

North High Gives Annual Variety Show

North High School's second annual variety show, "Through the Years," sponsored by the Girls' League, was presented Jan. 24 and 26 in the high school cafeteria.

The program, which chronicled the trends in entertainment from vaudeville to progressive jazz and Elvis Presley, highlighted such musical numbers as "Only a Bird in a Gilded Cage," sung by Anne Kirner; "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" by Jenny Alexander; and "Basin Street Blues," featuring Jeannie Taylor.

Demonstrating the trends in dance were Nancy Ewing and Marilyn Jordan doing the Charleston to the Dixieland Jazz Band and Julann Odwald in a boogie-woogie ballet.

In a more modern vein was "Big D" by Ariel Bybee, Barbara Cage and Marilyn Jordan and "On the Street Where You Live" by accordionist Gary Glance. "Bernie's Tune," done progressively, and an Elvis Presley demonstration by faculty members Bernard Hoefler and Robert Ellsworth climaxed the show.

City Lauded For City of Hope Funds

Torrance residents who participated in the third annual Christmas Parade of Towns, benefitting the children's wing at the City of Hope, have to date chalked up a total of $2891, according to "Godparents" Glen Koger and Mrs. John Beeman, who headed the local effort.

Objective of the October-December Southland campaign was to raise funds to provide specific days of care for leukemia youngsters at the free and nonsectarian Medical Center in Duarte. Based on a minimum cost of $40 per day for each child suffering from this malignancy, the local total represented approximately 67 days of patient care.

'Snatch' Racket Pays Dividend To PTA, Proves Homes Not Safe

By BILLIE ROBERTSON
FA 8-7385

You're not safe in your bed if you belong to the PTA. The PTA constitution provides that a woman's home is only her castle until the ways and means chairman slates a surprise kidnap breakfast.

Even the school principal, Mrs. Elizabeth Danky, was among 80 whom 223rd Street PTA officials captured and held for refreshments at Normandale Recreation Center.

Mrs. Francis Anania, Mrs. Gene LeRoy and Mrs. George LaMontagne were co-hostesses aided and abetted in making off with victims by Mmes. Edward Kollmeyer, Paul Ferrara, Carl Laursen, Robert Dossey, Donald Hubbard, Martin Swisher, A. A. Venable, L. W. Baker, Ray Carrick, James Gonderman, Virgil Johnson, Oren Deuschle, Fred Harvey, Harold Muth, David Goolsby, Robert Bree, Wallace McRay, Paul Kelso, and Howard Salveter.

The social crime was not confined to 223rd Street unit. Halldale PTA members were also routed from their households.

No one will appeal the case, however, for the hilarity provided by arrivals in all manner of morning attire exonerated the kidnapers.

Mrs. Edward Clark, Mrs. Harry Hill, and Mrs. Paul Ferrara conducted the white elephant sale. Proceeds will augment a fund for the honorary life membership. The proceeds realized from the sale were $84.15.

Miss Glenda Jeannette Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Estes, 20804 S. Western Ave., was married Saturday, Jan. 3, to Kenneth Charles Scott, Rev. Robert Colburn officiated in the double ring ceremony performed at the Garfield Baptist Church, North Long Beach.

The bride, dressed in a chic white wool dress with a matching full length coat, white satin hat and veil, was given away in marriage by her father. She carried a white prayer book complemented with white orchids.

Mrs. Lavon Long, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore an aqua knit suit with pink accessories and carried pink carnations. Jerry Scott, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Northrop Recreation Club, Hawthorne, before the couple left for a honeymoon in northern California and Las Vegas.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School in 1954 and the groom graduated from Winston-Salem High School, North Carolina. He is presently employed at North American Aviation. New residence of the couple is 20804 S. Western Ave.

A great shock was felt in this area on Monday when we were told of the death of George Wesley Graham. We have known George for several years and a better friend and neighbor will be hard to find.

George died after being in the hospital for five weeks. He has been a resident of the Strip for 10 years and lived at 22034 S. Denker with his wife, Betty, and children, Mickey and Larry.

George was an area Scout leader for several years. He was well liked by everyone who knew him. He was vice-president of Union 1414, Steel Workers of America. He was also a member of the Redondo Beach Elks Club, No. 1378. He was a veteran of World War II.

