

STALAG 17 . . . Members of the cast of "Stalag 17," all-male comedy to be presented by ACCENT! Theater, engage in a bit of horseplay during rehearsal, admiring their "long Johns." Shown are (top) Phil Shaffer and Lee Oberholtzer, (below) George Hodges, Ed Cook, Joe Cunningham, and Ed Long. The play will have a four-week run, starting April 25.

NEW PETTY OFFICERS . . . Two Torrance men last week received promotions to chief petty officer ranks at the Naval Reserve Training Center, Terminal Island. Receiving congratulations from Lt. Cmdr. William O'Malley, commanding officer of the Sunfare Division 1194, are J. L. Harner, 3322 Danaha St., new chief engineman, diesel, and D. C. Reyes, 21103 S. Broadwell Ave., chief metalsmith, general.

NEW NARBONNE HIGH . . . The new Narbonne High School, now under construction at 247th and Western Ave., is scheduled to open in September. It features a unique spiral design with a center court connecting academic buildings and the cafeteria. Shops, laboratories and other noise-making activities are placed away from the rest of the classrooms. Designed to hold 2000 students, the project will cost about $4,250,000.

TOP MARKSMEN . . . Marine Reservists Robert F. Zamora, 21701 Madrona Ave., and William J. Moore, 612 Amapola St., receive a rifle marksmanship medal from Capt. Christian E. Markey, unit recruiting and publicity officer of the Terminal Island 5th Communications Company. They qualified as marks men at field training last summer.

SPRING FESTIVAL . . . As American Savings and Loan Assn. celebrated its spring festival, Robert Coyner, one of the organization's 50,000 savings account holders, receives an azalea plant from Mary Costa, International Flower Show queen. S. Mark Taper, American board chairman, looking on, pointed out that several thousand azaleas, gladiolus bulbs, and seed packets are being given to savers during the spring festival. The office is located in Redondo Beach.

$500 in Equipment Taken at Lumber Yard

More than $500 worth of equipment was stolen from the Lomita Plywood and Materials Corp., 1940 Pacific Coast Hwy., Frank Joseph Boeke told sheriff's deputies Sunday. Those who pulled a panel from the wall to gain entrance, entered the business office—taking a typewriter, adding machine, tacking machine, and several measuring tapes, he said.

SMALL HOLDINGS

Portugal holds three small territories on the western coast of India. They are Goa, Damao and Diu by name.
