Shoestring Strip Advisory Committee to Be Installed

Newly elected officers of the Shoestring Strip Advisory Committee will be installed at the regular meeting of that organization scheduled Dec. 4 at Normandie Playground and a bid will be made for a vehicular crossing over the Pacific Electric tracks at 223rd St. It was reported today by Mrs. Harold T. Unander, press chairman.

Herman Eisenbeiss, of 1515 W. 205th St., heads the officer staff which also includes Mrs. Ben Ruskin, vice chairman; C. A. Johnston, second vice chairman; Mrs. James Fryback, secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, treasurer. Directors are Harid T. Unander, Mrs. S. C. Beech, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. E. N. Reese, Mrs. A. A. Venable, Mrs. Paul Williamson, Thomas A. Murphy, Don Heath, and Mrs. George Carrick.

Mrs. Evelyn Venable, who spearheaded the drive which resulted in a pedestrian crossing over the P.E. tracks at 223rd and Normandie, now has set her goal for a vehicular crossing at the same place. She pointed out that 223rd St. now is paved from Western Ave., and that a petition for the paving of Normandie, W. roadway, from Carson St. to 223rd St. was being processed and probably would be completed next summer.

Woman Finds Way to Get Rid of Corn--Hit It With Golf Club

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2288

Irma Jensen never expected to be grateful for being hit by a golf club.

She had been suffering with a soft corn on her small toe for the last three months. Nothing seemed to help, but last Sunday when she accompanied her husband to the golf links someone accidentally hit her foot while trying out their golf club.

Arriving back in her car, she removed her shoe and stocking and discovered that she was minus the corn.

Mrs. Anthony Roza Sr., 18336 Roslin Ave., and son, Tony Jr., have both been having a siege of the stomach flu.

Noted with great interest the new haircut that Danny Villegas, 18344 Roslin Ave., is sporting is a brand new style and he is the first boy in our community to have his hair cut in that new fashion.

A special glazed ham spinning on the spit, turkey roasting in the oven, side-board over-loaded with pumpkin pie, mince meat pie, pfefferusse, mints, salted nuts, chocolates, plus five stove burners with many a tasty tidbit cooking and still another table laden with salads, deviled eggs and pickles.

This made up the menu for Paul W. Herring family, 18312 Roslin Ave.

It's no wonder the persons in attendance were very happy that they had received an invitation to partake of the delicious meal—Shirlene Paultette, John David and Patricia Lynn welcomed David Minear, Mrs. Sarah Hooker, David Reed Hooker, Mrs. Birdie Herring, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright with sons, Wayne and Bill, along with mother Ethel Audrey and father Paul.

Elise Johnson was probably the luckiest mom in the entire community on Thanksgiving.

Teen-age son, Al, treated the entire family to a waffle breakfast on Thanksgiving morning at a local cafe. Then daughter Elaine treated the family to a ham luncheon in Hollywood before attending several radio and television shows.

Father Albert took a hand in the whole affair and treated them all to a roast turkey dinner with dancing between courses. Then, they visited their favorite theater for the evening!

The complete day was all the more thrilling for Elise, for she has been cooking the Thanksgiving turkey for a group of 18 persons for the last 13 years without any assistance.

Anyone in the El Nido School District who is interested in working on the March of Dimes on Jan. 31, can call the El Nido PTA president, Mrs. Elmer Ecker, FR 4-7728. Anyone living in the Perry School District, can contact the Perry PTA president, Mrs. T. R. Jackson, FR 2-4035.

One of these mornings in the near future you may see ladies in their nightwear, possible with cold cream on their faces or curlers on their hair or both, scuffling past your door marching towards the home of Elizabeth Cowie, 4418 W. 182nd Street. Don't get upset for they will be on their way to a "Kidnap Breakfast." I'm sleeping fully dressed for the next two weeks!

November 26 was the date that Therese Schuster, 3954 W. 182nd St., entertained the North Torrance Canasta Lassies. Wanda Hart won first prize of a deck of lovely canasta cards. Enid Runsted took home booby prize.

