Being Good Neighbor Wins Trip To San Francisco for Harrisons

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2288

Lucky June and Bob Harrison, who are the proud parents of six-month-old Bob, Jr., their first-born, were surprised with what they thought was a back-yard wiener bake by all their neighbors upon their second anniversary Nov. 24.

It turned out to be the luckiest day in the world for them for kind-hearted neighbors all chipped in so the couple could spend an entire week in San Francisco.

Hotel accommodations were taken care of as well as train tickets, taxi fare to the train, an orchid for June, and meals on the train. Upon arrival at the hotel they were handed an envelope with $25, eating money!

Even though Bob was out of work for a couple of months not too long ago, he was not idle. After landscaping his own yard and taking care of many odd jobs he had to do in his own home he then wandered over the entire neighborhood doing the same. He absolutely refused any pay whatsoever even though he even had to cut out smoking during this period!

I doubt whether Elizabeth Blackburn will ever forget this Christmas. She claims that every year they purchase a large tree but somehow wait till practically Christmas eve and then the hunt is really on for a nice straight tree!

After bringing one home, father Ed and son John must put an hour or two on straightening it up before it can be decorated, but this year was to be different. She not only ordered her tree the last week in August but paid cash for it with the understanding that the $12 would not be returned. This was fine with her until last week when father drew the ticket at work that will permit him to bring home the six-foot tree completely decorated from his shop.

Then, to top it off, her son John took part on a New York television show and among the gifts was a six-foot Christmas tree to be delivered at his home!

Well, it never rains but it pours.

Happy anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hertz upon their 17th wedding anniversary. Celebration was in the form of steak dinner at a local cafe and a late show.

The Glenn Blakes celebrated their 19th wedding anniversary at the beach with an appropos meal.

If you dye, won't you dye right?

Assurance that mistakes can be made was given me by Ella and helpful hubby Joe Ferguson. While she was dyeing her bedspread and spread rug dark green, Joe was dyeing curtains to match. They were expensive curtains, too. They don't know what happened but Ella came up with a very attractive bedspread and rug while hubby, who had hung up the curtains in the dark garage, ended up with maroon curtains!

Things are very quiet around the Ferguson homestead and even 3-year-old Gordon is being a perfect little gentleman these days!

San Diego was the destination.

tion of the Vernon Burches for an interesting trip.

Tired, but happy, Helen is all set for another jaunt with her husband Vernon who is up and around after his serious siege in the hospital.

Providing that tender smile on the lips of charming Marge and Bob Casteel is the fact that the stork wings are flapping in their direction.

Billy Post of Burlin Ave. and Wayne Wright of Roslin Ave. are the latest to have hosted teen-age parties where there is music, loud and strong, dancing galore, and much eating!

If someone has been wondering why Mildred Adams' terrier was put out our last rainy day, I can clear up the mystery.

After saving finances for a whole month to buy a three-pound box of See's candy, Mildred found the perfect day to curl up with her candy and a book. After a trip to the kitchen to answer the phone the terrier, Sweetie, discovered he liked that kind of candy, too. She not only found her candy box empty but also chocolate mashed into her beige rug!

With a sigh of relief I can truthfully say that we do not have a shortage of hobby pins, old slippers or cold cream in our neighborhood.

Proof of this was last Tuesday when many El Nido PTA members and friends ran to their doors to discover a "breakfast kidnapper" awaiting to whisk them to their hideout, the A. B. Cowie homestead!

A financial gain as well as loads of fun was the object of the project. It proved successful under the direction of Mrs. D. Chadwick, ways and means chairman.

Happy birthday wishes were extended to teen-ager Marcia Dexter at her 16th birthday celebration when she entered her bedroom after returning from the grocery store and discovered 11 of her favorite girl friends there.

Hamburgers, cokes, ice cream and cake, combined with a slumber party, proved to be a very happy occasion for young Marcia and those in attendance, but her father still insists someone slept on the chandelier!

A bouquet of orchids should go to Mrs. Harold Johnson and Mrs. Andrew McNeess as well as to their husbands.

Even though these ladies do not have any relatives in the service, they got together to bake fruitcakes, cookies and candy and packed eight beautiful boxes with an interesting letter enclosed. Their husbands tied them up and addressed them. Come Christmas day, eight lonely fellows can look forward to receiving them overseas.

Mildred Westmoreland and Sally Wisdom hosted a "come-as-you-are bingo game hour" recently with Enid Runsted, Gloria Hernandez, Lois Chadwick, Sarah Hooker and Vera Wright in attendance.

Four floating prizes made their way to everyone's corner before becoming the permanent prize of Sarah Hooker, Gloria Hernandez and Enid Runsted with two of them.

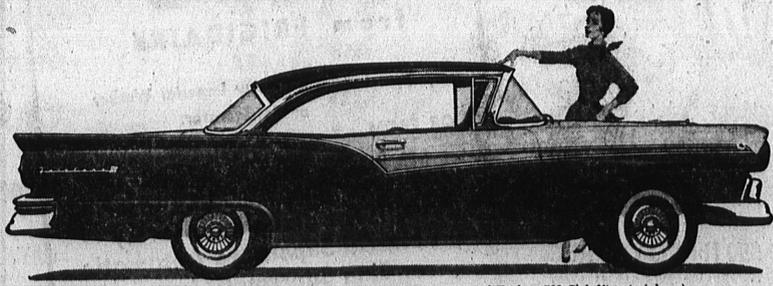

Chili beans, chocolate cupcakes and coffee were served at the conclusion of the game.

Chanced to glimpse Audrey Herring, 18312 Roslin Ave., on her way to the dentist's office. She had been a victim of a terrific toothache for a week, but due to her face being twice its normal size the dentist could not work on her tooth.

If you are interested in helping boys get a camping trip as well as buying your Christmas tree — killing two birds with one stone — then run (do not walk) to the Scout Troop 987 Christmas tree stand which will decorate the corner of 190th St. and Fisk, just one block off of Hawthorne Blvd.

Get-well wishes are being extended to Peggy LeFrancois, 1002 Firmona Ave., since she broke her leg. She says she sat on her foot and broke it!

DOWNTOWN TORRANCE

The exciting Ford Fairlane 500 Club Victoria (above)—over 17 feet long—is one of two new, bigger Ford sizes this year.

If you think it looks new... wait till you drive it!

...For there's where Ford's newness really pays off
...In melting mountains...In smoothing the humps
...In straightening the curves

You can see that Ford's longer, lower Sculptured Look makes other cars look downright old-fashioned. But the part you can't see—the new "Inner Ford"—is what shows its stuff when you drive a Ford. It's revolutionary from the wheels up! And it feels it.

Ford's wider frame lets you sit sweet and low. And Ford's new front suspension, rear springs and new easy handling are part of the scheme to make you think every road is cloud-smooth.

The magic touch of the new Ford power plants makes mountains disappear. What looks like uphill feels like downhill. You get this surging power in a wide choice of Silver Anniversary V-8 engines. Or choose Ford's Mileage Maker Six, the most powerful Six in the low-price field.

There's magic in Ford's price tag, too! You won't believe this big new Ford is still priced Ford-low. But it is. Come in and test its magic. It's a real "Wizard of Ah-h-h-h!"
