from the family.

The afternoon and evening hours were spent in taking pictures and playing games.

With Mr. and Mrs. Dean for the day were: Mr. and Mrs. John Agapito and Debbie and Vince; Sgt. and Mrs. Leiland Dean and Janet Lee, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean and Jill and Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Herlin and Gary and Mark, of Redondo Beach.

Late in the afternoon the huge decorated anniversary cake was cut and served with coffee.

ENSENADA WEEK END

Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman, 1518 El Prado, accompanied by their daughter, Janell, and Ronie Bush, spent the week end in Ensenada, Mex., where they stayed at the Hotel Bahai.

"SO MUCH ATTENTION" ... but it's fun and little Mark Burgener offers no objections when he has his picture taken, is weighed and measured, for the records at the Torrance Well Baby Clinic, sponsored by the Los Angeles County Health Dept. Assisting are two members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, left, Mrs. C. T. Bolles and right, Mrs. John Agapito. The club, for the eighth consecutive year, spends three hours a week at the clinic doing routine work which relieves the nurses for more specialized duties. Clinic is staffed by two pediatricians from the Harbor General Hospital.

Entertains Junior Club Lends a Hand At Local Well Baby Clinic

Continuing an eight year old philanthropy, members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club can be found lending a hand at the Well Baby Clinic, Torrance Branch of the Los Angeles County Health Department on Carson St.

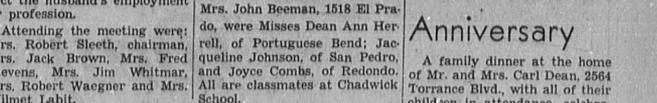

The local women spend three hours a week at the clinic taking over some of the duties, so that the nurses will be available for more specialized services. The clinic is staffed by two pediatricians from the Harbor General Hospital and is open to all babies of the Torrance area.

The local women measure the babies and record their weight, height and age.

The Well Baby Clinic on this year's club roster includes Mrs. C. T. Bolles, chairman; and Mmes. John Agapito, Lee E. Allen, Charles Blahnik, George Blahnik, Richard Brundin, C. A. Frederickson, Tom G. Halasey, Robert M. Hauck, Leon Warne, J. K. Leopold, Harry M. Lewis, W. M. Montgomery, Charles Rippey, Jr., and Robert K. Schooley.

DINNER PARTY

Halloween dinner guests of Miss Janell Beeman at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman, 1518 El Prado, were Misses Dean Ann Herrell, of Portuguese Bend; Jacqueline Johnson, of San Pedro, and Joyce Combs, of Redondo. All are classmates at Chadwick School.

MR. AND MRS. CARL DEAN ... On 29th Wedding Day

FOR THE HARVEST FESTIVAL AND BAZAAR ... to be staged by St. Andrew's Episcopal Church parish next Saturday at the parish hall, every age group in the parish is lending a hand to make this an outstanding affair for the community. Guild chairmen who have spent hours decorating, preparing booths and mapping the festival program are: from left, Mrs. Alan Moore, Mrs. Richard Osgood, Mrs. Gilford Funston, Mrs. H. C. St. Martin, and Mrs. Jack M. Lynn, general chairman. Along with the festival, a barbecued beef dinner will be served.

(Herald Photo)