November 26 was also the date that the energetic homeloving Alondra Homeowner's Assn. enjoyed its annual Christmas pot-luck dinner at the 18821 Thornburgh Ave. home of the Merle Loves.

In attendance and adding frivolity to the gay affair were Mr. and Mrs. Al Karr, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Marks, Mr. and Mrs. James Hertwig, Mr. and Mrs. John De La Haye, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hertzog, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Groat, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brooks, Mrs. Henry Wagner and Mr. Glenn Blake.

After the dinner the president, Maleine Brooks called the meeting to order and everyone offered suggestions.

Claudine, Glenn and Jerry Blake, 18825 Thornburgh Ave. enjoyed their Thanksgiving feast at the home of good friends, Edith and Frank Bailey in Temple City.

Other guests present were Virginia and Frank Bailey Jr. with sons, Stevey and Stuart. Jerry enjoyed an afternoon viewing a couple of movies while the others all took part in an active game of croquet.

Mrs. David Minear of Luray, Kas., Audrey Herring's mother, who visited last summer, has just undergone minor surgery.

Cake and ice cream tasted like manna from heaven to Fluffy Brackett of 182nd St. who was given a surprise birthday party on her birthday, Nov. 17, by friends Mary Smith, Betty Newton, and Mary Hon.

A little tear slid down her cheeks as she opened her lovely gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hon, Mr. and Mrs. W. Newton and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith were in attendance.

Boy Scout Troop 753 and the Catholic Church Boy Scout Troop joined forces to serve breakfast at Border's Market on Saturday, Nov. 24.

Those that were seen really enjoying themselves were the Phil Brooks family of five, Phil, Madeline, Mike, Danny and Vickie, Claudine Blake with son, Jerry, Alice MacKenzie and son, Freddy, and Betty Watkins.

Good luck and get-well-soon wishes are being extended to Mr. J. R. Myers, Los Angeles, father of Alice MacKenzie, of 4332 W. 179th St. He has been suffering a stomach ailment and was confined by his doctor to the Crenshaw Hospital for complete rest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McKenzie, with sons, Freddie and Kenny ate their Thanksgiving dinner at the Little Sir Restaurant.

Although at a different table, so did the Edward Cobb family and the W. J. Moxley family.

Mr. and Mrs. Delno Har, 4247 W. 181st St., are entertaining Mrs. Abbott Gott from Nebraska, along with her two daughters. They are waiting for Captain Gott to return from Japan and then will proceed to North Carolina.

Sincere good wishes to Esther Millsbaugh who caught the bridal bouquet at her brother Merle's wedding last week.

Won't brother and his wife, Betty, be surprised when they reach home after their honeymoon to discover that dozens of idle hands took part in redecorating their lovely new apartment?

November 26 was the date that Therese Schuster, 3954 W. 182nd St., entertained the North Torrance Canasta Lassies. Wanda Hart won first prize of a deck of lovely canasta cards. Enid Runsted took home booby prize.

November 26 was also the date that the energetic homeloving Alondra Homeowner's Assn. enjoyed its annual Christmas pot-luck dinner at the 18821 Thornburgh Ave. home of the Merle Loves.

MAIL GIFTS NOW!

You're going to mail gifts! You want them to arrive on time and in good condition! They probably won't unless you MAIL THEM NOW.

It's Christmas Eve, the last parcel post delivery has been made; the package you expected did not arrive. The spirit of Christmas has been dampened. Is procrastination worth that disappointment? Though mail trains flash across the county they can't deliver something that was not mailed—on time.

Men in our Mail Service work feverishly, sorting, sacking, dispatching, receiving, sorting and delivering. We can lighten their load, avoid disappointments by MAILING GIFTS NOW. (Put an address inside your package. Use tough paper. Tie securely. Print name and address).

The men and women in our Post Office go far beyond "Rules and Regulations"—Let's show our appreciation! Mail 'em Early! Now!
