

Beau Jardin Plans Benefit For Exceptional Children

A regular meeting of the Beau Jardin Club was held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, 22317 Warmside Ave., with Mrs. Harmon and Mrs. John Cariveau as hostesses.

It was announced that a rummage sale will be held in March for the benefit of the School for Exceptional Children to raise funds for completing the new quarters for their school. Mrs. Lee Hayes will head the committee on this project.

The program of the evening was a talk by Mrs. Cariveau entitled "Garden Accessories." Many clever and economical ideas were presented to beautify and improve the yard.

The president, Mrs. L. D. Burt, thanked members of the club for their help in the decorations of the Legion Hall and Torrance Civic Auditorium for the Torrance All America City celebration, Jan. 26.

A flower identification game was played with Mrs. L. D. Burt winning a black pine and Mrs. Kenneth Moe winning a calistemon lanceolatus. Door prizes consisting of a

Erie azalea was won by Mrs. William Cressy and a haworthia by Mrs. William Adkins.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Present at the meeting were Mmes. William Adkins, John Beattie, John Blair, L. D. Burt, John Cariveau, William Cressy, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Leo Hayes, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, Fred Worgul, and Albert Yackie. Guests present were Mrs. Ralph Cullen and Mrs. A. E. Arney.

The next meeting of the club will be held Feb. 27, at the home of Mrs. Robert Hill, 22403 Redbeam Ave., with Mmes. Robert Hill and Donald Drorbaugh as hostesses.

Heart Fund Drive Sunday ... Be Ready

Have a Heart... is the plea of the local Rebekah and Odd Fellow members as they take over the National Heart Fund Drive for Torrance.

Next Sunday afternoon from 2 until 4 p.m., a door-to-door canvass will be staged by the two lodges, giving every resident an opportunity to contribute to the National Heart Fund.

Mrs. Ann Collins, 17025 Crenshaw, is directing the drive in North Torrance; Mrs. Frieda Shaffer, 2052 Santa Fe, is in charge of the area from Arlington to Madonna and from Sepulveda to Carson. Mrs. Belva Brase, 2435 Border, will head the drive in the area from Western to Arlington and from Carson to Sepulveda, and Mrs. Edna Ferrin, 1836 W. 254th St., is in charge of the section from Western to Crenshaw and Sepulveda to 238th St.

Mrs. Angie Disardo, 1020 Beech, heads the drive in the downtown Torrance area; and Mrs. James Boswell will supervise from Crenshaw to Hickory and Maricopa to Torrance Blvd. Mrs. Carl Hoff is in charge of the Fonthill area.

Headquarters for the workers will be the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church Guild hall at 1500 Arlington.

PRE-LENTEN DANCE... The annual spring event sponsored by the St. James Council of Catholic Women will be staged on Saturday, March 2, at the Eagles Hall, 128 S. Catalina. Johnnie Winkler and his orchestra will furnish the music from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Mrs. Charles Sebbens is chairman of the affair and is being assisted by Kay Slocovic. Checking tickets and plans are, from left, Mmes. Robert Reuter, John Ludwig, and Joseph Sclarra. All members and friends of the St. James' parish are invited.

Betas to Aid City of Hope

Beta chapter of the Tau Delta Omega sorority is holding a rummage sale on Saturday, Feb. 23, from 10 o'clock until 2 at 1439 Marcelina Ave. This is its annual charity project and the funds will be given to the City of Hope this year, according to Mrs. Lorrie Voien, president.

Regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Floyd DeVore 1317 Engracia, on Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12. After the business meeting, the members played cards. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ben Smith and Mrs. Voien.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Harold Woodman and Mrs. Kenneth Mumford. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George Shelton, 2207 Gramercy.

RAG DRIVE IS UNDERWAY

Mrs. Charles Kelly, home and school chairman of St. James' Catholic School, announces pupils are conducting a rag drive and are canvassing the neighborhoods.

The drive is a fund raising project for the school. Those wishing to contribute may call Mrs. Kelly, or leave rag collections at the church rectory. Rugs and mattresses are unacceptable for the drive. Feb. 23 is the deadline.

In April the students will conduct a paper drive and those who have accumulations of papers are being asked to keep them for the April collection.

Career Girls Fete Prexy At Shower

A surprise wedding shower was held for Miss Dixie Sherroll, president of the Harbor Cities Insurance Women's Assn. at the new home of Mrs. Jack Satalich, of San Pedro, Feb. 12.

Two hearts topped the pink sheet cake, with the names "Dixie and Dave" written in the center.

Attending were: Mrs. E. C. Durst, Mrs. Boyd Cooper, and Mrs. Joan Luup, of Torrance; Mrs. Harold L. Van Fleet and Miss Genevieve Horvat of Redondo Beach; and Miss Geni Tabayan, Miss Beverley Russell, Mrs. Thelma Templeton, and Mrs. Hugh Wadsworth, Mrs. John Fedarka, and Mrs. Frank Bakulich, of San Pedro. The next monthly dinner meeting will be held at Capri's Restaurant in Torrance, and anyone interested in joining this new group may contact membership chairman, Mrs. E. C. Durst, 1407 Marcelina.

B'nai B'rith Meet Feb. 28

A dinner-social meeting of the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women will be held on Thursday evening, Feb. 28, at the Cockatoo Restaurant in Inglewood. No business will be discussed, and both members and guests are welcome to attend. Guesting will be Mrs. Edward Rudberg, an important personage from B'nai B'rith Grand Lodge, who will present a dramatic narrative entitled "Unto This Day." Three hundred years of Jewish life in America will be illustrated by many extraordinary character dolls.

The chapter's current cookbook project, "Tasty Treasures," will be ready for widespread distribution by the end of March. A large part of the success of this cookbook may be directly attributed to the whole-hearted support of neighboring merchants from Gardena, Torrance, Inglewood, Hawthorne, and Los Angeles. Deadline for acceptance of ads is Feb. 28.

For additional information, contact the chapter president, Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, 2720 W. 174th St., Torrance.
