

Coast Nursery School Meeting Rained Out, Rescheduled Today

By MARY WEBB
FR 5-9051

Due to the heavy rain last Thursday the regular monthly meeting of the Coast Nursery School was postponed until today.

Marilyn Burt of Pasadena will be the guest speaker at today's meeting, which will be held at the Riviera School. The topic will be "The Beginning Years of a Cooperative Nursery School."

Elections of officers will be held at this meeting.

Congratulations to the family of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. McElroy, of 144 Via Los Miradores, on the birth of a son. The little one has been named Kirk Allen, and he was born on Jan. 13, 1956.

The Newton PTA Dads held a successful get-acquainted date on Sunday, Jan. 29, at the Newton Street School. It was a fund raising project and was named "D.D." The letters stand for "Dads' Doughnut Date," the first all-male program to be sponsored by the Newton PTA, just organized this year.

The Dads cleared over $80, which will be used for necessary items at the school.

Volleyball served as a "mixer" game, coached by Nick Delian. Over 100 fathers attended and fun was had by all.

Young boys from Newton School put on a boxing show for their friends. One of the first to box were Killer Carroll vs. Tiger Ohlman; Wild Berry, and Slugger Stout; Trasher Marzelle, and Tiny Tim.

Amby Schindler provided a sports film for the men to see. Schindler is the track coach at El Camino.

Local members of the Southern California Skin Divers Club of California spent a very enjoyable week end at Escondido, over Jan. 27, 28, and 29.

In all 18 couples and their children enjoyed the trip by boat. They also visited the Torres Islands several miles off Escondido. They also went fishing for fish and lobsters. The children had the time of their young lives sleeping in sleeping bags.

From Riviera were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sturgill, Jimmy Coyle, Gerry Thomas, and Lawrence Lopez from Redondo Beach.

The California Council of Diving Clubs are presenting a "Luau" type "Come as you are" on Feb. 11. It will be held at the American Legion Post, 1109 Border Ave., Torrance.

Mrs. Charles Sturgill, 340 Calle de Andalucia, FR 5-1820, is taking care of the tickets. The Council helps Diving Clubs all over California. Their aim is for legislation, conservation, sportsmanship, education, and most important of all is to teach safety in skin diving.

The folk dancing badge is the goal of Girl Scout Troops 98 and 113. Under the direction of Mr. Ed Flester, the sixth grade girls are meeting on Monday evenings at El Retiro Park for instruction in folk dances of the United States and other countries. In addition to the dances, Mr. Flester gives the background of each dance, tells of the country from which it comes, describes the costumes, and teaches songs which accompany some of the dances.

The girls of Troop 98 participating in this activity are: Carolyn Cool, Carol Regal, Marilyn Mummel, M'Lee Terry, Molly Jack, Gini Marie, Mrs. Paul Guere, Judy Hall, Judy Noeth, Kathryn VonBlankenburg, Lynda Showalter, Raleigh Shear, Eileen Keenan, and Mary Frances Stone. Their leader is Mrs. Cuntis Cool; co-leader, Mrs. Samuel Greenblatt.

Troop 113, under the leadership of Mrs. Ivan R. Gilbert and co-leaders, Mrs. Ralph Borgeson, William F. King and Mrs. Louis Regan, has as its members Susan Regan, Margaret Palmer, Kristin Borgeson, Winnie Gilbert, Sandra Dodge, Vicki King, Christy Paddock, Betsy Vedder, Pamela Reeves and Katherine Free.

Their troop's first birthday was celebrated with a party last Wednesday by the girls of Brownie Troop 201. Mrs. Paul Marat, troop committee chairman, and Mrs. Charles Delio, committee member, were in charge of the party, given at the Delio home, 234 Via Pasqual. Games were enjoyed and a birthday cake, which the girls helped decorate, was served.

On the Saturday preceding the party, this troop visited a local dairy. The usual tour, which included watching the milking, was enjoyed—but the real thrill of the trip was a visit to the "nursery" a large barn in which each stall contained a very young calf. The conductor of the tour brought out a five-day-old baby calf so that each girl could pet it and inspect the "calf-size nursing bottle."

Troop 201 is under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. Stuart and co-leader, Mrs. Jack E. Hatch. Its members are Pamela Bartelt, Doty Booth, Judy Cobabe, Virginia Corazza, Connie Delio, Kim Hatch, Dolly Harrington, Sherry Koudela, Paula Marat, Melinda McElroy, Julie Stern, Gail Stuart, Michela Sullivan, Anita Terry and Charlene Winkelman.

Brownie Troop 167 had an enjoyable Saturday morning playing miniature golf at a nearby course. Troop leader is Mrs. P. R. Albright and co-leader, Mrs. Fred Klingler. The girls: Rosemary Abend, Nancy Sue Albright, Bunny Beaver, Patricia Free, Meri-ruth Russell, Maureen Treacy, Karen Prodan, Alanna Morris, Kay Miklesen, Patricia Klingler, Cynthia Marie Vico, and Denise Eschandi.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nash, former Rivierans, held a informal party on Saturday, Jan. 28, at their new home, 27147 Eastvale Rd., Rolling Hills. Many of their former neighbors attended the affair. The occasion was a visit from Robert Bentley who recently arrived from London, England. He is a close friend of the Nash family. Mr. Bentley is with the Solus-Schall Limited in England and is in this country on Chicago. He left by plane for Chicago over the week end.

Attending the party from Riviera were Messrs. and Mrs. Lee Washington, Lee Flanagan, Theo Linhart, Dave Hurford, Tom O'Malley; from Rolling Hills, Alex Hunt, Dean Carter; from Monterey Park, Robert Steele.
