Casimir Kindergarten Enrollment Underway

The kindergarten round-up at Casimir School, 17220 Casimir Ave., is now underway, according to Principal John Dunworth.

Children who will be five before next Dec. 1 are eligible to enroll in kindergarten next September, with the birth certificate required to verify date of birth.

Parents who have eligible children and who have not received an initial round-up letter can contact the school at DA 4-3448.

Tartar Teen Talk

By OLLIE LESSIN

The Long Beach plunge was invaded by members of the Senior Hi-Y and the Tri-Hi-Y Tuesday.

The first event of the swim was a money dive for dimes, nickels and pennies. The remainder of the evening was spent playing "keep-away" and "tackle the man with the ball." On the way home those who rode in Jack Castle's truck were treated to the singing of Don Witty. Everyone sang the chorus to "Red Hot Mama."

The Junior play, "Sunday Costs Five Pesos," was well received by the student body last Thursday. It was made especially interesting by special lighting.

Tartar dressed in comfortable clothes for an unofficial "Scrounge Day" last Friday.

Tony Bertolet and Ken Robertson treated the cast of the Prom Week Talent Show to a jam session. Speakers were set up throughout Tony's home and microphones and tape recorders were put to use. Entertaining were Diana Cook, Don Witty, Tony Bertolet and Ken Robertson, while others played bongos, danced and listened.

Saturday night Tartar Knights and Tartar Ladies did the town. Beginning the evening with a cocktail party at Tom Quaggin's home, Tartars found themselves at the Palladium about 9:30.

Dancing to the music of Ray Anthony lasted until about 2. From 2 until 4 a party was held at the home of Mrs. Shannon in Rolling Hills. When the party was over the group divided, some finding their way to Huff's for breakfast. As the first rays of dawn crept across

Torrance Moose Lodge To Note 33rd Birthday

The Torrance Moose lodge will observe its 33rd birthday with a dinner-dance to be held at the lodge hall, 1744 W. Carson St., this Saturday starting at 6 p.m., according to Daniel Desmond, governor of the lodge.

Arrangements for the birthday celebration are under the direction of George Clay and William Griep.

the sky the TK's decided to call it a night.

The casts for the sixth original one-act Play Festival have been announced. Tom Quaggin's play, "Money Makes the Difference," will star Joyce Hockey, Pat O'Gara and Bob Cash (with Eddie Shaw playing a madman again).

Jim Weyant's "Stay and Die" will star himself, Mary Blount and Bill Evans. The last play, Karen Brunel and Elsa Barlow's "Time for Life," has not yet been completely cast. The date for the presentation has been changed from April 5 to Saturday, April 6.

The Chordells—Tony Bertolet, Bob Newbert and Ken Robertson—are auditioning for Lawrence Welk's show.

Clean campus competition will begin next week with class competition. Starting with Seniors, each class will be responsible for the appearance of the campus for one week. The winning class will be treated to a first-run movie during class time.

The Torrance Police Car Club Assn. will hold a poker run on April 7.

A fishing trip is being planned in the near future.

At the last meeting, the Roman Angels from South Los Angeles and Hot Heads from the LA Harbor were visitors. Buck Ingram, advisor of the association, read the by-laws and constitution for the two visiting clubs to give them an idea how it is run.

Frank Carbough, who has been building a four-cylinder engine has finished and is planning to start it some time this week. It is setting on a '32 roadster. Chuck Reese, a member of the Chasers, will have his full '29 roadster on the street as soon as he times it. Kenny Bower dropped his three-quarter Mercury in Wednesday. He is a member of the Bartenders, as is Carbough.

The Chasers' paper drive was Sunday, but the group got only three phone calls from the public.

Moose Fete James Evans At Banquet

One hundred fraternity members, civic and business leaders, and friends of James A. Evans, Torrance Moose lodge secretary, were present Sunday at a testimonial banquet held at the lodge hall to honor the 76-year-old Moose leader, a member of the fraternity for 45 years.

George Powell, Torrance planning director, delivered the principal address of the evening. Telegrams of congratulations from Mayor Albert Ison of Torrance and Senator Richard Richards were read by Gov. Donal Desmond of the Torrance lodge.
