

Everybody 'Had a Ball' Saturday At Kiwanis Club's Dinner-Dance

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

The folks all "had a ball" last Saturday night when the local Kiwanis Club held a chicken bar-be-cue and dance at Nickle's Ranch on Newton St. The master touch of Jack Sakauye was evident in the luscious aroma and delectable taste of the chicken which over a hundred enjoyed along with baked potato, rice, combination salad, French bread, and coffee and ice-cream. Good music and company along with the good food made the evening one to be remembered. Congratulations to the committee which made the affair such a success. Serving on same were Tom Jones as chairman; Dick Miller, Ray Roberts, Jack Sakauye, Fred Stevens, J. A. Beasley, Carol Calhoun, Frank Hunter, Bob Kikuno, and John Strech.

The Strechs, by the way, added a delightful bit of merriment when they arrived as "Daisy Mae," and "Lil Abner." For another bit of the fun there was the exclusive table set in the "sunken living room" for the use of the president, Chuck Scott, and past-president, Joe Bellante.

There is cause for celebration at the Charles D. Jackson home on Crickwood. All the blue blankets and bonnets are in use since their new arrival was a boy christened David Perry. He announced his presence at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital on Saturday, March 30. His 20 1/2 inches all stacked up nicely to a healthy 8 lbs., 3 oz. Most happy to greet him when he arrived home were brother Dale and sister Joy. Proud grandparents of this happy occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Jackson, also residents of our town on Hawthorne Blvd., and Mr. and Mrs. William Harnden of East-sound, Wash.

There is an uninvited guest at the McConahay home on Newton St. When Faun went to bring her parakeet in from the patio last week during a sunny day she found that it had a visitor. This young caller is chartreuse in color and has a banded leg. He is being given a good home while waiting for the owner to claim him. If your young bird has wandered off just call the McConahay home at DA 6-9538.

Seems we inadvertently left a name out of the column last week when we reported on the group viewing the Manhattan Players production of "Tea-house of the August Moon." Young Bobbie Moton was also among those present!!

Farewells were bid this last weekend when James and Rita Lamperth went out on a last fling before he leaves for overseas duty. James has been a Navy man for many years, and is now starting another tour of off shore duty. The Lamperths live on Danaha St. and have two daughters.

The Willie McFarlands of Danaha St. spent a busy weekend entertaining both Saturday and Sunday. Saturday they gave a dinner party in honor of Bill Murphy of New York City, who is visiting in our fair land on a business trip. Other guests on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murphy and son, Mike, of Rolling Hills, Mr. and Mrs. S. Merrick and children Bobby, Kenny, and Marilyn of Riviera, Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Ward of Pacoima, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mont-eith of Lakewood with sons Mickey and Mark, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McFarland of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McFarland and daughter, Ruth Ann of Torrance.

Sunday the W. McFarlands enjoyed the boat races at Long Beach Stadium in the company of the Doug Russens of Manhattan Beach and their daughters Patty, Wendy, and Jackie, and Mr. and Mrs. George Todd. After the races the group adjourned to the Danaha St. residence where they hungrily enjoyed bar-b-cued hamburgers and taters with trimmings.

Mrs. Glen Ellis of Newton St. entered the Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles last week to undergo major surgery. Glad to hear she is recuperating nicely and will be home some time in the near future. This is good news for her family, especially her three daughters, who really miss their mother.

The Robert Mills of Sun Valley were guests in our town on Sunday afternoon visiting with the Stewart Roses, George Starks, Ken Tuckers, and capping off the day with a baked ham dinner at the William Mitchell home.

Margaret Stimson of Hawthorne Blvd. is home and recuperating nicely after undergoing arm surgery. . . . Also home from the hospital, and glad to be there after 28 days away from home and health, is Frank Hunter of Dalemead St.

Shelley Neltner, who has been house guest at the Bert Pemble home on Newton St. for several weeks, has terminated his visit here in Southern California and has embarked via the train for his home in Chicago, Ill.

The local Methodist Church is planning an Easter musical to be given as the inspiration of Holy Week begins.

The program will be held at 8 p.m. on Palm Sunday. On the program will be Easter classics sung by the choir and special solos and selections by the men's quartette.

Little Tony Merrill had a good time at his eighth birthday party on last Sunday.

Joining in the fun were Johnny Sohner, Mike Wojcik, Billy Mitchell, Stephen Blank, Jimmy Nannery, Hank Merrill and Francine Agullar. The little guests were particularly intrigued by the birthday cake which was decorated as a miniature baseball diamond with plastic "players" having a game.

Since Tony is a Little League aspirant, the cake was a big hit. Ice cream and pop rounded out the menu following the fun of games.

Have any of you lost a parakeet? Mrs. Faun McConahay of Newton St. found her parakeet had a guest when she went to her patio to fetch it.

The uninvited visitor is young, chartreuse in color, and has a banded leg. It is being well fed and cared for while waiting for an owner to claim it. If you have lost the little "critter" or know someone who has, one is awaiting your call at DA 6-5938.

Girl Scout Troop 1680

An ivy-covered bridge crossing a brook (mirror) and surrounded by fresh spring flowers was the rustic setting for the "fly-up" ceremony when four Brownies of Troop 1680 were invested as Girl Scouts recently at Perry School.

After each girl received her wings from Leader Zetta Pedersen, she crossed the bridge, pausing long enough to wave good-bye to the Brownies. When all four girls had crossed, they were welcomed by the Girl Scouts and the investiture by co-Leader Dorothy Stout followed.

Immediately after the festivities each girl enjoyed a piece of cake which had been
