

IN THE SPRING... milady's thoughts turn to the fabulous new fashions, their colors, materials and designs. With this in mind, Court of Our Lady Victory, Catholic Daughters, will stage their annual fashion show on Wednesday evening, Feb. 26, at 8 p.m. at the Plush Horse in Hollywood Riviera. Wearing some of the new fashions to be shown and enjoying their coffee as they look over the evening's program are, from left, Mrs. Ernest H. Russell, Mrs. Tony A. Baldwin, and Mrs. Matt Brunning.

Redondo Catholic Daughters Stage Annual Fashion Show

Once again the time has come for Milady to dream and plan for that exciting new spring wardrobe, and on Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 8 p.m. at the Plush Horse in Hollywood Riviera Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America will present a collection of the "Dream-stuff" of the fashion trends in their 11th annual fashion show.

Mrs. John Condon has announced that this year the Court has asked the owner of a fashion shop in Redondo to make a selection from the infinite variety available this spring for a showing to be called "Fashions for You."

General chairman, Mrs. Wesley Muzik reports that the prizes for the affair will follow the fashion trend, too... hats, bags and gloves for the new outfit.

Members of the Court selected to show the new fashions will be: Miss Peggy Glaser modeling teen-age styles and Mmes. Howard Baldwin, Joseph Lord, Matt Brunning, Frank West, Will Zenz, Ernest Russell and Teresa Faten will show adult styles. Mrs. Emil Huskamp will be chairman of this group.

Mrs. Agnes Wright will be co-chairman with Mrs. Muxik. Other chairmen are: decorations, Mrs. Charles Neimoeiler; prizes, Mrs. Gilbert Rudd; tickets, Mrs. Robert Murgrew; reservations, Mrs. Jack Glaser; hostess, Mrs. Edmund Chandlee; publicity, Mrs. Lyle Peters; fashion coordinator, Mrs. Fine and entertainment, Mack Clarke.

Reservations are limited but may still be obtained from any of the above committee members.

CORNSTOMPERS' DANCE SATURDAY

Cornstompers Square Dance group will stage its first dance under the direction of the new officers Saturday evening at 8:30 p.m. at the Civic Auditorium, 1347 El Prado. Gerald Reeser will be the caller. New presidents of the group are Mr. and Mrs. Cleto Ferrero.

RETURNS HOME

Wives Club To Hear Talk By Teacher

"Interior Decoration and Home Budgeting" will be the subject when Miss Marjorie Burrill addresses members of the El Camino College Faculty Wives' Club tonight at 8 p.m. in the Faculty Lounge.

Miss Burrill, a resident of Inglewood, is a member of the homemaking instructional staff at the college and taught art and allied subjects at Santa Ana and in Redlands before joining the El Camino College faculty.

Refreshment chairman of the evening's program is Mrs. Leo M. Christian of Torrance. Mrs. W. A. Kamrath of Redondo Beach, vice president of the group, will introduce the speaker of the evening.

Mrs. Gene Timpe of Hawthorne is president of the club.

WEEKEND HERE

Miss Mickey Van Deventer, who attended the Mortar Board convention at UCLA last Saturday came to Torrance for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer before returning to Redlands University.

June Zilliox Married to Jack Stassin

In a ceremony at 8 p.m. on Jan. 19 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Haynes, Miss June Zilliox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Zilliox, 2806 Gramercy, became the bride of Jack Stassin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stassin, 2843 Alberta Ave.

The bride wore a white chiffon gown with a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations atop a small white Bible.

Mrs. Jean Williams, wearing a pale semi-formal and carrying pink and white carnations, was her sister's attendant. Ray Luppy served as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. A reception followed the marriage ceremony.

Both of the young people are graduates of Torrance High School. They are now at home at 2224 Cabrillo Ave.

Las Madrecitas Benefit To Feature Vacation Fashions

Vacation styles will be previewed at the "Fashion Takes a Holiday" benefit fashion show luncheon to be given by Las Madrecitas at the San Pedro Hacienda on March 28. Las Madrecitas is the auxiliary of Crippled Children's Guild of Orthopedic Hospital.

Fashions will be presented by a Palos Verdes shop, Helen Perry, professional fashion coordinator and model, will act as commentator and six professional models will be featured.

Arts-Crafts

Members of the club have continued to grow each year, finally reaching a membership of 25 and then being closed to new members until a vacancy occurs. Two charter members, Maybel Banks and Hazel Ward, are still active. The club meets on the third Friday of each month in the various members' homes and some activity is conducted in connection with arts and crafts.

Many beautiful articles have been made in leather, ceramics, porcelain, copper, painting, and all forms of hand work. Various instructors have visited the club, giving group demonstrations on different work. Several trips have been taken by the group to Los Angeles for hobby shows and each year members contribute something to the Torrance Hobby Show.

Each year during the holiday season welfare work is conducted, usually taking a family and making it possible for them to have a nice holiday. One year the club adopted the TB ward at the Harbor General Hospital and each month gifts and refreshments were taken out to the ward. Each year the club contributes to fund raising drives.

Those who have served the club as president are: Mae Conner, Maybel Banks, Lillian Shriner, Eva Thomas, Minnie Roberts, Virginia Montague, Cora Bohrer, Hazel Ward, Emily Middleton, Hazel Jain, Addie Parks, Frances Snodgrass, Kathryn Robinson, Ruth Kilgore, Ruth Hardin, Mary Ulmer, Mary McDonald, Bettina Miller, Mae Jones, and now Vivian Cook.

The next meeting, a pot luck supper, will be held at the parish hall.

Chairmen of the fashion show are the Mmes. Phil Steinberg and Robert S. Cameron. In charge of arrangements is Mrs. Edward M. Kline, with the Mmes. Charles F. Baldwin and Howard Langgapp handling table arrangements.

Mmes. Robert W. Clarke and Rocco Do Fato are door prize chairmen, assisted by the Mmes. Paul Waller and William Worley. Decorations will be planned by Mrs. V. K. Anderson, Mmes. John Terre and Charles Brockley are in charge of menu.

The red and white bids were distributed to members at this month's evening meeting in Palos Verdes Art Gallery.
