Kiyadawe Camp Fire Group Sees New Fashions, Installs Officers

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 6-0788

The Kiyadawe group of Campfire Girls entertained with a tea and fashion show at the home of Mrs. L. Hubert. Skirts and playsets were fashioned by the girls under the chairmanship of Kay Hamilton. During the tea a play showing the events in the daily life of a teacher was presented by the members. Refreshments of hors d'oeuvres, tea, sandwiches, pressed cookies, coffee and punch were served. Additional treats were set out. Special guests were teachers from Narbonne Junior High School and one from Harbor City Elementary School. Mothers present were Helen Glegghorn, Kiyadawe leader; Mrs. Robert Rohl, Harriet Goodell, and Cynthia Keyes, executive director of the Los Angeles Campfire Girl groups.

Girls modeling in the fashion show and appearing in the play were Diana Goodell, Judy Glegghorn, Virginia Hubert, Ann Rohl, Diane Glegghorn, Terry Hamilton, and Laura Kaufman. In a meeting prior to the tea the girls elected new officers. Diana Goodell was elected president. Judy Glegghorn is vice president; Loraine Gregory, secretary; Ann Rohl, treasurer; Terry Hamilton, scribe; Laura Kaufman and Diane Glegghorn, telephone committee.

Mrs. Wanda Coggins presented the subject topics in keeping with the "Islands of Our Community" theme before the members of the Women's Society Christian Service of the Wayside Chapel. Esther Anderson spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency." Mrs. Chauncey Tillman talked on her volunteer work with the elderly people at Harbor General Hospital. Mrs. Max Shatz talked on the association of the different races living together in one community.

The voices of Jimmy Flagg, Bob Malcom Jr. and Linda Welsh were heard on a tape recorder doing a skit depicting youngsters planning to "borrow" a car for a ride. Following the recording a Narbonne High student quartet sang several numbers.

Circle 6, under the chairmanship of Hattie Schroeder, was hostess for the luncheon. In a recent election the Vel-De-Nez Music and Record Club re-elected Inez Brumbelow as president.

Other officers are Verna Flynn, vice president; Evelyn Pearson, secretary; Alice Parker, treasurer; Henry Weaver, publicity; Samuel King, photographer; Evelyn Pearson, photographer's assistant; Betty Lee, hospitality. Verna Flynn will be accompanist; Janet Pearson, her assistant. John Flynn and Ted Doll will do the duties of masters of ceremony and stage managers. On the refreshment committee are Mae English and Dorothy Allen.

"Eyes in the Sky" was the theme for the monthly pack meeting of Cub Scout Pack 255-C. In keeping with the theme, boys in Den 2 presented a skit, "Space Ship Ride to the Moon." Appearing under the direction of Corrine Hansen were Emmette Foster, Eddy Hansen, Steven Cauldwell, Butch Bradshaw, Ricky Scott.

Cubmaster Glenn Scrivner presented awards to the following boys: Dennis Jeppsen, wolf denner; Robby Geurin, wolf; David Scrivner, wolf and assistant denner; Tony Stowe, wolf, gold and silver arrow.

Pigsley Gets 15-Year Pin for Douglas Work

W. R. Pigsley, 3144 W. 179th St., has been presented with a gold pin commemorating 15 years' service with Douglas Aircraft Co. It was announced by T. E. Springer, vice president-general manager of the company's El Segundo division.

Pigsley is part of the Douglas El Segundo team of approximately 24,000 people currently producing high performance military aircraft for the U. S. Navy, including the A3D Skywarrior, A4D Skyhawk, F4D Skyray, F5D Sky-lancer, and the AD Skyraider series.

Bloodmobile Slated Here Next Monday

The first bloodmobile for the Torrance-Lomita area for 1957 will be located at the Torrance Civic Auditorium next Monday, according to Mrs. Gordon Jones, blood program chairman.

The hours will be from 3 to 7:30 p.m. and all active participating groups have been notified. Cards will be in the mail this week for those individuals who wish an appointment.

Prospective new donors may call the Torrance office at FAirfax 8-0510 for appointment and additional information. Co-chairmen Mrs. William Cochran and Mrs. David McMillan will also accept appointment scheduling by telephoning their home phones.

Elks Plan Active Program During Month of February

A busy month of activities will be held at the Lodge halls, 1951 W. Carson St., on Saturday night, Feb. 16. Ray King will be in charge of the music, and "sometime during the evening our birthday cake will be cut," dance committee report.

Wednesday night, Feb. 20, will be Turnabout Night, with a dinner, short lodge session, then a program arranged by Ladies of the Elks. Reservations must be made by Feb. 15.

The following Wednesday night, Feb. 13, the Elks will be filled in on the workings of the Nike, the sleek, deadly guided missiles which are set up to guard the Southland. Pat Reynolds of Pacific Telephone will discuss the defense weapon which was designed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories and Douglas Aircraft.

The second anniversary ball will be held at the Lodge halls, 1951 W. Carson St., on Saturday night, Feb. 16. Ray King will be in charge of the music, and "sometime during the evening our birthday cake will be cut," dance committee report.

At the final session of the month, Feb. 27, new members will be initiated, and the Piggy Banks collected. The lodge's Piggy Banks are used to collect funds to fight cerebral palsy, a major Elks project.
