

ROLL-UP TUBES
The first collapsible tube was patented in 1841 by James Rand, an American. Aluminum collapsible tubes were first made in the U. S. in 1920.

SPECIAL GAUZE
Gauze made of platinum-rhodium alloy is the catalyst for production of nitric acid, which is a basic material in the explosives industry.

Teenagers from the seventh grade up will swing to recorded music tomorrow evening at Carl Steele School in the regular Teen Dance sponsored by the Southwest Park Civic Assn. Recorded music will be filling the auditorium from 7:30 p.m. until 10, according to sponsors. Refreshments and prizes will round out the evening of fun for the young set.

GOOD PLANNING!

It's a wonderful feeling to know you have something to fall back on in case of an emergency. And if it's a financial emergency, what could be a better "buffer" than a savings account at our bank! When you save at Bank of America, you now get 3 per cent interest plus extra safety, convenience and availability for your money. In addition, you build up a valuable statewide credit standing when you save at B of A. So why not open your savings account at our bank soon? Remember—you'll feel better with that "buffer" in our bank!

RIDDLE:

What can you buy for only $1.50 that will pay ten of your bills?

SOLUTION: A Bank of America Tenplan checking account! With this special checking account, you can buy a book of ten checks for $1.50—and you don't have to keep your balance above any set minimum amount. It's ideal for you if you write only a few checks each month. Of course, a regular checking account is more practical if you write many checks. But no matter which type Bank of America checking account you have—Tenplan or regular—you'll find it saves you time, saves you money and helps you manage your financial affairs more easily and efficiently. How about opening one soon?

B of A Quiz Corner

DID YOU KNOW THAT our bank offers you a total of more than 50 different banking services—many of them unique with Bank of America? Whatever your banking needs—large or small, business or personal—you will find us ready to meet them with the prompt, friendly service Californians always expect at Bank of America.

Burial was in Hillside Memorial Park, Inglewood. She lived in San Pedro. Survivors included her husband, Harry; son, Bert, Inglewood; and two daughters, Mrs. Stenberg and Mrs. Sybil Schwartz, San Pedro.

Thieves Get Lady's Purse

Two men who entered Harriett's Dress Shop, 24607 Normandie Ave., Lomita, took her purse and threw her to the floor when she resisted, Vesta Combs told sheriff's deputies Monday.

Mrs. Combs said the pair entered her shop and one of them tried to open the cash drawer. She moved to stop him and he grabbed her purse and started out the door. When she gave chase, the other man threw her to the floor. The purse contained about $235, including money collected for the March of Dimes, she said. The men fled into a parking lot across the street, she said.

Q. What household servant still works for just pennies a day?

A. Electricity

"EVEN THOUGH prices and wages have steadily gone up and up," explains Reddy Kilowatt, "a kilowatt hour of electricity costs less today than 20 years ago." (Bigger bill? That's because you're using more and living better electrically.) Small wonder electricity is your biggest bargain in modern living.
