Eisenbeiss Takes Over As Leader Of Strip Group

Herman Eisenbeiss, 1615 W. 205th St., was installed as chairman of the councilman advisory committee at its regular meeting at Normandie playground Tuesday.

Eisenbeiss succeeded Thomas A. Murphy as head of the advisory group, the only civic organization in the Shoestring Strip area.

Others inducted by Councilman Gibson, who is currently acting mayor of Los Angeles, included Mrs. Ben Ruck, vice chairman; C. A. Johnston, second vice chairman; Mrs. James Fryback, secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, treasurer.

Directors are Harold T. Unander, Thomas A. Murphy, Mrs. A. A. Venable, Don Heath, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mrs. S. C. Beech, Mrs. George Carrick, Mrs. E. N. Reese and Mrs. Paul Williamson. One other vacancy is expected to be filled shortly, according to Eisenbeiss.

One of the major projects to claim attention of the group during the coming year will be a vehicular crossing over the Pacific Electric tracks at 223rd St. Mrs. Venable, who sparked a drive which led to the existing pedestrian crossing at this location, probably will head a committee for the new project.
