To SC Honor List

David Scholl, 815 Beech Ave., made the honors list for the College of Letters, Arts, and Sciences at the University of Southern California, according to Dean Tracey Streyve.

A total of 242 out of 2600 full time students in the college qualified for the dean's list for the fall semester. Many of them carried from 15 to 18 units of course work.

Based on a scale of 4.00 for all "A" grades, students had to make a 3.4 or B plus average to get on the honors list.

SEEKING POSTS TOMORROW . . . Shown here are 14 of the 16 candidates who will appear on the municipal ballot tomorrow. One candidate, G. S. Evans, has withdrawn from the race although his name is still on the ballot. He said his pension as a retired Torrance police officer would be threatened if he were elected to the Council. One other candidate, Walter G. Ryan, has maintained complete silence throughout the campaign, and efforts by HERALD reporters to find him have failed. Letters to him at the address listed on his nomination papers have gone unanswered. Also on the ballot tomorrow are nine charter amendments. The HERALD has recommended a "No" vote on No. 9, "Yes" on the others. Candidates Drale, Garrabrant, and Smith have been endorsed by the HERALD.

Retirement Benefits Top Spur for Re-Enlistments

Retirement benefits now top the list of reasons why Air Force men — first termers and career airmen alike — are boosting Air Force reenlistment rates to new highs, according to Sgt. Edwin King, United States Air Force recruiter for the Torrance area.

In view of the rising reenlistment rates, Air Force headquarters recently conducted a survey among airmen to discover why so many are signing over.

The results show that the airmen appreciate the many actions taken this past year by the Air Force to make service life attractive and stable.

Sergeant King stated that along with the retirement benefits listed by airmen who realize the advantage of long-range security, reenlistment included satisfaction with job and duty assignments; Air Force opportunities for training and education; adventure and travel, family satisfaction with the Air Force; and the love of flying and aviation.

Other spurs include the new pay and allowances, traditional fringe benefits and the lucrative reenlistment bonuses often more than $1000.

WHO PUT UP THE $7,120.00 ?

It reportedly is costing this HUGE SUM to finance the campaigns of Nick Drale, Walter Garrabrant, and Beverly Smith for election to the City Council on Tuesday, according to a usually reliable source.

A front page story in the Torrance Herald on April 5 says these men represent the "solid, conservative elements of the city." Now ask yourself, what "CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS" reportedly put up $7,120.00 to elect a so-called "SPECIAL INTEREST TICKET" to currently non-compensated jobs on the Torrance City Council?

We want to know how many Torrance subdividers were assertedly pressured into contributed to this BIG MONEY CAMPAIGN? What PROMISES were allegedly made to these subdividers?

We also ask, "WHY HASN'T NICK DRALE DENIED ANY OF THE STATEMENTS PRINTED ABOUT HIM?" The answer is Simple. The statements all were based on official, public city records and couldn't be honestly denied.

We believe the voters of Torrance are tired of SPECIAL INTEREST COUNCILMEN. That's why the Home Owners Association for Better Government has formed to urge you to
