

Tartar Teen Talk

By KAREN HESTER, DA 6-4301

For a little belated news, Peggy Sprout had a party celebrating her 18th birthday, Feb. 20. Those helping Peggy celebrate were Joan Roscoe, Mike and Tony Bertollet, Lowell Ranum, Jofran Rubco, Georgia Sanford, Joe Rubco, Barbara Hester, John Usab, Lorna Hall, Tom Quagrin, Peggy Rynhart, Rich Ruffell, Terri Ackers, Bart Rowland and many more. Happy Birthday, Peggy!

Congratulations to Jane Dalell who finally got the cast off her broken leg. The accident occurred while tobogganing in the mountains a couple of months ago. Anyway, there's no more excuse for being late to classes, Jane.

It seems we have some talented volleyball players on campus. Winning medals Monday night at the volleyball play-offs, were Jerry Rusk, Alex Merola, Bob Hanks, Gus Sanchez, and Jack Johnson.

Installed at a party for members of the Scholarship Society and their guests were the new officers who are: president, Donna Walker; co-ordinator of activities, Ollie Lessin; vice president, Betty Yoshioka; secretary, Irene Nasaki; treasurer, Sandra Beird; historian-reporter, Mary Yoshioka; sergeant-at-arms, Kent Bartholic, and John Brentwood, and commissioner of activities, Tom Carter.

The Girls and Boys League had separate and calls last Friday. The boys watched wrestling while the girls saw professional models from Jean Barnhart's modeling school. Strangely enough they are our own classmates. The clothes were just darling, and the girls did a terrific job.

To find out what's coming off with our baseball and track teams, be sure to watch the bulletin in the main hall. You Tartars should get out to the games and meets and support our teams as we really have winning teams again this year.

There was another birthday party given for Tony Ward at Linda Thistle's house last Thursday night. Some of those joining the party were Audrey Stevens, Sharon Blakesly, Bob Lewis, Sherwood Tiernan, Bill Montgomery, Bev Oaks, John Yesslein, Sharon Stewart, Helen Roberts, Ken Wheat, Dick Dawson, Patty Wingard, Marylou Sass, Mike Kendall, Cliff Grace, Dennis Moss, Jofran Rubco, and Jill Moore. I hear they put a few people on the spot while playing "Truth."

There was another surprise slumber party at Judy Cook's house last Friday night for Jan

Anderson's 18th birthday. Spending a sleepless night were Joan Roscoe, Ann Sackman, Betty Walker, Jo Bunker, Babs Quinn, and Louise Larned. They all had fun that night, but oh, that morning!

The Hi Toppers Y Club put on the "Okey Hop" last Saturday night. All the couples looked like they just got in from the sticks in their cotton dresses and jeans. Everyone had a "downright" good time.

The Tri-Mix Car wash was last Saturday morning through the afternoon. All the girls were busy washing cars all day, and it was a huge success. In the last Tartar Teen Talk, I gave you the wrong address. Excuse me!

The Boys League had a pizza sale last Thursday that went over very great. Why don't you have more of these, boys?

Torrance High was well represented at the National Guard Dance in Manhattan Beach last Saturday night. Really dancing up a storm, were Gerry Rusk, Bob Hanks, Karen Hester, Butch Hazel, Buz Zamora, Gus Sanchez, and Jack Johnson.
