

Teen-Aged Musicians May Apply For All-Youth Symphony Group

Teen-aged musicians who would like to play in the California All-Youth Symphony Orchestra, will be given a chance to join the nationally-known young people's group.

Announcement was made recently by the orchestra's founder-conductor, Ernest H. Katz, that as part of the annual county-wide auditions for membership in the California All-Youth Symphony, all Torrance area young musicians are invited to try-out beginning today, and continuing for 10 days through Feb. 28.

Boys and girls, between the ages of 13 and 18, residing in this area and playing violins, violas, cellos, basses, trumpets, trombones, French horns, flutes, oboes, clarinets, bassoons, alto saxes, drums and tympani are asked to call Welter 8-0448 to arrange an audition.

The California All-Youth Symphony, whose slogan is "Give Youth A Chance To Be Heard," is a non-commercial civic youth project which has given more than 400 concerts in behalf of civic and charitable causes throughout the state since its founding in 1937.

There is no audition fee or membership charge for joining this musical aggregation which has grown to a full-fledged symphony of 100 from an original membership of four youngsters.

Young people who play either the string bass or kettle-drums and who do not own their own instruments will be given an opportunity to use the orchestra's instruments.

The symphony has been the recipient of many national and international citations of merit and holds seven special commendations from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Among its many concerts have been appearances in the Shrine Auditorium, Philharmonic and Hollywood Bowl.

NTCIA Gives Award

Mrs. Norma Prange, past vice president of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn., was presented with an honorary life membership in the group at an NTCIA dance held last Saturday in Redondo Beach.

Muri Beeves, property custodian and master of ceremonies, introduced John Kessan, president of NTCIA, who gave the award to Mrs. Prange for "exceptionally fine service rendered in the past."

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Boy, Girl Scouting Holds Interest of Walteria Area

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 8-4488

More about those people in our community who are willing to give of time and energy to projects for youth. Delbert Meyers, son of Mrs. Mabel Dumezhausen, of Winlock Dr., has volunteered to donate his piano to the scout building now being completed on Madison St. "Tommy" Thompson, of Winlock Rd., is donating his time for installing the electrical wiring in the building.

Mrs. Joan Guthrie, of Winlock Dr., had a busy evening last Friday, when she was hostess for a jewelry party in her home. Spreading the sparkling array for display was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Conklin. The guests who exclaimed over the wares included Laurie Hebestriat, Barbara Alford, Laura Farmer, Millie Johnson, Lois Robinson, Mabel Dumezhausen, Arva Adams, and Mrs. John Adams, and Mrs. Clarence Conklin. Hot apple pie, served à la mode, and coffee made the evening complete.

The Walteria Business Men's Club held its regular meeting last Thursday evening. The members were happy to announce that the scout building the club is furnishing for the scout activities here has now been lowered on its foundation, and the completion work is fast progressing. By the way, the Walteria Business Women's Club has substantially donated to this project also.

Boy Scout Troop 230 spent a day cavorting in the snow last Saturday when they were taken on a trip to Waterman Canyon, Hill Road, Bob Wagner, and Mr. Ryland were the adults who accompanied the boys.

There is a brand new Brownie troop in our section. Mrs. Tom Brewer is the leader. They will have their investiture ceremony at the Walteria school kindergarten room tomorrow. The ceremony will be from 8 to 8:30 p.m. Sponsoring the troop is the Walteria Business Women's Club. Co-leader is Mrs. Adams.

Our sincerest sympathies are extended to two Walteria friends this week upon the loss of their loved ones. Mrs. J. A. Beasley, of Newton St., suffered the loss of her mother, Mrs. Nellie Beasley, who passed away at the Harbor General Hospital, where she had been under care for some time. Mrs. Beasley's funeral was held at the Walteria Community Methodist Church on Feb. 10.

James Whitman, also of Newton St., was bereaved by the death of his mother, Mrs. Edna R. Whitman, who succumbed in York, Pa. Mrs. Whitman's death was very sudden. Services were held on Wednesday.

That Blue and Gold Dinner will be quite an affair this year. It will be held at the Torrance Civic Auditorium on Feb. 28. Three local Scout groups will participate, including Cub Scout Packs 240 and 271, and Boy Scout Troop 240. All the boys' parents are invited to attend.

City Receives First Tax $5

The city can rub more than two nickels together this week, according to City Clerk A. H. Bartlett. Received late last week were two checks which added nearly $400,000 to the city's bank account. The first check was for $354,516.38 and represents the first installment on the 1955-1956 taxes collected for the city. The second check was for $13,489.60. The check was the city's share of the fines assessed in South Bay Municipal Court during January, 1956.
