

Sweetheart Ball Set for Saturday Eve

A "Sweetheart Ball" will be given Saturday evening, Feb. 9, at the Club Alondra, 16411 Prairie Ave., Lawndale, by the Phi Phi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. An orchestra will provide music for dancing from 9:30 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. The event is to be semi-formal and all proceeds from this dance will be donated to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The Valentine theme will be carried out in table decorations. The highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the Queen of the Sweetheart's

Ball, Mrs. Donald A. Bromley. Mrs. Bromley was chosen by the chapter to compete with young women from all over the word to become the Valentine Girl on the cover of the international magazine, "The Torch." The Queen will step through a huge old-fashioned red and white heart and will be crowned by B. J. Garrison. General chairman of this event is Miss Dorothy Stearns and members heading the various committees are Mmes. Gene Combs, Donald Doore, Thayne Connell, Robert Grommet, Stephen Nicely, and Miss Rosemary Andrews. Mistress of Ceremonies will be the

MRS. RICHARDT H. F. GEBAUER, JR.
... Makes Wedding Promises

Silver-Gebauer Rites Climax El Camino Campus Romance

In a 9 o'clock nuptial mass on Jan. 26 at the St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church, Miss Valerie Michelle Silver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Silver, 1411 Acacia Ave., became the bride of Richardt Heinrich Peodore Gebauer, Jr., of Redondo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richardt H. E. Gebauer of Pago Pago, American Samoa, and San Francisco.

Fuchsia Unit Dinner Meet Slated Feb 12

The romance for this young couple began on the El Camino campus where the bridegroom is an exchange student.

For her wedding, the bride wore an embossed white cotton gown. Her bridal veil was held by a tiara and she carried a white prayer book topped by a gardenia and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ralph Bezanon served as the matron of honor. She wore white lace over pink taffeta and carried a white orchid nosegay.

August B. Betham served as the best man. The Rev. Tepe officiated at the nuptial ceremony and mass which took place at the altar decorated with red and gold anthurium flower here from Hawaii.

After the marriage, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer St. Martin on Beach Ave. Mrs. St. Martin is the god-mother of the bride. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Sprout, Mrs. Kurt Jeff and Mrs. Orville Duncan.

The newlyweds are now at home at 385 Obispo, Long Beach. The bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1954, and received her AA degree from El Camino in 1956. She is now working on her teaching credentials at Long Beach State College.

Mrs. Gebauer has taught the primary department and kindergarten at the St. Andrew's Church school for the past five years. At El Camino, she was a member of the Beta Sigma cabinet, International cabinet and Alpha Gamma Sigma sorority.

Mr. Gebauer is a graduate of the St. Louis College in Honolulu. He is now a student at El Camino and has served as president of the International Club for two years. He is a member of the UIA and is sponsored socially by Rotary International.

Last Wednesday evening, the new Mrs. Gebauer was complimented at a shower given by Mrs. Lola Sobadi at her home, 15316 Faysmith with Mrs. Jessica Jelf as co-hostess. Attending were Mmes. Marjorie Richards, Kanstors, Lorraine Cullen, Melba Sprout, Alicia St. Martin, Jessica Jelf, Eilene Morrison, Rosemary Best, Billie Bundy, Dave Aridge, Betty Goddard, Lucy Ann Baker, Lois Krauser and Hugh Percy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tripp, 5206 Lillian, are entertaining as their houseguests Dr. and Mrs. Alwin Miller and their three children who will leave the latter part of next week for Jogyakarta, Indonesia, where they will reside for the next 26 months.

Dr. Miller, who has been a professor of business in Southern Oregon College, goes to Indonesia in the capacity of consultant to the minister of education to set up business teacher training in the schools of higher learning.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Miller attended UCLA.
