

ELLINWOOD

Showers (Baby Variety) Held For Mmes. Bullington, Charles

By MERLA WILSON FR 5-7270 Several showers were given the past week in anticipation of new arrivals.

Muriel O'Melia and Ruth Williams were hostesses at a shower in honor of Virginia Bullington last Thursday at the Williams home, 4828 Green Meadows Ave.

On hand to enjoy the evening were La Verne Rippel, Edith Mandish, Bonnie Meyer, Millie La Mour, Rosemary Walker, Myrtho Cardenas, Bea Clary, May McElroy, Peggy Everett, Elaine Daly, Margaret Darnall, Dora Furr, Jo-Ann Sheehan, Ethel Harris, Helen Kirkbride, and Sue Austin.

Margie Charles was honored with a baby shower recently at the home of Grace Greenwood, 5425 Riviera Way.

The guests who participated in the evening's entertainment were Pat Fannon, Mary Freeland, Shirley Hansen, Bobbie Dooling, Jessie Stefanov, Sharon Stendel, Caroline Cameron, Norma Smith, and Mrs. Ben Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Greenwood from Sweethome, Ore., are here for six weeks to visit the William B. Greenwoods. They are spending their time sight-seeing and enjoying the companionship of their grandchildren.

Ellinwoodites who have just returned from a trip to the East are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Melia and their two sons, Ronnie and Randy.

Wallie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Melia, live in Dalton, Mass., and the local family spent most of the time visiting friends and relatives there. Highlights of the vacation for the adults were the days spent in New York City, Winston-Salem, N. C., and Washington, D. C., but for the youngsters, sledding in the snow was the most memorable pleasure of the entire vacation.

Friday morning found Ruth

Chedotte and Nellie La Motte up bright and early gathering neighborhood women for a kidnap breakfast.

The Chedotte residence at 5050 Newton St. was really buzzing when the "prisoners" arrived. There was Lucille Criff, Taffy Shackelford, Nancy Gefner, Dottie Hill, Margie Zwart, La Verne Scott, Arlene Barg, Nellie and Ruth and a combined total of 14 children, all of whom began the day with coffee, milk, and doughnuts.

A "bon voyage" party was given for Chief and Mrs. Walter Liechty on Friday evening at the home of Dick and Verne Rippel.

Walt is in the United States Navy and is being transferred to the U. S. Embassy in Paris, France. His wife Reta, and two children, Joan and Raymond, will be with him there for approximately two or three years.

The immediate neighbors who came to wish them a pleasant stay were Sherman and Ethel Harris, Myrtho and Pancho Cardenas, Don and Peggy Everett, Mike and Edith Mandish, Don and Ruth Williams, Mike and May McElroy, and Virginia and Robert Bullington.

The Liechty's have leased their home here in anticipation of their return after Walt's European duty.

A warm greeting to new residents, Mrs. Lucille Knop and her children, Mary-Ann and Bobbie, who have moved to 4812 Green Meadows Ave.

Don't forget that tonight is the Mother's March for funds to fight polio. Our area captain, Mrs. Carl Johnson, asks that we all give whatever we can, no matter how small. She has all her mothers ready so look for these women when they call at your door.
