

Los Cancioneros Plan Western Trimmings for Supper Concert

By MARY WEBB
FR 5-3051

"Harvest Round-up Time" sets the theme for Los Cancioneros' annual "Sing for Your Supper" dinner, to be held this Sunday at 9:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple banquet room in Redondo Beach.

Betty Holloway, publicist for the champion Riviera choral group, added that the menu will feature a real chuck wagon dinner, with the music and decorations for the evening done in true Western fall flavor.

Los Cancioneros will again give their audience a full measure of value in both food and song to peak their sixth annual "sing for your supper" event.

Mrs. Robert George, chairman of the dinner committee, reports a menu true to h-man cowboy "grub" including barbecued beef, ranch style beans, sour dough bread, tossed greens and home made apple pie.

In the music field, the mixed chorus, led by new director Don Bremer, will feature a varied musical menu, from Mozart to Fred Waring's "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair." Old English carols and old request favorites will also be featured.

Walker Brown and his guitar, perennial favorite, will serenade dinner guests with western and folk songs. Tickets are now on sale to a limited audience and may be reserved through calling Los Amigos' chairman, Mrs. Arthur Lytle, FR 5-3570 or Caroline Polhemus, FR 2-1251.

The latest "dream" holiday was wrapped up recently by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wyatt, 309 Calle de Andalucia, who spent six glorious days in Bermuda.

It was the celebration of their 14th wedding anniversary, and they did it up right by flying to Bermuda where they stayed at Palmetto Bay. They liked the very British island-type living. No automobiles were available, since visitors cannot buy or rent one for the first 30 days on the island.

As tourist short timers, they got around on what milords and ladies call a "motor assist bicycle" — rigged up with a small motor. The Wyatts took the grand tour of the island, however, in a British open air car — complete with a fringe soiree.

They flew east to New York, thence to Bermuda. Son Johnny stayed home in Riviera with Madam Housekeeper.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Artuso, 864 Calle de Arboles, on the birth of their new daughter on Nov. 5, at St. Mary's hospital in Long Beach.

The new arrival has been named Sherie Lee. She arrived home from the hospital on Nov. 10 to join her sister Patty, 16, and brother Alfred Jr., 4, at the Artuso home. Dad Artuso is principal at the Walteria school.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins, of Long Beach, while the paternal side boasts granddad Anthony Artuso, of Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Laurence Wing, 516 Via

Monte de Oro, division chairman and community projects chairman for Las Vecinas, reports that Riviera and Ellinwood has reached and passed their quota in the recent Community Chest drive.

Quota for the combined communities was $1,000. In so far, and with still more to be accounted for, is $1,400, at least 40 per cent over quota.

Mrs. Wing expressed her thanks to section chairmen and workers for the outstanding job they did in this drive. Section chairmen were Mmes. August Muizers, Francis Stefko, James Cooley, Michael Wold, Joseph Solfer, Lamar Bonnetto, and Albert Koester of Riviera and Mrs. Bill Davis of Ellinwood.

League is holding its annual Thanksgiving dance on Saturday, Nov. 26, at 8 p.m. at the Riviera Beach Club.

Everyone is invited, and the proceeds go to defray expenses of the Pacific Coast Little League teams. Tickets may be obtained from any Little League parent or by calling president Al Marzilli, at FR 5-8658.

Let's continue the listing of street names of Hollywood Riviera and their English meanings. A complete list of these meanings should prove a handy thing to have around the house, and on that theory, we've been publishing a few of the names each week for the last three weeks. Here's more:

Calle de Aragon—Street of Aragon.

Calle de Andalucia—Street of Andalucia.

Calle de Arboles—Street of trees.

Via Buena Ventura—Road of good fortune.

Camino del Campo—Road of the level field.

Calle de Castellana—Street of the Castilian.

Avenida Santa Catalina—Avenue of St. Catherine.

Camino de las Colinas—Highway of the hills.

Vista del Mar—View by the sea.

Calle de Soledad—Road of Solitude.

Via Mesa Grande—Big plateau road.

Via Anita—Anita road.

Via San Sebastian—Saint Sebastian road.

Calle de Mexico—Main street.

Via los Miradores—Road of spectacular views.

Look in next week for more Hollywood Riviera street names and their English meanings.

They're growing and growing — just like Topsy. Three more brand new Brownie troops have been organized recently, in this area. So reports Mrs. J. M. Stuart, 171 Via los Miradores, publicity chairman for Girl Scouts and Brownies for Riviera.

Under the leadership of Mrs. W. D. Peterson, Troop 225 of the Brownies was formed. Co-leader is Mrs. Hector MacLeod. Troop committee chairman is Mrs. Harris C. Van Valkenburg, while secretary is Mrs. John E. Brown. Cookie chairman is Mrs. Paul Cason, and telephone chairman is Mrs. Arthur Perego.

Second troop formed recently is Troop 226, led by Mrs. E. H. Rosenthal, with the co-leader spot filled by Mrs. F. E. Weller. Troop committee chairmen are Mmes. R. M. Lindley, W. L. Fisher and C. A. Delio.

Troop 237, also newly formed, is led by Mrs. Norman Parrish. Co-leader is Mrs. Thomas Von Blankenburg. Troop committee chairman is Mrs. T. G. Fransreb, while cookie chairman is Mrs. A. M. Prodan. Publicity chairman is Mrs. T. H. Lennox and telephone chairman is Mrs. James McIntyre.

Troops 225 and 226 are formed of second graders while Troop 237 is composed of both second and third grade girls.

Members of the Coast Nursery group are planning a bake sale this Saturday morning in front of the Frontier Market, on Pacific Coast Hwy., according to Lucille Cokas, ways and means chairman.

Earlier this week, the ladies held a toy sale.

The first annual South Bay Art Auction will be staged at the Neptunian club from 3 to 6 on Sunday, Dec. 4.

So announced Dale Sexton, artist, and Marybeth Hornbeck, writer, who put their heads together and came up with a novel idea to raise funds for the church building fund at Church of Religious Science in Redondo Beach.

South Bay artists Jack McClain, Don Spencer, Davis Miller, Gordon Evans, Vera Grube, Bob McMahon, Dale Sexton, Frank Merritt, John Emanuel and others have donated paintings to be auctioned off with no low minimum bid.

On the "never rains but it pours" side, Dana's return from the hospital was delayed a day when Karen, 4, was rushed to the Children's Hospital on Nov. 7, with a ruptured appendix. On the way home from visiting Karen at the hospital on Thursday, Mrs. Fay's automobile was struck by another car from behind, and Mrs. Fay suffered a back and neck injury. She is at present strapped up in bed, trying to recover from the auto accident.

Home from a five-day trip to San Francisco is Al Marzilli, 158 Via los Miradores. He left on Nov. 6, staying in the city by the bay through the following Thursday. It was a business trip, and he did it solo.

Recent out of town guests at the home of Mrs. John Reed, 188 Via Alameda, were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Watts. Watts is a chief warrant officer in the Navy, as is Reed, and he and his family arrived on Nov. 5 for a week end visit.

Watts then went on to his new duty station in Astoria, Ore., while his wife and daughter, Leann, 4, stayed here to visit further with Mrs. Reed.
