

Norman Reese Takes Slogan Contest Prize

"Place the Litter—Don't Litter the Place" was the prize-winning slogan in the HERALD clean-up contest by Norman Ray Reese, Madrona School seventh grader. He won a $25 savings bond.

Other winners in the contest were Danny Kirks, second; Howard A. Phillips, third; Cappy Phillips, fourth; Freddie Reeder, fifth; Bill Davis, Alan Johnson, Bill Peterson, and Frank J. Sweney, Jr., and Billy Truair, runnersup.

Planners Hear Disputes

The Torrance Planning Commission, Wednesday night, apparently settled the long-standing controversy over the General Telephone addition at 650 Palos Verdes Blvd., but found itself with another dispute as neighbors attacked the Longren Aircraft Co. request for a zone change on its property at 2576 W. Carson St.

Man Kidnaps Girl

A 37-year-old Long Beach father will be arranged Dec. 22 in Dept. 41, Los Angeles Superior Court, on charges that he kidnapped a Hawthorne girl and took nude pictures of her in a shack near Torrance Blvd. and Earl St.

Allen Cecil Brown, who served four years in San Quentin for child-stealing, is being held in lieu of $800 bond. Officers said he admitted the kidnapping.

Four Tracts Approved

Four tracts containing 145 lots were given a green light by the Torrance Planning Commission Wednesday, despite the fact that the rock and gravel strike threatens to halt new construction in the immediate future.

7 Boys Crash Party

Seven juveniles were apprehended by police Friday night after they gave teen-aged party attenders a bad time at 3402 W. 226th St.

Brought to the station on drunk and disturbing the peace charges were four Torrance boys and three juveniles from Wilmington.

Motorist Gets Fresh

Drivers are getting fresh nowadays, but a man who almost ran down Mrs. Dolores Keith, of 124 Via la Ciruela, Friday afternoon added insult to near injury.

Mrs. Keith called police shortly after noon and said she was walking across Palos Verdes Blvd., when a light grey auto almost hit her. The driver wasn't satisfied with the near miss, however, she said. He stopped the car and chirped, "How are ya' doing, baby?," then slapped her and sped away.

Check Warning Issued

Torrance police issued a note of caution this week to merchants and customers in connection with the holiday rush of buying and cashing checks. They also warned shoppers to be careful of shoplifters, pickpockets and other thieves that thrive on heavy buying traffic. Assistant Chief Percy Bennett urged shop owners to be "extremely" careful in cashing checks during the stepped-up Christmas buying season.

North Cagers Win Game

Ron Petrillus 16 points and Bud Ritter's 13 markers were too much for Artesia Friday night as the Saxon cagers upended the visitors, 40-39, in a close on the THIS floor.

The locals registered their first win of the season by dumping Artesia. The Saxons led, 22-21 at the half, but the losers came roaring back to take a 32-30 lead at the three-quarter mark.

Tech Teacher To Speak at Convention

Montague M. Wadey, chairman of the Natural Science Division at Harbor Junior College, has been invited to speak at the National Association for Practical Nurse Education convention next May 9, according to Hazel M. Whedon, administrative dean at the college.

Wadey has been invited to participate in the Directors and Instructors Section, which will meet in Chicago. The subject of the symposium will be "Varied Patterns in Practical Nursing Education."

"With the Junior College Vocational Nursing Program having assumed such importance in California we feel that the program should be a highlight of the convention," Evelyn L. Childs, program committee chairman wrote. "With the excellent work being done in Harbor Junior College, we would be particularly pleased to have Mr. Wadey as the representative of the junior college vocational nursing program," she added.
