

Players Plan Tryouts for Mystery Play

The Manhattan Players have announced that their next play will be "Witness for the Prosecution," by Agatha Christie. Open readings for the play will be held at the Camino Real Playhouse, 526 Irene in Redondo Beach, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, at 8 p.m.

There are parts for 10 men and five women and anyone interested in a role or backstage work is invited to attend.

"Witness" will be directed by Ken Cooper, theater manager for the Players, and co-founder of the Gallery Stage in Hollywood. The play, a mystery drama, is noted for its surprise ending, which the author has never allowed to be published.

The Players are looking forward to opening this exciting play on May 23. Their current play, "Teahouse of the August Moon," will run for three more week ends, closing April 20.

Officials Tell Eighth Grade About Town

The eighth grade students of Madrona Elementary School had a visit from Mayor Albert Isen and Lt. D. C. Cook of the Torrance Police Department Wednesday.

The teachers present were Lydia Willis and Cecil Paschall. Also present were Principal George Marich, and Vice-Principal Dale Wickstrom.

Mayor Isen outlined how Torrance city government functioned and discussed the responsibilities and duties of each department. He also discussed how Torrance was selected as one of the All-America cities.

Lt. Cook discussed laws affecting juveniles and how the police worked to keep juveniles from becoming problems later in life. He also briefly discussed the use of narcotics and its effects on the user.

In response to previous requests, Ray Watt, proprietor of a service station at 182nd and Arlington Ave., indicated that he would place a block wall around his property.

The application of Mrs. Charlene Susan Turner, 2000 Calle de Madrid, for a business license to care for two children in her home was approved, but the request of Harry Henderson Electronics, 17026 Pine Ave., for a license to operate an organ repair and custom sound installation business was held over for two weeks.

Refineries Honored

Two Torrance residents have noted anniversaries with General Petroleum Corp. They are Harold G. Bogel, 1216 Elm Ave., who has been with the company for 35 years; D. H. Smith, 17315 Ardath Ave., who marks a quarter of a century with the firm.

Heimerdinger Named Head of Civitan

M. W. Heimerdinger was elected as the new president of the Civitan Club at its meeting last week. He succeeds Tom Ward.

Other new officers of the organization include William Van de Wetering, first vice president; Jack Fes, second vice president; Ted Hasagawa, secretary; K. L. Christofferson, treasurer; John Judson, sergeant-at-arms; T. Kubota, historian.

Members of the board of directors will be Dr. Al Klein, Tom Ward, Ernie Ashton, and Jack Phillips.

The club is making plans for a pancake breakfast on April 27 for the benefit of the Little League. The breakfast will be held from 5:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

Club members also will attend the district convention of Civitan at Phoenix, Ariz., on May 2, 3, and 4.

Planners

(Continued from Page 1) held meetings with residents of the area to determine how the recently-annexed property should be rezoned. The next step will be the formal hearings.

In response to previous requests, Ray Watt, proprietor of a service station at 182nd and Arlington Ave., indicated that he would place a block wall around his property.

The application of Mrs. Charlene Susan Turner, 2000 Calle de Madrid, for a business license to care for two children in her home was approved, but the request of Harry Henderson Electronics, 17026 Pine Ave., for a license to operate an organ repair and custom sound installation business was held over for two weeks.
