Torrance Host to 45th Royal Neighbor Confab

Torrance played host to the 45th annual meeting of the Southern California District Association of the Royal Neighbors of America for the first time in 20 years. The convention was held Saturday at the Masonic Hall, with the Torrance Camp 8908 greeting the visitors.

When the afternoon session opened camps from 16 different areas were represented and four others from Los Angeles. With the vice oracle presiding, the state officers and district deputies were greeted and State Supervisor Christiana Hamill introduced Anna V. Parker of San Pedro, who attended the first association meeting in 1912 with Mrs. Hamill, was also presented.

The deputies were Elizabeth Gaston, Mary Louise Coen, Madeline Blakely and Verna Smith. State recorder was Ruby Majors.

Following the welcome by the association president, Mrs. Emma D. Meade, the flag was presented by Cordie White of Torrance. Secretary Mary E. Baker made the roll call, with 229 camps registered.

Elected officers for 1958 are: president, Katherine Koen, Baldwin Park; vice president, Mary E. Baker, Torrance, and secretary-treasurer, Gertrude Knudsen, of the Los Angeles Silver Leaf Camp. The 1958 convention will be held in Baldwin Park.

Following the business session, dinner was served to the guests by the Mothers' Club of the Job's Daughters of Torrance.

During the evening session the honored guests were presented in a colorful procession and a performance was given by the special drill team of Torrance.

Those presented were: Supervisor Hamill, escorted by Vertie Grimm; State Recorder Majors, escorted by Louise Walker; District President

Baby Shower Cotton-Jeans Dance May 4

A stork shower was given recently by the Tops Club in honor of Mrs. Jan Patenaude at the home of Mrs. Margaret Randall. Co-hostesses were Evelyn Casey and Mary Antake.

A pink and blue color scheme was carried out in the decorations and in the gift wrappings. Games were played and each guest given the chance to predict whether a little boy or girl would be added to the Patenaude family. The predictions were put in sealed envelopes for the honoree to open after the baby had arrived. Refreshments were served.
