STUDYING DISSECTED FISH . . . Popular at Harbor Junior College are classes in zoology. Shown here are Bonnie Demonsky, Verne Cuomo and M. M. Wadley, zoology instructor at Harbor JC, discussing the nerve centers of a dissected fish. Interesting work as long as you don't have to eat sardines for lunch.

MORE HOSPITAL FUNDS . . . Lawrence A. Harvey, executive vice president of Harvey Aluminum, hands a check for $500 to Mrs. John Beaman, of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary to be used in furnishing rooms in the new addition to the hospital to be built soon. The money represents the $500 Treasure Chest won by the firm during the Hospital Ball drive last month.

Paintings On Display

Thirty paintings in oil, watercolor and tempera and 30 drawings all by Keith Crown, associate professor at the Fine Arts Department, USG, are now on display at 204 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Manhattan Beach. Crown is chairman of the Professional Artists of the South Bay Community Arts Association and a member of the California Water Color Society. The works will be on display until March 10. Admission is free.

Airman Leaves for Iceland Tour of Duty

Airman Third Class William Harlicker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Groh, left last week for Iceland, where he expects to spend the next year on duty with the Air Force. A graduate of Torrance High School, Airman Harlicker had been home on a 20-day leave following his completion of a technical training course at Francis Warren Air Base in Cheyenne, Wyo. He has been in the service for eight months. Prior to entering the service, he attended El Camino Junior College.

Employment Record Set

Last month California had the lowest January unemployment record since 1948 and the highest employment record on file according to the Department of Unemployment.

Contract for the new building has been awarded, Hahn reports.

HONORED AT ANNUAL AWARDS BANQUET . . . E. Mark Taper, (left), chairman of the board, American Savings and Loan Assn., presents watch to Helen Adams in recognition of the latter's 19 years of service to the association. The award was made during the savings and loan association's annual banquet honoring its senior employees. This year's affair was held at the Hotel Statler in Los Angeles. Mrs. Adams is employed at the association's branch office in Redondo Beach.

Return From Optometrists Convention

Optometrists Aiden W. Smith, L. Pysant and Marvin F. Walsh, all of Torrance, were among the more than 500 doctors of optometry who attended the recent 51st annual convention of the California Optometric Assn. held in Long Beach. The conclave was dedicated to the 250th birth of Benjamin Franklin who invented bifocal glasses. Delegates heard reports on matters such as proper television viewing and the defects of smog vision. The advice on television viewing: Keep the room well lit and stay at least 6 feet from the screen.