Funeral services were held at Halverson-Leavell Mortuary on Thursday morning. Burial was at the Green Hills Memorial Park.

The Jane Addams Club, top service group at Narbonne High School, held a tea to install new members and officers. Club members are 12th graders and selected on recommendation of faculty members.

Mrs. Ruth Vane, girls' vice-principal, is club sponsor. Our own Judy Wolf is the new president and is replacing the outgoing president, Joan Birchler. Other officers are Diane Kennedy, vice president; Carol Matthew, secretary; Sharon Hartman, treasurer; and Phyllis Swanson, historian.

Arrangements are presently being made to provide bus transportation for students transferring from Peary Junior High School to the new Stephen M. White Junior High School who live outside the 2½-mile minimum radius.

So stated Aubry Davis, in charge of transportation for the Los Angeles city school district. Davis said that the district is trying to make arrangements with Gardena for bus transportation.

Children affected were those living on 203rd St., 204th St., 205th and 206th Sts. between Western and Harvard; on Harvard from 206th St. north to the boundary line; and on 203rd St. between Denker and Western.

Davis thinks that arrangements will be ready in time for the start of the semester.

The many people were very kind and brought many lovely gifts that we appreciated very much. A buffet supper was served at midnight to 50 people.

The next meeting of the Shoestring Strip advisory board will be on Feb. 5 at the Recreation Center. Please mark this date on your calendar as it's quite an important meeting.

Those living under the 2½-mile limit will have to walk to school.

Last Friday I was busy in the house when all of a sudden a fire truck whizzed past my home. I hurriedly got in my car and followed. When I went around the corner I could see the excitement on the corner of Denker and 221st St.

In reaching the corner I could see the trouble. A car was on fire, or I should say it had been on fire. The owner of the car was Mr. H. McNabb, who lives on the corner of 221st. He had been working on the car and had gone in the house for lunch. When he returned to work on the car he discovered the motor was on fire. By the quick thinking of Mr. McNabb and his niece they had the fire out before the fire truck arrived.

So very sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crafton of 1640 213th St. They have been ill for quite some time but are able to be up and around a little now. Just continue to improve, you two wonderful people.

The regular meeting of the Volunteers for Children was held at the home of Mrs. Marguerite McAllister at 1932 W. 226th St.

The first part of the meeting was the business of the evening. We had a new member who was introduced. She was Mary Lou Coselli, a very lovely person.

Our president, Virginia Stoddard, presided at the meeting and the first announcement made for the evening was that North American Due Club had donated $1000 to the organization for equipment for the children of the Harbor General Hospital. This will be as such for portable TV's, projector, table and material for more bed clothing.

A radio and phonograph combination was given to the group and was placed in the little children's ward.

The Torrance Kiwanians toured the hospital and remarked on the splendid job that the Volunteers were doing. There is still more women needed to give the children "tender, loving care." That is the motto of the group of women who volunteer hours which could be spent in leisure. These women give the little ones care that only a mother can give a child.

The nomination of officers will be held in February and the nominating chairman is Mildred Luboff.

The Gardena Kiwanis donated the locks for the toy chest and the new toys purchased by the Volunteers at Christmas time will be placed in the chest soon. The new toy chairman is Virginia Jones.

It was decided that we would acknowledge the children's birthdays. Mrs. Moorehart was chosen to be the birthday chairman. The children will receive gifts from the organization.

Mrs. McAllister, who is our director at the hospital, reviewed the rules and regulations for a volunteer and mentioned that we would have an annual meeting once a year from now on to receive our pins and certificates. This is to be held at the hospital.

After a thoroughly enjoyable evening meeting, refreshments were served by the hostesses to 40 women.

We officially warmed our new home last Saturday evening. Several friends and neighbors dropped in to help us. We were very pleased to have them and enjoyed their visit.

The many people were very kind and brought many lovely gifts that we appreciated very much. A buffet supper was served at midnight to 50 people.

The next meeting of the Shoestring Strip advisory board will be on Feb. 5 at the Recreation Center. Please mark this date on your calendar as it's quite an important meeting.
