

FLOWER SHOW DATES LISTED

Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer, president of the Greenthumbers Garden Club, announced today that it would be necessary to change the date of their coming flower show to the second week end in May. The exact dates and time and place will be announced shortly. They can not be re-

VISIT RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson and family spent the Lincoln holiday with Lt. and Mrs. William Hubbard at Van Nuys and with old friends at Newhall.

Stork Shower Compliments Mrs. Bryant

A festive green and yellow color scheme was chosen by Mrs. Don Harding, Mrs. Andrew Janasick, Mrs. James For-nelli, and Mrs. Robert Schooley when they entertained at a baby shower last Thursday evening complimenting Mrs. Don Bryant.

The dining table at the Harding home, 2787 Onrado, was centered by a stork. Also on the table was a cake decorated in yellow and green, flanked by green tapers. Baby bingo was played as well as another appropriate game, after which the hostesses served refreshments carrying out the party colors. Bringing gifts for the expected arrival were Mmes. Anthony Gallo, Al Baker, John Noone, Ed Unrien, William Dickson, Don Barker, John Beahan, Paul Hardie, Delmar Watkins, Leon Warne, William Drager, Richard Olson, Harold Hayes, Pete Almeida, Norris Carstenson, Gerald Young, Lawrence Bergsma, Robert Major, Carl Huff, William Starr, William Breaker, and William Hardesty.

Other presents were received from Mrs. Lester Murdoch and Mrs. Al Armistead, Conoga Park; and Mrs. James Englert, Los Angeles. Gifts were also received from Mrs. Victor Englert and Mrs.

Church Unit Study Bible At Meeting

Monthly inspiration meeting of the Women of the Church was held Feb. 5 in the Fire-side room of the First Lutheran Church. The program was under the leadership of the Missionary Education chairman, Mrs. Julius Meier. Devotion topic was "Studying the Bible." Questions were directed to the members who replied with Bible quotations.

During the program, the reading of religious publications, such as Lutheran Standard, Women's Missionary Outlook magazine, was stressed. Rev. Paul Wenske closed the program with a sermon. During the business meeting, the 1957 program books were distributed. Work projects and membership were other business topics and Mrs. William Crooker was elected parliamentarian. Snapshots of the cars decorated for the All-America parade were shown followed by the Naomi circle serving refreshments carrying out the Valentine motif. Genevieve Bryant, Kenosha, Wis., and Mrs. Lois Laursen, Antioch, Ill. Sending gifts, but unable to attend, were Mmes. Charles Bartholomew, Joseph Campar-zie, Edward Dahlan, Gerald Revell, and Laverne Mayers.

Juniors to Learn Pet Training

February meeting of the Junior Greenthumbers Garden and Pet Club was held at the home of Mrs. Earl Hubacek. The club plans to attend a demonstration by Roy Smith at Walleria Park on the subject of obedience training for dogs, on Saturday, Feb. 25. They will first watch a class being taught by Mr. Smith and then be privileged to have a private demonstration.

The Junior Greenthumbers also set an age limit on memberships at this meeting. It was decided by the club that any child 8½ years or older may join with his parents' permission. Since many of the members also belong to organizations such as Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, it was agreed that they would begin working to achieve their badges in agricultural fields and other pet and related fields. Members present at this meeting were Masters Eddie Sellmeyer, Alan Sellmeyer, Tommy Paterson, Jimmy Paterson, Dennis Haley, Dale Jones; Misses Diane Stafford, Sheri Clemens, Kathy Haley, Linda Haley, Cheryl Lusian, Susan Fitzgerald, Nancy Drum-right, and Leslie Sautter.

ATTEND DANCE

Attending the semi-formal dinner-dance Saturday evening honoring the Past Grand Knights and given by the Bell-flower Council of the Knights of Columbus, are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham. They will be the guests of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Milligan.

The affair will be held at St. Pancratius Hall in Lake-wood and the Cunninghams will also be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schultz of Whittier.

AT COCKTAILS

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Mew-born entertained at cocktails at their Reese Rd. home prior to the hospital ball. Their guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Rootiger, Bob Wilson, J. Whitte, Quanton Johnson and Edward Faye.

GETTING RID OF "PUSHY" FEELINGS . . . Kindergartners at Riviera School all love the two new punching bags added recently to class equipment. A favorite activity among both boys and girls, they stand in line for their turns during recess. "Our new punching-bags furnish good exercise and also help children who need to release their tensions," said Mrs. Kay Loftus, kindergarten teacher. Other teachers agreeing are Mrs. Lola Smith, Mrs. Margaret Davies, Miss Peggy Mulvaney and Miss Kitty Vaughan. D. K. Duncan, principal, feels the bags are a "valuable addition." Demonstrating the punching bag are students of Mrs. Davies, Marcia Bolton in action, while Carol Montgomery, Greg Glenn and Scooter Cassler wait their turn.
