MRS. RICHARD F. SMITH ... Repeats Promises

Mooneyham-Smith Vows Are Recited by Candlelight

Candles were lighted last Saturday evening at the Church of Christ by Misses Dixie Bergan and Miron Ugland, wearing mint green gowns, for the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Sonja Arvella Mooneyham and Richard Frank Smith which took place at 7 o'clock. The place of ceremony was marked with bouquets of white stock, gladioli and carnations.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Mooneyham, 21726 Halldale Ave. wore a ballerina length lace and net gown. A pearl tiara held her illusion fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling a white orchid atop a small white Bible. Mr. Mooneyham escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Donna Isbell wearing mint green lace over yellow taffeta and carrying carnations was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Foster, Ginger Hayden, Joan Blackman and Charlene Baker.

They all wore yellow embossed taffeta gowns and carried yellow carnations with touches of green net.

Flower girls were Palma Lyman and Linda Kay Adams in bouffant green gowns. Ring bearer was Mike Adams.

Weldon Smith served as best man and ushers were Karl Keidser, Sanford Smith, Kenny Smith and Paul Rowe. Rev. Elmer Prout officiated at the marriage.

Preceding the wedding, a medley of nuptial songs was sung by Alice Licht, Diane Woolever, Larry Licht, and Bob Himes. Margaret Cunningham was soloist.

A reception was held at the YWCA and the couple left for a honeymoon in Enchanted Valley. Upon their return, they will be at home at 2633 112th St. Inglewood.

The new Mrs. Smith was graduated from Narbonne High in February this year. She is a member of the Job's Daughters. Mr. Smith was graduated from Narbonne High in 1954. El Camino College in 1957, and is now studying at UCLA. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Smith of 1420 Elm.

Shower for Miss Thomas

A gold and brown color scheme was carried out in a lovely bridal shower last Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Allan Hofferber, 1624 Iris Ave. for Miss Dwana Thomas. Miss Thomas will be married May 11 in Beverly Hills and Mrs. Hofferber will be one of the bridesmaids.

A laundry cart, decorated in yellow with brown streamers and bows held the kitchen gifts for the bride-to-be. Many of the kitchen utensils were also in yellow. The table centerpiece featured yellow iris in a silver bowl and a ring covered with brown ribbon, from which a bell was suspended. The table was set with a silver tea service and other silver accessories.

Lemon and chocolate tarts and yellow and brown mints further served to carry out the basic color scheme.

Approximately 25 guests were present, the majority of whom are alumnae of the Tri-Delt sorority of USC. Pictures were taken and the guests all signed a rolling pin which was varnished to make a suitable souvenir of the occasion. Miss Thomas has been the accompanist for the Pipers, the Torrance Junior Woman's Club choral group.

MISS ANNA K. THOMAS ... To Wed Oct. 17

Anna Thomas' Betrothal to Robert Quellette Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. George Holt, 614 Pine Dr., are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Anna K. Thomas to Robert C. Quellette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmour Quellette, of South Attleboro, Mass.

Anna will be graduated from Torrance High in June. Her future husband was graduated from Attleboro High School and is now a seaman in the United States Navy.

The couple have chosen Oct. 17 for their wedding day, which is also the wedding anniversary of the bride-elect's parents.

MRS. WELZ VISITS HER FAMILY HERE

Mrs. Stephen Welz, daughter of Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, surprised the family with a week's visit, arriving on Sunday. Mrs. Welz, recently transferred from Richmond to Sacramento, the Welzes have purchased a lovely new Early American three bedroom and den home in Carmichael just five miles north of Sacramento. Friday morning Mrs. Welz's daughter, Carolyn, and a girl friend, Joan Osbey, arrived from Richmond to spend the week end.

Friday night Mrs. Beckwith's family celebrated her 81st birthday with a family dinner at the Hacienda Hotel. Those present were Mrs. Melvina Beckwith, the honored guest; Mrs. Welz, Carolyn Welz, Joan Osbey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardin, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cook. Mrs. Welz, Carolyn, and Joan will leave for the North today. Saturday morning John Warner, from Santa Ana, joined the group for the week end.

DINE AND DANCE

An enjoyable evening was spent dining and dancing recently at the Naval Officers' Club on Terminal Island by four Torrance couples. Mr. and Mrs. John Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson and Mr. and Mrs. James A. Post met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leech, 905 Teri Ave., for cocktails before going to the club. They concluded the evening with midnight coffee at the James Post home.

Dinner Party For Couple

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Roberts entertained at a dinner party last week at their home, 1619 Amapola, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kelvin Figgins, who recently returned from France.

The table was centered with an arrangement of jonquils and iris.

After the dinner, the group, all long-time friends, spent an evening visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts' guests were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witt, Tom Quaggin and Miss Barbara Hester.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelvin Figgins were married in Toul France last July. They arrived several weeks ago and have been visiting with Mr. Figgins' parents. This week they are moving into their own home at 609 Cota Ave.

WEDDING GUESTS

Arriving to attend the wedding of Miss Barbara Northcutt and William Conway, which took place last Saturday, were Alden Conway, father of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Callahan of Gildford, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Don Leuchars of Sacramento.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Friends from Shell Beach visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Norman and their daughters, Patricia and Dorothy, 23810 Huber Ave., last weekend, were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Land and sons, Larry and Terry.

A Bon Voyage For Couple

A delightful going-away party with an Oriental flavor was given recently by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Post, 1322 Cranbrook St., for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thornburg.

The bouquet of pink and white carnations and all the table arrangements carried out the Oriental flavor, anticipating the atmosphere of the Thornburg's new home-to-be in Tokyo, Japan.

Shortly after the dinner, Mr. Thornburg, an engineer with the Stone and Webster Engineering firm, flew to his new assignment. Mrs. Thornburg and their three children, Cathy, Colleen and Bruce went up to Watsonville to visit Mrs. Thornburg's mother. Mrs. Thornburg and the children will fly to Japan the last of March. They will be gone six months. The Thornburg's were residents of Torrance for three years.

Friends honoring the couple at dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Youngken, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkes and Mr. and Mrs. Post.

Family Party For Debbie

Debbie Jo Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, 2019 1/2 Andree Ave., celebrated her third birthday at a large family supper Saturday evening.

The birthday child opened her gifts after the evening meal, and the birthday cake and ice cream followed. Debbie Jo told her mother she wanted a white cake with yellow flowers and green leaves. And that is what she had. She also selected vanilla ice cream, a privilege a young lady can enjoy when she is three.

Sharing in the festivities were Debbie Jo's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morris, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Campbell and her two cousins, Jack and Jimmy, her cousin, Joy Taylor, and Debby Jo's parents and her little new sister, Terri Frances.

SEWING GROUP AT KERBER HOME

Mrs. Robert Kerber, 820 Teri Ave., was the hostess for the February meeting of her sewing group last Tuesday evening. The members spent the evening doing handwork, mending and visiting. Dessert and coffee was served at the end of the meeting. Those present were Mmes. George Post, Fred Wilkes, Milton Youngken, Robert Leech and the hostess. Several members were unable to attend. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Leech.
