

FIRST RAILROAD
The first railroad was built in New Mexico in 1881. Before that principal means of transportation were the stagecoaches on regular schedules.

PORK CUTS
An estimated 75 cents of every consumer dollar spent for pork goes for cuts that make up somewhat less than one half the hog's liveweight.

What a good time Katherine and Duane Dawson will be having this summer with their new 21-foot cabin cruiser. They took it out on their first cruise Sunday with their two children, Chris and Dana. Katherine reports that 3-year-old Chris thinks he is quite a boatman. They will be working on the interior of the boat for awhile putting in foam rubber cushions, curtains, etc. Then they expect to dock it at the San Pedro pier for the summer. The boat sleeps two so they are planning on spending a lot of time during the summer traveling to Catalina, San Clemente, and other fishing islands.

Summer Sailing on New Cruiser

The cake was decorated with a large stork and miniature flannel diapers served as nut cups.
Guests included Betty Jackson, Helen Badgley, Marlene Hudson, Peggy McCabe, Beverly Gunderson, Sharon Nelson, Audrey Wolfe, Flo Schenk, Bobbie's mother, Mrs. Edith B. Nelson of Inglewood, and her sister, Nored Sundback of Westchester.
Another surprise shower was given for Jo East, of 4808 Highgrove, Mary Ann Cleveland and Yvonne Baumgartner were co-hostesses. A few games were played and after the lovely gifts were opened refreshments of chocolate ice box cake, coffee, nuts, and candies were served.

Those attending were Betty Weber, Dot Adams, Fatty Asman, Joan Lloyd, June Peterson, Cathy Arnold, Joyce Kent, Fran Clayton, Bobby Flamm, and Katie Hernandez.
Neighboring women on Highgrove had their monthly get-together at Jo Quin's home last Wednesday evening. Jo served chocolate cream and pumpkin cream pie to Detores Struble, Joyce Sullivan, Ann Burns, Ginny Harney and Mary Bowman. The girls all just enjoyed an evening of relaxation.

Another shower this week was held at the Sommers' home on Green Meadows by three hostesses—Joyce Sullivan, Teddy Mock and Sue Sommers. The surprised recipient was Jeanette Rice. One of the guests, Georgette York, an artist, made some beautiful decorations for the event all in the pink motif. Even the dessert served during the evening was cream puffs filled with straw-berry ice cream and covered with pink whipped cream.
Twenty attended the festivities. Included were Muriel O'Melia, Frankie Stamm, Dolores Struble, Jo Quinn, Helen Pucosth, Phyllis Wells, Rose Mary Walker, Peggy Flee, Virginia Harney, Georgette York, Iola Bullard, Dottie Frey, Mary Bowman, Barbara Wilvers, Ruth Williams, and Reba Grosch.
