Mothers Club Elects New Officers

Mrs. Henry Wagner was elected president of the Scout Mothers' Club of Boy Scout Troop 753 at the Dec. 12 meeting held at the home of Mrs. Sol Moschel. She will succeed Mrs. Kenneth McVey. Mrs. William Capps and Mrs. Raymond Andicocha were re-elected vice president and treasurer. The new secretary will be Mrs. A. L. McKenzie. At the same meeting plans were completed for the annual Christmas party for the boys. The Scout Mothers' Christmas party for the Boy Scouts was a potluck supper held on Friday, Dec. 14, at the Elks hall in Torrance. All members of the Scout families were invited. Mrs. George Corbett was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements and table decorations. Adding to the holiday spirit was a Christmas tree decorated by Mrs. Raymond Andicocha and Mrs. Kenneth McVey.

At the December meeting of the Scout Mothers' Club members wrapped gifts for each of the Boy Scouts. These were presented at the Christmas party, and Mrs. Roy Dohner and Mrs. A. L. McKenzie, on behalf of the Mothers' Club, presented gift certificates to Milt Huber and Marvin Shockley to be used for the purchase of scoutmasters' uniforms.

Mrs. Mary Bellany, a visitor from Ohio, and Mrs. Kenneth Buman, a new Scout Mother, were introduced to the Mothers' Club at their meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a gift exchange concluded the program. The next meeting of the Scout Mothers' Club of Troop 753 will be held on Jan. 9, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Milton Damerow, 18701 Cranbrook Ave.

Meadow Park

Executive board of the Meadow Park PTA held its regular meeting on Dec. 5. Mrs. J. T. Anagnost, president opened the meeting at 7:40 p.m. Mrs. R. M. Wood, library chairman, reported that progress on the library has reached the point where early in 1957 the library can be in operation. Mrs. R. M. Wood and her committee have held three work shops and have collected and processed 300 books.

The safety chairman, Mrs. R. Bardick, reported that bids are in on the signal at 230th St. and work should start around Christmas.

The "On the School Grounds Safety Program" that Mrs. R. Bardick has been working on will go in force when the new school is in operation in January 1957.

A new chairmanship was formed. The new art chairman will be R. Bardick.

Members of the board will be on hand at the next regular PTA meeting to welcome all new people wishing to attend the meeting and Christmas program.

The program will be presented by the children of Meadow Park. Baby sitting will be furnished and refreshments for both children and adults will be provided, under the direction of the hospitality chairman, Mrs. F. Tuttle. Meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

DELTA ALUMNAE HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

South Bay Alumnae of Delta Zeta met the home of Miss Barbara Lemke, in Los Angeles on Wednesday evening, for their annual Christmas party. Members brought their favorite goodies for refreshments, together with the recipes for making them. The climax of the evening was the gift exchange.

For the January meeting Mrs. George Furtado has invited a foreign exchange student from El Camino College, who will relate highlights of his experiences here and in his homeland.
