Staying through the holidays with the Otto Lippoldts Jr., 1203 Fonthill, are Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lippoldts Sr., of Evansville, Ind. So far, the house guests have enjoyed visiting Knott's Berry Farm and have done some Christmas shopping. After Christmas, they plan to take trips to San Diego, Capistrano, and Disneyland as their host is anticipating an 11-day vacation. Showing his parents a good time is his primary objective.

Busy passing out the traditional cigar in celebration of his newborn was Robert H. Tolson, 1322 Teri. William Wallace was born Dec. 13 at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. He weighed 7 lb. 1 oz. He joins sister Cindy, 5, and brother Bobbie, 4. Incidentally, Bobbie's birthday falls on Dec. 14, one day later than his little brother's.

complete with mask and whiskers. Mrs. Wood confessed that it took all week to convince him that it was alright to be the only one in a Santa costume. He wanted to look like the other children in the act.

The following Friday—the last day of school—each class exchanged gifts at their Christmas parties in their rooms. All came home enthusiastically showing off favors and bursting with excitement.

Last Friday evening the Christian Church held its annual Christmas party. Parents and children joined in the dedication of their white gifts of food for a charity home, and in group singing of carols. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served after a Christmas film was shown. Decorations of red and white paper and a beautiful Christmas tree helped to make the affair a delightful one. Several of our neighbors attended with their children.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klingberg, 2829 Onrado, attended a festive Christmas party Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peters. All guests were greeted as they arrived by gay windows decorated with frosty "Welcome to the Peters' Home." Entertaining in their newly constructed rum-

ACCENT: Theatre! held a family get-together and pot-luck Christmas party at the Woman's Club last Wednesday evening. Guests enjoyed samples from favorite dishes brought by other members. As all of those who attended brought their families, there were loads of kiddies to enjoy the gift exchange. Several of our neighbors attended with their families.

Adding a boy to their family of girls last Friday at 6:40 a.m. at Torrance Memorial Hospital were the Paul Hardies, 2756 Onrado. Kevin Paul is his name and he weighed 7 lb. 7 oz. at birth. He joins sisters Lyn 4, and Toni 2.

Visiting briefly with the Lou Dyer family, 2838 Onrado, is Mrs. Lloyd, who is stopping here enroute to Denver, Colo., where she plans to spend the Christmas holidays.
