

RED CROSS WORKERS START DRIVE

With $3000 as an absolute minimum as their part of the Torrance goal for the 1957 American Red Cross Fund Campaign, Mrs. Virginia Stoddard, 3209 Antonio Dr., said yesterday that her volunteer division chairmen and their workers are already in the midst of an intensive drive to raise this amount by March 7.

Impressed with the necessity for the Los Angeles chapter of the Red Cross to raise every dollar of its $3,100,000 goal for this year the volunteers workers jumped the starting gun of March 1 as Red Cross month began and were at work on Thursday.

the friendly competition between the Torrance branch of the Red Cross and the Gardena branch, which last year led the entire Los Angeles chapter in the percentage of its quota raised, is a small trophy which will be awarded to the commerce and industry chairman of either Torrance or Gardena, which ever one raised the highest percentage of quota.

Competing with Albright of Torrance are Ed Baer of Zenith Plastics Co. and Urban Rios of A. & A. Metals, co-chairmen of commerce and industry in Gardena.

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

275 Turn Out for Blue, Gold Dinner of Walteria Cub Scouts

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 4-4433

One of the nicest affairs of the season for the younger set was held last Thursday evening at the Union Oil Co. Cafeteria when the Cub Scouts held their annual Blue and Gold Dinner. The cafeteria use was obtained for this dinner by Ray McLaughlin and proved to be a wonderful place for the banquet.

Rev. Wendell Hook led the invocation and benediction, with other guests being Mr. and Mrs. William Addington.

Program for the evening included Will Arden, talented magician and ventriloquist. Mrs. William Allen led community singing, and Nin Woods, institutional representative, presented the charter to Robert Wagner, president of the Walteria Business Men's Club.

Awards were presented during a very impressive candlelit ceremony by John Creighton and Bill Allen. Birthdays and year pins were given by Cub master Jack Bauman. The anniversary cakes, appropriately decorated in blue and gold with the Cub Scout emblem were cut by Mrs. Alta Davis, Mrs. Louella Lassen, Mrs. Lily Ward, and Mrs. Ginny Bauman.

The pleasure of the evening was augmented by the beautifully decorated tables done by the cubbers with the help of their den mothers. The decor followed the theme of "Onward, for God and My Country." There are at present in our town 11 dens and one Webelos Den, led by Fred Stanton. Approximately 275 were present at the Blue and Gold dinner, amply illustrating the importance that Scout activities play here.

with the active reserve program of the U.S. Army. Kendall took his training in the broadcasting and leaflet battalion.

The next few weeks will be spent by the family in preparing for Kendall's wedding in April to Miss Heidi O'Hara, culminating an engagement of a year's duration. They are to be wed on Miss O'Hara's birthday.

The groom-to-be will return to his former place of employment where he will specialize in the field of hydromatics. He plans to attend school for more training in this branch of mechanics.

The Harbor District of the Los Angeles area Council of Campfire Girls announced last week the appointment of Mrs. Loring Bigelow as Walteria area coordinator.

She is already active in the Business Women's Club of Walteria, acting this year as president. She is very anxious to make contact with any persons interested in helping the Campfire activities in this area, either as adult committee members or as leaders.

At present there is one active group here and a Blue Bird group being formed. Due to illness of one of the active leaders in our town there is an urgent need for another leader immediately. Mrs. Bigelow can be contacted at DA 6-6169.

The Women's Society of Christian Service held its annual reception of new members on last Tuesday evening at the local Methodist Church.

Twenty-six new members were honored at the reception, including Harriet Labit, Eleanor Watt, Judy Cochran, Meloria Reynolds, Pat Broing, Norma Hubinette, Dorine Lucas, Lily Ward, Mickey Frank, Lucille O'Brien, Eileen Klug, Yvonne Muff, Kay Addington, Dorothy Jackson, Jane Hook, Doris Zellner, Doris Hague, Marie Tillotson, Rosemary Travillion, Shirley Cooper, Mildred Happenstahl, Pat Schmidt, Doris Petty, Olive Bromm, and Lulu Edwards.

Mrs. Gene (Julian) Anderson was in charge of the program for the evening on the subject of "Mental Health and the Church" with speakers Mrs. Hubert Rampley, Mrs. Earl Downer, Mrs. Dale Petty, and Mrs. M. Booth.

Following the program the reception ceremony was held for the honoree ladies. Vice president of the Women's Society, Mrs. John Chaudano, and Mrs. Wendell Hook pinned a camellia corsage on each of the new members, with Mrs. Chuck, past president, assisting.

Circle chairmen of the organization, Mrs. Bill Hayden, Mrs. Jerry Anderson, Mrs. J. Gable, and Mrs. Bert Pembie, gave scripture verses and one division of the Women's Society pledge. The members were welcomed in a short speech by the president of the society, Mrs. Robert Cramer. Forty-six ladies were present for the meeting.

Following the reception the ladies adjourned to the refreshment table which was decorated by the hostess circle, the Ruth Circle. The table was beautifully done with camellias and pink blossoming peach bouquets. Cherry cream cheese pie and coffee were served on the sparkling crystal and silver.

Many friends were glad to see Gloria and Frank DeCaro and their two sons Nicky and Frankie when they stopped to visit in our town last Sunday. They spent the day visiting, with the longest stop-over being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cooper, Danaha St.

There was more company on Danaha St. last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fitzpatrick entertained Mrs. Evelyn Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Rosa Boden of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Amy Agnes, Tom's great aunt, and Fred Smith Tom's great uncle, both of Iowa.

These are exciting days at the Baker home on Newton St. since son Kendall R. Baker Jr. is expected in from Fort Bragg, N.C., after completing six months of training
