Mr., Mrs. Vern Metro Now On a Southern Honeymoon

On a honeymoon in Hot Springs, Ark., are Mr. and Mrs. Vern Harold Metro, whose wedding was a beautiful event of last Friday evening, Dec. 14, at 8 p.m. in the Narbonne Baptist Church. Mrs. Metro is the former Delores Orrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Orrell, 2369 248th St., Lomita. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Metro of Compton.

The bride, who walked to the altar on the arm of her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace and net over satin. The fitted bodice had a mandarin collar and long sleeves. Panels of the lace ornamented the front and back of the skirt. The same lace edged the illusion veil and the bride carried two white orchids atop a white Bible.

Miss Darlene Correll was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a pale green taffeta gown with a net overskirt and carried a cascade of yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Misses Sharon Chaddock, Karene Hamada, Sally Hamada and Nancy Drake. They were in blue and pink taffeta ballerina length gowns and carried contrasting pink and blue carnations.

Helen Wells in pink taffeta, as flower girl, carried a white basket filled with pink and blue carnations. On a lace-trimmed white satin pillow, Chester Wayne Weston brought the rings to the altar.

Arlie D. Watkins stood as best man and ushers were Grady Orrell, Morris Coleman, Malan Coleman and Bill Adams.

The Rev. Robert A. Wells conducted the double ring ceremony.

Miss Marlene Cornthwaite played the wedding marches and accompanied Mrs. Lola Ruggin who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

In charge of the guest book was Joan Reideif. A reception was held in the church social hall.

The bride is a junior at Narbonne High school and the bridegroom was graduated from St. Agnes High.

Upon their return they will be at home at 24716 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita.

PORTLAND GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Sears of Portland, Ore., have returned to their home after spending a week here with Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears, 1635 Post Ave.

MRS. DAVID MORSE HAGTHROP (Portrait by Seaman)
... On Her Wedding Day

Shearer-Hagthrop Rites Are Read in Christmas Setting

In keeping with the holiday season a beautiful red and white color theme was used in the afternoon ceremony last Saturday at 3 p.m. at the First Methodist Church when Miss Mary Ann Shearer, made her marriage promises to David Morse Hagthrop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Hagthrop of Redondo Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Shearer, 2816 Gramercy Ave., are the parents of the bride.

As the 150 guests gathered to witness the wedding, Mrs. Ruth White, at the organ, played nuptial music and accompanied Everett Anderson who sang "At Dawning," "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Shearer escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was of white chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin. The fitted bodice had a Queen Anne collar and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was waltz length. A tiara held the fingertip veil and the bride carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Phyllis Maxwell of Santa Barbara was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Mary Hagthrop and Miss Joy Pearman. All wore white lace gowns over taffeta and small white fur hats. Their bouquets were of red carnations and holly sprigs.

Melvin E. Johnson was best man and ushers were Marvin Maxwell, and Robert Hagthrop.

The Rev. Donald Shelby officiated at the marriage rites. A reception was held in the church parlors and Miss Marilyn Edwards registered the guests.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1954, while the bridegroom was graduated the same year from Fremont High School. They both attended El Camino College.
