Volunteers for Children Install 1957-58 Officers

Mrs. John Stoddard was installed by Dr. Milton Arnold as the president of the Volunteers for Children at their second annual installation held Tuesday evening, March 26, at the Wayfarer's restaurant.

Other officers of the organization, dedicated to bringing "tender loving care" to the child patients at Harbor General Hospital, are Mrs. Don Smith, first vice president; Mrs. Herman Weston, second vice president; Mrs. Alver Johnson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Abraham Luboff, recording secretary; Mrs. Joseph Dock, publicity; Mrs. Louis DeBottari, treasurer; and Messrs. William Luzzan and Robert Bongerz, members of the board.

Dinner was served prior to the installation. Mrs. David DeCell was in charge of the decorations and the arrangements.

After the invocation given by Miss Hilda Tanck, Mrs. Smith introduced the board of advisors who were special guests. They are Dr. L. A. West, medical director of Harbor General Hospital; A. L. Thomas, administrator of the hospital; Dr. Kurt Shery and John Johnson. Mrs. Boris Woolley was unable to attend. Mrs. Margarite McAllister, coordinator of Volunteer Services, was introduced.

Originally a group of 12, the membership now numbers almost 100, but more women are needed if the organization is to carry on the program and see that each child has the best medicine of all, TLC or tender loving care. Anyone interested in this worthwhile effort is asked to contact Mrs. Weston, 460 36th St., Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Dock, 20035 Anza Ave.; or Mrs. Stoddard, 3209 Antonio Ave.

There are also 65 associate members who work at their own homes, sewing slippers, pajamas, stuffed toys and stocking dolls. They use materials supplied by the organization.

Volunteers wear pink pinafores and white blouses and contribute four hours per month to working in the wards. These women play with the children, read to them, and help feed those who are unable to help themselves. The most important part of all is in being a substitute mother to each child in the hospital.
